CREATION OF 18 NEW CARDINALS

Pope Pius Holds First or Private Consistory

Rome, Nov. 27.—This morning, in the hall of consistory, near the famous Sixtine Chapel, there was held the first, or private consistory for the creation of the eighteen new cardinals recently chosen by the Pope. The public consistory, which is the grand ceremonial attending the installation of new members of the sacred college, is set for next Thursday.

The ceremony today was of the usual simple but impressive character. The cardinal designate, including the three Americans who have been honored with red hats—Archbishop Farley of New York, Archbishop O'Donnell of Boston and Mgr. Falconio, the apostolic delegate at Washington—were assembled in the hall of consistory to receive the congratulations of the other members of the sacred college and to await the coming of the pontiff, who was to formally proclaim them prelates of the church.

The pope read an address of Latin, after which he asked the assembly in the formula mentioned by the usage of four centuries: "What think ye?" The cardinals arose, removed their zucchetto, or skull-cap, and bowed basely, after which the pope created the new cardinals, "by the authority of Almighty God, of the blessed apostles, Peter and Paul, and of our own."

In virtue of his association with the sacred college, the pope performed the ceremony of "sealing the lips" of each of the cardinals, to impress upon him the necessity of prudence in the management of ecclesiastical affairs and as a symbolic trial before being invested with the active and sensitive voice of the voice which can elect a pope or can speak with the authority of St. Peter as his successor. At the conclusion of the ceremony the junior cardinal deacon rang a bell and the pope unsealed the lips, saying in Latin: "We open your mouths that in consistories, congregations and other ecclesiastical functions ye may be able to speak your opinion. In the name of the Father and of the Son of the Holy Ghost, amen."

MAY NOT GET REWARDS

GOVERNMENT SUSPECTS COLLUSION BETWEEN CAPTORS AND CAPTURED.

Greensboro, Nov. 27.—It is learned here on reliable information that the United States government will in all probability refuse to pay two rewards of $500 each offered for the capture of assassins of Revenue Officer Robert Henry in Wilkes county several months ago when the officer was shot while raiding a blockade distillery and whose life for a time hung by a slender thread. It is known that the matter of the two $500 rewards has been investigated very recently by United States Deputy Marshal T. F. Roland, of Asheville, and it is said that Mr. Roland secured information that convinced him that there was some sort of arrangement, agreement or collusion between the "captors" and the men wanted for the assault and that he will in his report to Marshal Logan recommend that the rewards be not paid. In fact it is alleged, according to reports reaching here, that the reward money of $1,000 or a part of it was to go to the men charged with the shooting of Mr. Henry to help defray the expense of their trial.

STEEL PROBERS AND TWO WITNESSES WHO ATTACKED ROCKEFELLER.

The Stanley Steel Investigating Committee is having some warm sessions these days. Albert and Leonidas Merritt made severe attacks on John D. Rockefeller, but the latter came back in a statement defending himself. They had testified that he had accomplished his financial aim by sharp practice and misrepresentation in his acquisition of Minnesota iron ore lands. Mr. Rockefeller quotes from a paper signed by the brothers and members of their family, in which they exonerate him, his attorneys and agents from all charges of misrepresentation, and then denies specifically that the loans referred to in the testimony were ever called by him.

Senator Stephenson, according to a well-founded report here, will be declared fully entitled to his seat.

The use of money in the Stephenson campaign was the result of the Wisconsin primary system, it was claimed in the hearings, and condemnation of that system, either in the committee's report or by members of the committee on the floor of the senate is now looked for.

BEATTIE BURIED SUNDAY

REMAINS INTERRED JUST AFTER SUNRISE—CROWDS THROUG CEMETERY AFTER BURIAL.

Richmond, Nov. 27.—By the grave of the wife whom he murdered on July 18, Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., was buried in Maury cemetery shortly after sunrise Sunday. There was a service at the house, attended only by the members of the family and eight friends who served as pallbearers. Rev. J. J. Fix read the service of the Presbyterian church, his voice being broken at times by sobs.

The pall-bearers, boyhood friends of Beattie, were asked by him to serve. Several of them had testified in his defense at the trial and one was his best man when he and Louise Wellford Owen were married. A florist's wagon, completely filled with flowers, entered the cemetery gates after daylight, and Sunday the mound of earth was hidden beneath chrysanthemums and immortelles.

