Hackney, Mrs. V. S. Bryant, Jr.

April 21st Set for Opening of Intensive Drive

Boy Scouts have been elected to the vacancy made by the withdrawal of the Wright Refuge. A luncheon meeting of the executive committee and the five divisional leaders of the federation, will be held at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, it was announced yesterday. A dinner meeting of all the community chest workers will be held on the night of April 20, it has been announced, at which time final plans for the campaign will be discussed.

The community chest federation during the past year, has done much good charitable work, and it is the hope of those in charge of the federation that the good work cannot be done without the support of the people. Basil M. Watkins, local attorney, has been named campaign manager, and J. Mallory Hackney, assistant campaign manager. The following men and women will serve on the executive committee:

- Division "A" M. S. Llewellyn, leader; Rev. S. W. Best, E. I. Bugz, S. C. Chambers, W. P. Budd, G. C. White, W. F. Carr, R. L. Flowers.
- Division "K" T. D. Collins, leader; W. N. Keener, Dr. R. L. Felts, C. H. Livengood, J. L. Morehead, J. A. Buchanan, R. W. Rigby.
- Division "L" J. Elmer Long, leader; D. W. Newsum, Dr. N. Rosensteln, W. R. Umstead, J. M. M. Gregory, Dr. J. S. Booker.
- Division "W" Mrs. W. J. Brogden, leader; Mrs. H. C. Satterfield, Mrs. J. E. Stagg, Mrs. L. A. Tomlinson, Mrs. L. F. Hill, Mrs. I. L. Sears, Mrs. G. C. White, Mrs. V. S. Bryant, Jr., Mrs. Burke Hobgood, Mrs. Alex Worth.
- Division "C" Alphonso Cobb, leader; J. O. Cobb, H. C. Satterfield, J. E. Mason, R. L. Lindsey, R. H. Sykes, A. J. Pollard, Frank Smith.

B. W. Watkins May Enter in Council Race

It was also rumored yesterday that Basil M. Watkins, local attorney, would enter the race for the second ward in opposition to Councilman Umstead, whose term expires at the end of the present fiscal year. The terms of Councilmen Lipscomb, Rollins and W. F. Carr also expire at the expiration of the present fiscal year. While Mr. Carr's petition has not as yet been filed, it is understood that his friends are now having the petition prepared.

Little has been heard from the West Durham section with reference to the city election. However, it was intimated yesterday that W. E. Alley, banker, and W. H. Woods, real estate dealer, would in all probability enter the race from that section. Whether any other men are being groomed for the race, could not be learned.

Clerk Alston stated yesterday that not a single petition had been filed with him for mayor, although Mayor J. M. Manning has already announced his intention of again entering the race. It is understood that Mayor Manning's petition is now being prepared, and will be filed with the clerk possibly Monday. Whether Mayor Manning will be opposed in the race for mayor is not known, as no candidate has announced his intention of opposing Dr. Manning.

While efforts to learn the exact number of persons who have registered for the city election proved fruitless, it was stated by persons in the various wards that the registration was going forward as fast as could be expected. However, it was stated that the registrars would be kept busy during the remaining weeks before the books close on April 11.

All persons desiring to vote in the election must register before April 11. The registrars can be found at the polling places on each Saturday, while during the other days of the week, the registrars will keep the registration books open at their homes or places of business. Persons desiring to vote in the school tax election, which will be held along with the city primary, on April 21, may register when they file their names for the city election, thereby saving much time.

MANAGERS FAIL TO AGREE WITH GOTHAM PILOT

John McGraw's Idea of Training Ball Players Is Criticized by Other Managers.

M'GRAW BELIEVES IN RUSHING TRAINING

Sends Players Through Stiff Workouts While Other Teams Are Taking Things Light.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH, I. N. S. Sports Editor. NEW YORK, March 28.—Rival National League managers are showing a disposition to criticize our Mr. McGraw because he hasn't brought his young men to a slow boil, as it were, but has cooked them to a rich, brown turn by way of pre-season conditioning. If the National League race were to start tomorrow there is a little doubt that the Giants would get away running for they are all of a month beyond the rest of the field in condition, particularly the pitchers. Baseball men in general haven't hesitated to say that McGraw is making a mistake and claim that the "dog days" of late August will prove it. Their theory is that a greyhound in April is often a dachshund in September and the history of baseball does not say them nay. In fact, the general trend of manager strategy is away from the spring rush, although few have yet begun to put the idea into practice. Ty Cobb, managing a contender in the rival league is one of them. There wasn't a ball tossed in the Tiger camp until March 2 and the first exhibition game took place as late as March 20. The Tigers haven't seen another major league club and won't until some time next week.

