

SENATOR CARTER DIES AT CAPITOL

Notable and Picturesque Figure Passes Sunday

Washington, Sept. 18.—Former United States Senator Thomas Henry Carter, of Montana, for many years a notable and picturesque figure in national politics, once head of the republican national committee and since last March chairman of the American section of the international joint commission, died at his home yesterday of infection of the lungs. He was 57 years old.

Mr. Carter had been under the care of a physician for months. He was able to go about, however, and his ailment, a filling of the lungs with clogged blood, did not become acute until a week ago. A Baltimore specialist was summoned last Wednesday and at that time the attending physician expressed confidence in the patient's recovery. But the malady became worse and death resulted at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Carter, wife and their sons, students at Georgetown University, were with him when he died.

The funeral service will be held at St. Paul's Roman Catholic church in this city, at 10 a. m., Tuesday. The interment will be at Mount Olive cemetery this city.

Mr. Carter had a remarkable career. It extended over 22 years of congressional and official life at Washington. This embraced service as the first representative elected from Montana, two terms in the United States senate and executive positions as commissioner of the general land office, chairman of the republican national committee in the second and unsuccessful campaign of Benjamin Harrison for the presidency, president of the board of United States commissioners for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis and, since last March, chairman of the newly created "international joint commission, American section," especially charged with Canadian boundary matters.

SAVE COUPONS FOR DICTIONARY

Most Valuable Information in Reference Part

Just now the centenary of Charles Dickens, the great English novelist, is being celebrated in various ways. Stamps are being sold for the benefit of his children's children, and the children born of his wonderful imagination and knowledge of human nature are being discussed more than ever before.

In this instance the Sun dictionary will be found a timely aid. If you hear or read of a Packer, or Pickwick, or a Pinch, and do not understand the reference, look the name up in the Treasury of Facts at the back of Webster's New Standard Dictionary, Illustrated, and you will be enlightened by the clear and concise statements found there.

The Sun is passing out hundreds of volumes of this valuable work from the Dictionary Department hourly in exchange for six consecutive coupons clipped from issues of the Sun and a small expense bonus. You can choose your binding from all silk cloth to the fine limp leather book that looks like a Bible.

If you have the Sun Dictionary at your elbow where it belongs you can readily understand the references in your daily reading which have puzzled you heretofore. You will find that either in the dictionary proper or in the Treasury of Facts your want will be supplied. The most used book in the Century dictionary and encyclopaedia, a work of many volumes, has been the dictionary of proper names. The Sun now offers you a dictionary in one commensurate size volume which contains in two of its chapters a condensed work of similar character which will serve you everyday needs. Characters from Shakespeare and all the best known people of fiction are crowded into this Blue Book of the Book World. There is also a catalogue of familiar allusions and phrases which will light many a dark corner in your day's reading.

Do you ever knit your brow over a legal phrase or the meaning of one or two Latin words used in connection? Stop it. Frown will wrinkle the fairest forehead.

Don't procrastinate. Get that Dictionary and stop puzzling. Six clippings and a small bonus get it.

DR. WILEY TALKS OF TAFT LETTER

Grateful for Sympathetic and Comforting Expressions

Blumont, Va., Sept. 18.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, expressed himself more fully upon President Taft's letter, in which the chemistry bureau chief was completely vindicated and cleared of the charges made against him by the personnel board of the department and the case closed so far as Dr. Wiley was concerned. Dr. Wiley said:

"I have read the text of the president's letter and am deeply grateful for the sympathetic and comforting expressions contained therein. I rejoice too, that Dr. Rusby has been found free of fault, and am sorry that it was found necessary to reprint Mrs. Kebler and Bigelow, both faithful and conscientious workers. Their offense was in the phrasing and not in the fact.

"I always felt certain that the president, with his high sense of justice, would follow the course which he did.

"I am grateful also to the press of the United States for the practically unanimous support which it has given me during this ordeal. I feel that the tribute is not a personal one, but to the cause which I have endeavored to espouse.

"I cannot say anything of the future save that as long as I remain in the public service I shall endeavor to carry out the purposes which have actuated me in the past.

"I desire, also to take this opportunity of expressing my gratitude to the hundreds of friends, known and unknown, who have written and wired me in the past few weeks and whose messages I have yet been unable to answer.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES

Saturday night presented some exciting scenes for the new men at Trinity College. It was the occasion of the first meeting of the two literary societies and the advocates of each organization were exceedingly zealous in their efforts to corral men into the halls of their respective societies. The societies are somewhat handicapped this year in their canvass for new members on account of the fact that they have no regular places of meeting ready for occupancy, the halls which once sheltered them having been destroyed in the fire of last January. But they can show great promise for the future, for the new halls, to be located in the new administration building that is being constructed, will be the equals if not the superiors of any society halls in the south. They are to be in the two end sections of the building, and will be equipped with galleries for the convenience of visitors and also several committee rooms for the use of the members in transacting business.