After it became known that the funeral had already been held, a tremendous crowd visited the cemetery. Double ropes were stretched around the Beattie section and two mounted policemen, in addition to officers on foot, kept the crowds back. There was no disorder, however, and no attempt to take away the flowers.

INTERNAL REVENUE REPORT

Commissioner Cabell Makes Some Startling Declarations—Opium Smoking Widespread and Dens Exist in All Large Cities—Illicit Distilling Increasing Steadily.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The annual report of Royal E. Cabell, commissioner of internal revenue, given out here today, makes several startling declarations. The smoking of opium is a widespread vice in this country and opium "joints" exist in every city of considerable size.

The double system of taxing oleomargarine is corrupting grocers and gross frauds are being perpetrated on the butter-buying public.

The internal revenue receipts last year were $322,526,299, the greatest in the history of the government.

Corporations making returns under the new corporation tax law numbered 270,262 with an aggregate capital of $67,886,430,519. The aggregate net income to the stockholders was $3,360,250,642.

The year's production of distilled spirits amounted to 175,402,295 gallons, nearly 7,000,000 gallons more than in the previous banner year, 1907. The production of beer, ale, etc., amounted to 63,216,851 barrels, nearly 4,000,000 barrels more than in the previous record year, 1910.

The amount of liquor held in bonded warehouses for ripening now reaches the enormous total of 249,279,246 gallons.

The report ranks North Carolina first in the manufacture of both chewing and smoking tobacco. The first six states are: North Carolina, Missouri, Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia and New Jersey. The production of North Carolina was $9,430,948. The states next in line had approximately forty-seven, forty-four and Virginia and New Jersey both twenty-nine million pounds.

The report goes into details by states and collection districts upon the returns from the new corporation tax. The total revenue derived from this source is $33,511,525. The returns from the corporation tax are set forth in five classes. A table of classes by states shows that 2,592 returns were made for North Carolina. The capital stock is given as $137,473,319.16, bonded and other indebtedness $109,967,522.70 and the net income $19,317,129.20.

Speaking of illicit distilling the commissioner says the practice has increased steadily especially in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia.

Reidsville Tobacco Drummer Shot in Memphis Hotel

Reidsville, Nov. 27.—News of the tragic death of J. F. Martin in a hotel at Memphis, Tenn., Saturday, came as a great shock to a large number of people in Reidsville and Rockingham county. Martin was a son of Mr. Shabe Martin of Wentworth, and traveled for R. C. Richardson, Jr., and Company, of Reidsville, manufacturers of "Old North State" smoking tobacco. He was well known over the county, especially in Reidsville and Wentworth, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him intimately. He was unmarried and about 30 years of age.

Martin met his death at the hands of E. I. Nonemacher when the latter attempted to enter a room in an uptown hotel at Memphis Saturday. Mrs. Nonemacher barely escaped being shot. Before her marriage she resided at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Nonemacher is a former ticket agent at the Memphis union station, and with his wife moved to Memphis recently from Columbus, Miss. He went to the hotel in search of his wife, met Martin at the door of a private room and opened fire. Martin fell mortally wounded. Two shots took effect, one bullet pierced the liver and the other lodging near the larynx, from which death ensued Saturday night.

Mrs. Nonemacher rushed to the door and locked it, saving herself from a continuation of the attack. Nonemacher was arrested.

The Nonemachers have two sons, one, 8, living with his parents, the other, 5 years of age, at present in Chattanooga with Mrs. Nonemacher's mother.

McCULLERS CASE IN WAKE

JUDGE PEEBLES TAKES IT UNDER CONSIDERATION AND WILL RENDER DECISION WEDNESDAY

Raleigh, Nov. 27.—In the hard-fought litigation of Dr. J. J. L. McCullers against the Wake county commissioners involving the office of county superintendent of health, Judge R. B. Peebles has taken the case under consideration and will make a ruling on Wednesday. He tells the litigants that they could not have more complicated the case had the employed a half dozen Philadelphia lawyers. This is the case in which the board of health espoused Dr. McCullers for the place and elected him, securing for him also an appointment to the place by Secretary W. S. Rankin of the state board of health under an act of the last legislature authorizing such appointments when the county authorities for any reason fail to provide the health officer. The fight is over the right of the state board to force upon the county commissioners a physician they do not want and fix salary or fees that they regard excessive. In this phase of the issue every county in the state is concerned and the result in the superior and supreme courts is awaited with concern.