"Cobb has the right idea," said Stanley Harris when the writer told him about this system of training. Yet it was noted at the time that the Senators were being rushed along as fast as the next, although it must be conceded that Harris is letting Johnson, Ruether, Coveleskie and other veteran pitchers proceed with their preparations without unseemly haste.

Billy Evans Says

BRADENTOWN, March 28.—Many a major league pay check is going to be on the way to Florida shortly after the first and fifteenth of each month this summer.

The real estate germ is in the air and few are immune. After listening to the glib reator and the immense profits made, a majority of the athletes have fallen.

They talk money in real estate. The other day while watching the New York Giants and Washington Nats in one of their spring games, I overheard a very interesting argument.

One fan was a Washington partisan, the other leaned to the Giants. McGraw's team had won the day previous and was out in front in this game. The New York rooster kept drawing comparisons with the last world series and insisting that luck alone enabled Harris to triumph over McGraw.

The argument waxed warm. Finally the Washington rooster, unable to listen any further to the New Yorker, remarked:

"If the two clubs meet again this fall, I will bet you the 10 acres I bought yesterday against the $1000 option you took on that city property, provided you close the deal."

Both were northerners and there was no "kidding" about the wager. However, it was so unusual a betting proposition that it got a big laugh from those nearby and the argument subsided.

Get Rich Quick. The nice thing about being a reator in Florida is that you don't have to have a fat bank roll. At least that has been my experience.

The idea is to take an option for a very moderate sum. It is possible to open a deal on as low a deposit as five bucks and $25 often gets you into the frenzied finance class.

Once you have got an option, it is up to you by various methods to induce some one to take the property off your hands at a price you took it.

This form of doing business has an appeal to the athletes, who boast none too fat purses after a long winter in which no checks arrived twice monthly.

As a matter of fact, options have taken the place of base hits with some of the athletes. Bill Doak of Brooklyn, for instance, refuses to report at a greatly increased salary because he says he can make more money in real estate.

It is also said that one of the stipulations when Dazzy Vance signed his Brooklyn contract was that Charley Ebbetts would back him in any real estate deal he made up to a certain amount.

Takes Money to Make Fight Opines Jack Kearns

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, March 27.—Speaking of the sentence imposed upon Jack Dempsey by the New York commission for his failure to accept Harry Wills' challenge, Jack Kearns today again laid the blame for the situation on the lack of available promoters.

"Reckard, the man most likely to make an acceptable bid, cannot afford to do it now while in federal court on the moving picture case," Kearns said. "Charley Henderson hasn't even got his lumber in for his new place and cannot talk business. Dempsey will accept the Wills' bout any time we get a good offer from the right man."

HERALD PROPAGANDIST INVITES HIMSELF TO TEACHERS MEETING AND HEARS HIMSELF DISCUSSED

Holland Holton Tells Teachers of Powell's Contract With Herald Saturday.

UNDERSTANDS POWELL IS DRAWING $50 PER WEEK

Reminds Teachers That Articles Are Propaganda and Should Be Discounted.

Teachers of the rural schools of Durham county met in the office of the county board of education Saturday at 1:30 o'clock, to hear the school's side of the proposed county-wide school tax, as presented by Holland Holton, of Duke university. Virtually all of the teachers of the rural schools were present, Business Manager Luther H. Barbour, of the county school system, and Prof. F. M. Martin, city school superintendent and acting county school superintendent, during the leave of absence of Supt. John W. Carr, were among the officials present.

K. E. Powell, of Raleigh, freelance correspondent, whom the Morning Herald has employed to write a series of articles against the position of the schools, had learned the teachers were to meet with Mr. Holton and had unobtrusively seated himself in the audience. Just as Mr. Holton rose to address the teachers, Business Manager Barbour called his attention to Mr. Powell's uninvited presence.