At 7:30 the clans began to gather, the Columbians in Craven Memorial hall and the Hesperians in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

In Hesperian hall the meeting was well attended by old members and new men alike, there being 50 or more new men and about the same number of members. The visitors were welcomed by the president, Mr. W. G. Shepard, in a striking speech and the following men made talks: Mr. H. G. Hedrick on the subject, "The College Man's Relation to the Literary Societies;" Mr. J. N. Aiken on "What Hesperia Undertakes to do for Her Members;" Mr. C. O. Fisher on "What the Society Has Meant to an Individual;" Mr. Holland Holton on "Hesperia's Record."

After a cordial invitation had been extended to the visitors to return next Saturday they were asked to retire and the society proceeded to regular business. A good many important matters were brought up and discussed at some length and the meeting adjourned to meet next time in the large lecture hall in the Academic building, where the society will meet until the new quarters are ready.

In the Columbia Society, Mr. R. G. Cherry, the president made the address of welcome and then called upon several of the old men and also the active members who were especially interested in society work to make short talks, telling the visitors of the record of Columbia. The first speaker on the Columbia program was Professor H. E. Spence, of the English department of the college, who made an enviable record during the time he was in college in the work of the societies. Messrs. Willis Smith, E. J. Ludlow, C. E. Rozelle and R. M. Patterson also addressed the meeting. After the close of the public part of the program the visiting men were dismissed and the regular business of the society transacted.

The meetings were marked by great enthusiasm and, as usual on first nights, there was a great deal of rivalry between members of the two sister societies in getting the new men out to their meetings.

There were several members of former years present, mostly from the class of 1911, but other classes had their representatives on hand also. After so favorable a beginning

LAVA CONTINUES TO FLOW

HOWEVER, THE ETNA ERUPTION SEEMS TO BE LOSING SOMETHING OF ITS ACTIVITY.

Catania, Sept. 18.—Although the eruption of Mount Etna seems to be losing something of its activity and the earthquakes are less frequent in occurrence, the immense flood of lava which has spread down the mountain continues its work of destruction. There are now five main streams for miles over the country.

Professor Ricco, director of the observatory, who has spent two days on the top of Mount Etna to make observations, returned to the observatory yesterday. He said the initial speed of the lava at the mouth of the crater has slightly diminished but that incandescent material is still being poured out in perhaps as great quantity as on the first few days. Several cones have been formed near the new craters, varying from sixty-five to one hundred feet in height. A new mound, five hundred feet high, had sprung up, which is emitting smoke and cinders.

A great procession, bearing a statue of Christ, yesterday marched in front of the advancing lava and offered prayers for the immediate cessation of the flow. Hundreds proceeded to the home of a blacksmith where it was reported a miracle had occurred. The lava had been diverted from this house and the peasants believe that this was due to a picture of a saint hanging on the door. But in the afternoon the lava stream again turned, completely destroying the blacksmith's home.

BEATTIE TAKEN TO RICHMOND

Richmond, Sept. 18.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., the convicted wife-murderer of South Richmond, who has been confined in Chesterfield county jail at Chesterfield Court House since he was found guilty of the charge against him on the 8th instant, was brought to the city yesterday in an automobile by a deputy sheriff and placed in the Richmond city jail, where he will remain presumably until he is removed to the penitentiary for execution. He is condemned to die November 24.

HEAVY EARTHQUAKE RECORDED

Sismograph at Washington Notes Heavy Shock Yesterday.

Washington, Sept. 18.—A heavy earthquake was recorded on the sismographs of the Georgetown University observatory here during the night. The shocks lasted an hour. Father Tondorf, director of the observatory, said the center of the disturbance apparently was about 4,500 miles away from Washington and he believed it was connected with the eruption of Mount Etna on the island of Sicily in the Mediterranean.

Attending Odd Fellows Meeting.

Mr. G. W. Bryant left Saturday afternoon for Indianapolis to attend a meeting of the national grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Bryant goes to the meeting as a delegate from the North Carolina grand lodge.

WANTS TO PLEAD GUILTY

MURDERER OF WIFE AND FATHER-IN-LAW READY TO DIE ON GALLOWS.

Anderson, S. C., Sept. 18.—When the case of Samuel E. Hyde, charged with the murder of his wife and her father, William Beasley, was taken up by the grand jury here this morning Hyde waived the three days usually allowed defendants to be tried for murder, and his trial started in the afternoon.

Hyde announced that he would make a plea of guilty, but the laws of South Carolina forbid such a plea, and the court appointed an attorney for the prisoner.

The crime was committed on July 19 last, when Hyde went to the home of his father-in-law and shot five times at his wife, from whom he had been separated for some time. The wife was instantly killed. The shots attracted her father and sister, and Hyde, who had reloaded his pistol, shot both of them, a bullet penetrating Mr. Beasley's heart. The girl was not seriously injured.

Hyde is twenty-seven years old and an engineer. He expresses no regret for his actions, on the contrary stating that he now is entirely satisfied and willing to take the death sentence for the crime. He declares he had carefully planned to kill his wife because her father had caused her to leave him.

