Washington, April 6,-Both houses of congress listened yesterday to phoid fever. Thirteen ice packs were president Taft's brief message urging the adoption of the reciprocity agree- her fever where she would be free ment with Canada,

Then, with the senate adjourned. the democratic house proceeded further with its organization by adopting a new set of rules.

To a great extent the new rules are repetition of those that have been the past. The democrats claim that their greatest reform is in taking away from the speaker his power to int committees and to designate the chairman of each committee. The new rules provide for the election of tees and their chairmen.

stiffing legislation in committees.

A special order passed by the democrats and limiting debate on the bills to four hours immediately brought out a cry of "gag" from the republicans. The speeches which followed were all more or less of a political nature and there was no serious fight on the rules themselves. The republicans claimed they were debarred from making such a fight because of the further provision of the special order that only one substitute set of rules could be one substitute set of rules could be cery firm offered by the minority. It is really, as now developed, fight between those two ardent haters and devout enemies, Bryan and Bailey Bailey is the controlling brain and real management of the fight to elect Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, to be leader.

The real issue, however, as the anti-Martin people declare, is to determine symment" forces of Raleigh democracy whether the Denver platform of 1908 shall be endorsed or repudiated.

by the senators who have been acthe tariff session. For instance, on the four roll calls, which were taken on lumber, Martin voted with Aldrich every time.

On the 129 roll calls that were taken during the tariff session Martin voted with Aldrich a greater number of times than any other democrat except the two sugar senators from Louisiana, Foster and McEnery,

These are the reasons why the progressive senators, especially those who have just come to occupy their seats for the first time, are actively opposing Martin. They say that if Martin is now elected leader it will be the death blow to all chance of revising the lumber tariff downward; that the Bailey view of tariff will be endorsed in the most formal way possible, and Bailey is the originator and sponsor for the theory that free raw materials is not fundamental democratic doc-

The Bailey-Martin forces are believed today to have an advantage in osition and strength, and are anxious to force an early caucus.