Mr. Holton began by stating that the first evident problem facing the schools in trying to improve conditions through the county-wide tax was the active opposition of the morning paper. He referred to the fact that Mr. Powell was understood to have been employed for the past week and the next four weeks at a reputed salary of $50 per week to fight the schools. He told the teachers to remember that the articles appearing in the morning paper were paid propaganda, intended to defeat the attempt of the county and city school boards to improve Durham's schools and to discount them accordingly. He refers to definite misrepresentation of the recent meeting of the district school committees and went on to point out misrepresentations of facts made in articles appearing during the past week. He then told Mr. Powell that he was glad to have him present in order that he might make corrections if he cared to do so.

Mr. Holton then entered into a careful explanation of the county-wide tax on its merits. He referred to the fact that the six months school term is already supported by a county-wide tax and explained that the eight months term would be on precisely the same basis as the present six months school term. He emphasized the fact that the power of the district school committees, the power of the city board of education, the power of the county and state school officials would remain absolutely unchanged by the adoption of the county-wide plan for two more months. He next pointed out the losses in tax values resulting from the present system of district taxes for schools and showed how the purpose of the county-wide tax was to equalize the tax-rate for the eight months term all over the county.

Supt. Frank M. Martin spoke briefly, following Mr. Holton, emphasizing the fact that he hoped the teachers would exercise their independent judgment in arriving at a decision upon the county-wide tax. Following Mr. Martin's remarks a round table discussion was held.

China's population is about four times that of the United States, according to latest estimates.

Seventeen years are required to complete the course at the El Azhar university at Cairo.

GERMANY GOES TO POLLS TODAY

German People Cast First Vote for President; Second Election Will Be Necessary.

By International News Service. BERLIN, March 28.—A turning point in German history will come tomorrow when 30,000,000 Germans of both sexes and over the age of 21 go to the polls to vote for a man to succeed President Friederich Ebert, who died recently.

In a history stretching back to the time of the illustrious Caesar—the first Kaiser—this will be the first time the Teutonic race has been accorded the privilege of naming its own ruler.

There are seven candidates: Otto Braun, former Prussian Premier, Social-Democrat. Dr. Heinrich Held, Bavarian Premier, representing a combination of Bavarian parties.

Dr. Willy Hellpach, state president of Baden, Democrat. Dr. Karl Jarres, Lord Mayor of Duesberg, candidate of the so-called "empire bloc" representing the German peoples and the German Nationalist parties and other anti-Socialist, anti-Hitlerite parties.

General Ludendorff, Hitlerite candidate. Dr. William Marx, Centrist. Ernest Thaelmann, Communist. A canvass tonight forecast the vote would be somewhat as follows: Jarres, 10,200,000; Braun, 8,000,000; Marx, 4,100,000; Thaelmann, 3,000,000; Held, 2,400,000; Hellpach, 2,000,000; Ludendorff, 200,000; scattered, 100,000.

Unless one candidate receives tomorrow a majority of all the votes cast, another, or final election must be held April 26. It is probable this second election will be necessary.

The presidential term is for seven years and the same man may be elected as many successive times as the people want him to remain in office. His powers are not so great as those of the president of the United States, yet he has greater power than the president of France.

STUDENTS PLACE DEMAND FOR URGENT LEGISLATION

University of Tennessee Students Suggest Some More State Laws.

By International News Service. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 28.—A petition calling for the banning of Ford automobiles in Tennessee; elimination of flappers, and other modern things, was in circulation today among students at the University of Tennessee. It was addressed to "our dear legislators" and gratefully thanks members of the Tennessee legislature for their "faithful service to the public that elected them," citing the anti-evolution measure recently passed and offers "in all seriousness and earnestness," the following suggestion: 1—That the law of gravity be amended.

- 2—That something be done about the excessive speed of light.
 - 3—That it be made illegal to bring Fords into Tennessee.
 - 4—That "pi" be changed from 3.1416 to an even three.
 - 5—That it be made illegal to teach that the world is round.
 - 6—That it be made unlawful for alcohol of nicotine to harm the body.
 - 7—That flappers be eliminated.
 - 8—That morphine be declared nutritious.
- The petition sarcastically declares that is signers have no idea what amendment should be made to the law of gravity, but insists that it be changed. Referring to the "round world" suggestion, the petitioners declare the "Book of Revelations" mentions the "four corners of the earth which is contestable proof of its fitness."