FOUR HURLED TO DEATH

KILLED WHEN 800 PASSENGER TRAIN STRIKES THEIR BUGGY IN WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Sept. 18.—Three members of the family of Frank Klein, postmaster of Rockfield, Wis., and a servant of the family were killed when a 800 road passenger train struck their double buggy, near Germantown, last night. The dead: Mrs. Anna Klein, 37 years old. Jerry Klein, 7 years old. Grace Klein, 11 months old. Woman servant, name unknown. The injured: Frank Klein, 41 years old, scalp wound and probably internal injuries. Robert Klein, 2 years old, slightly bruised.

Getting Along.

"How are you getting along in the law business, old man?" "I have one client." "Is he rich?" "He was."—Boston Transcript.

"How times flies!" "Yes, doesn't it? James Garfield Smith has a son who is old enough to shave and Grover Cleveland Miggles is bald-headed."—Chicago Record-Herald.

CONDITION GROWS SERIOUS

PERITONITIS SETS IN AND THE PREMIER'S HEART ACTION HAS GREATLY WEAKENED.

Kiev, Sept. 18.—The condition of Premier Stolypin, who was shot by Dmitry Bogroff at a gala performance in the Municipal theater Thursday night, is causing his physicians alarm. Peritonitis has set in and the patient's heart action has considerably weakened. A lengthy bulletin was prepared yesterday afternoon by the physicians in view of the change for the worse as it was deemed advisable to inform the public of the true nature of the premier's wounds. This bulletin was as follows:

"A change for the worse in Premier Stolypin's condition set in last evening. Symptoms of local peritonitis were noticed, with indications of effusion of blood under the diaphragm. At 6:30 o'clock this morning the patient's temperature was 96.9, pulse 86, respiration 26 to 28. The temperature two hours later was 98.6, pulse 104, respiration 24 to 26.

"The bandages were removed at 10 o'clock and the mouth of the wound was found to be in a satisfactory state. The bullet was felt under the skin and removed, a local anesthetic being employed. The patient stood the operation well in every way."

The premier showed no improvement during the day but the doctors hopefully expressed the opinion that there was no great cause for alarm.

Shoots Bride of Seven Months.

Colede, Ga., Sept. 18.—J. T. Hudson of this city yesterday afternoon shot and probably fatally wounded his bride of seven months and then turned the pistol on himself in an attempt to take his own life. The bullet penetrated his breast, but it is expected he will recover. No cause for the shooting has been ascertained.

Negroes Are Leaving.

Chickasha, Okla., Sept. 18.—"These parts are haunted and are generally unhealthy for negroes." This notice signed "Citizens" found posted in several places in a negro farming community north of here has so alarmed the negroes that many of them are leaving. They fear an outbreak of race trouble similar to that near Caddo three weeks ago.

Will Not Contest Election.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 18.—There will be no court contest of the July 22 statewide prohibition election which the anti-prohibitionists won. A recommendation to this effect by the state-wide prohibition subcommittee was adopted Saturday.

Quite Heated.

The most tactful man we have met lately was down on the seashore recently. The day was a broiler, and as this individual sat among a number of ladies on a sweltering hotel piazza, one of his fellow sufferers asked: "What does the thermometer say, Binks?" "50!" answered Binks in a stage whisper. "There are ladies present."—Judge.

BIG MEETING OF ODD FELLOWS

Sovereign Grand Lodge Has Enthusiastic Opening Day.

Indianapolis, Sept. 18.—The opening day of the sovereign grand lodge meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was a busy and enthusiastic one. Every representative entitled to a place on the floor was in his seat this morning when the session began. All of the states of the Union and the Provinces of Canada were represented. John E. Cockrum, grand sire, occupied the chair. The visitors were welcomed by Governor Marshall, former Vice-President Fairbanks and U. Z. Wiley, past grand master. Following the opening formalities the regular business of the convention was taken up. There will be no election of officers by this convention. St. Louis delegates have started a spirited contest for the convention of next year.

PRESIDENT TAFT IN MICHIGAN.

Welcomed With Genuine Cordiality This Morning.

Detroit, Sept. 18.—Michigan welcomed President Taft today with genuine cordiality. The presidential train reached Detroit before 7 o'clock this morning had despite the early hour a large crowd was on hand to catch a glimpse of the nation's chief executive. The car was immediately switched around the city and taken to Pontiac where the president delivered a short address and then returned to Detroit to attend the opening of the Michigan state fair. At luncheon the president was the guest of the Detroit commercial bodies. A ride about the city occupied the remainder of the afternoon.

M'NAMARA UNAVOIDABLY ABSENT

First Time in Eight Years He Has Failed to Attend Union Meeting.

Milwaukee, Sept. 18.—For the first time in eight years J. J. McNamara, the international secretary, was not on hand when the International Bridge and Structural Ironworkers' Union met in annual convention in this city today. The convention will adopt strong resolutions in the case of McNamara, who is in jail in Los Angeles on dynamiting charges, and will take steps also to aid in the defense of the accused man and his associates who are to be placed on trial next month.

Mr. Ed Markham in Durham.

Mr. Ed Markham, of Pargould, Ark., came in this morning to visit his cousin, Mr. L. B. Markham, for some time. Mr. Markham's father left Durham for the west many years ago, and he has grown up with the country, becoming a prosperous business man.
