

SO-CALLED BUS WAR ENDS AS STAGE COACH LINES REACH COMPROMISE UPON SCHEDULES

Safety Coach and United States Lines Have Agreed to Alternate Bus Leaving Terminal.

BUSSES TO LEAVE STATIONS EVERY HALF HOUR

New Schedule of Half Hour Buses Will Go Into Effect First Time Monday Morning.

For the time being at least the bus war between the U. S. and the Safety Coach lines has ended, and the terms of peace are such that Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro and the towns in between will get better service along with the elimination of the alleged competitive speeding which has been so much complained of.

As a result of a compromise between the two lines the Safety Coach buses will leave Raleigh on the half-hour and the U. S. buses will leave there on the hour.

Representatives of the two lines in Durham stated Saturday afternoon that the following schedule would go into effect here Monday morning.

U. S. buses going west will leave Durham 10 minutes past the hour while those going east will leave on the half-hour. Safety Coach buses going west will leave 20 minutes of the hour and those going east will leave on the hour.

Bus service between Raleigh and Greensboro will be materially improved as a result of the compromise, since buses will be leaving practically all day on half-hour schedules.

Another compromise of which the Corporation Commission was notified by mail yesterday was that of competing lines operating between Goldsboro and Kinston. Frank Grant's line and the Goldsboro-Kinston line.

ROYSTER WOMAN GETS SENTENCES IN BOTH CASES

Sentences of 1 and 1 1-2 to 2 Years Imposed in Each of Cases Charging Abortion.

TWO SENTENCES ALLOWED TO RUN CONCURRENTLY

Four Drug Addicts Are Given Sentences of 2 Years Each in County Workhouse.

The special session of the Durham county Superior court, which convened last Monday morning with Judge Thomas H. Calvert, presiding, came to a close Saturday afternoon about 3:30. A large number of the cases on the docket were disposed of during the week, but a goodly number were continued.

The outstanding case of the week, the one which attracted the greatest amount of attention on the part of the public, was the two cases in which Oscar Royster and his wife, Margaret Royster, were charged with procuring abortion. Pleas of not guilty were entered by both defendants when the cases were called, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty in cases against Oscar Royster while verdicts of guilty were returned in those against Mrs. Royster.

Saturday afternoon Judge Calvert called the defendant before him for final disposition. A sentence of 1 1-2 to 2 years in the state penitentiary was imposed in each case, but the two sentences are to run concurrently, according to the order of the judge. Mrs. Royster's attorney, Carl Wiegand, gave notice of appeal and appearance bond was fixed at $1,500 and cost bond at $50.

The other case against the Roysters, charging them with running a bawdy house, was continued.

Four other defendants to receive sentences Saturday afternoon were Henry Wilkins, J. S. Brenovitch, P. S. Schenck and Joseph Beamon. Each of these had been tried in Recorder's court and sentenced by Judge Graham to the workhouse for one-and two-year sentences. Judge Calvert gave each of these defendants a sentence of two years in the workhouse. It is understood that at any time any of these defendants, all of whom are drug addicts, may be transferred to the penal ward of the state hospital for treatment if the hospital can receive them.

Others tried and given sentences during the term of court were: Boy-sie Hays, illegal possession, 8 months on the roads; Hays was also given a sentence of 30 days on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon; Pap Hogan, for escaping, 6 months on the roads; Ernest Patterson, illegal possession of whiskey, 12 months on the roads; Sprig Walters, illegal possession, 6 months on the roads; Ed Reagan was given 6 months in jail on a charge of illegal possession and 2 months in jail on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Wild Animals Being Saved. Concerted world-wide movement undertaken to protect wild animals is proving to be successful. Great Britain started the move with bird sanctuaries, and America followed. The first wild life sanctuary in the United States was Yellowstone National Park.

In Africa the movement has lacked popular hold. Many types of wild life have become practically extinct, as for instance the sea cow, biggest of amphibians, and the bustard, not to forget the elephant in certain countries.

Refugee passengers have had a prominent part in the great increase of railroad business in Greece.
