THE SENTINEL

EDENTON.

Saturday, Nov. 6, 1841.

At the late Term of the District Court of the United States for this (Albemarle) District, Hon. Henry Potter presiding, HUGH W. COLLINS, Esq., was appointed Clerk, in place of J. W. Littlejohn, dec'd,

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church convened in Raleigh on Wednesday the 27th ult. Its sitting are in the Court House. About 70 ministers in attendance.

The Texian Congress have directed a marble bust of Senator WALKER, of Mississippi, who made the motion in the United States Senate for the recognition of the independence of Texas, and a portrait of Senator PRESTON, who seconded the motion, to be placed in the Capitol of that Republic.

Flour, Beef, and Po.k .- The New York Commercial Advertiser estimates the stock of flour now in store in that city at 150,000 bbls, against 50,000 bbls., at this time last year. Lyford estimates the stock of beef and pork at present on sale in the United States, to be at least 150,000 barrels.

Increase of the Slave Trade .- Another slaver has been captured by an English Cruiser, and taken into St. Helena. She had a crew of sixty-five Spaniards, and exchanged several shots with the cruiser.-She had a cargo of bale goods, lumber and rice. In one of the bags of rice were found papers which gave information that twenty-three slave vessels were fitting out from Havana. Seven other slavers prewiously captured, were breaking up at St. Helena. There were sixteen hundred slaves on the island.

Cotton Goods .- The total value of cotton goods exported from Great Britain, amounts to one hundred and twenty-five millions of dollars. Of these, five and a half millions come to this country. Germany is her largest customer, taking seventeen millions.

nineteen interments reported to the Board of Health, for the twenty-four hours ending at noon of the 22d ult., of which twelve were from yellow fever.

Jonathan Cilley .- A monument of granite, 17 feet high, with a white marble urn, has been erected, at a cost of $500 to the memory of this martyr to a false code of

New York Prison Statistics .- There were received into the city prison on the week ending on Saturday morning last, 100 white men, 41 white women, 28 black men, and 20 black women, total 184 .-Discharged, 90 white men, 38 white women, 15 black men and 12 black women, total 155. Escaped, 1. Remaining in the prison 88 white men, 32 white women, 22 black men and 13 black women, total 155.

WILLIAM J. WATERS was convicted at the late term of Bladen Superior Court, Judge Pearson presiding, of the same offence that was perpetrated by the notorious Robert Potter, some years since, and November.—Raleigh Register.

[This crime, formerly punishable by imprisonment only, was made capital after Potter's conviction, from the universal horror created by his case and the unan- selves. Of a truth were the old Quakers imous public opinion that so atrocious a crime demanded no less a punishment than death.]

Circuit Court .-- United States vs. United States Bank. The Jury in this case rendered a verdict yesterday, in favor of the plaintiff for the enormous sum of $251,-343,34. This was the pretended claim of carrying to a sudden grave haver less than the Bank for damages on the Bill of Exchange drawn by the Government on France, in 1835, and also for the balance due the Government on the stock sold the and, of that immense host, twenty-five Bank. It is said that the United States have priority of claim over all assignments, &c.; if this be true, it will further depreciate the stock and bills of the Bank.

Phil. Daily Chronicle.

GREENSBOROUGH, Oct. 26.

The trial of Boling alias Smith, for bigamy, was removed to the County of Rockingham, on the affidavit of the Prisoner that such was the state of public feeling a gainst him in this county he could not expect a fair, dispassionate trial. Mr. Kerr, of Caswell, appeared as counsel for the prisoner.

On Thursday Richard C. Stubblefield was put upon his trial, charged, in several counts, with the killing of Murphy. The prosecution was conducted by Solicitor Poindexter alone; the defence by Messrs. Julian E. Leach and James T. Morehead. After a patient investigation of the facts of the case, and able argument of counsel, the jury retired. They returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter.

On Friday the prisoner was brought in and received the sentence of the Court-to be branded in the hand, imprisoned eleven months and thirty days, and then give bond in the sum $1000 for his peaceable behaviour. The sentence of branding was carried into immediate execution, in presence of the Court .- Patriot.

What does it prove that the Whigs have been defeated in several late State elections? That their numbers have diminished since the Presidential contest,-or that those of their opponents have increased? Neither is proved. ! simply shows that the Whigs, or very hany of them, dislike the course pursued by the President so much that they have resolved to evidence that dislike by staying away from the polls. We say nothing of the wisdom of this resolve, that is a question upon which much may be said on both sides, we speak but of the fact.

Consider of the thing a thoment; supin every State where elections have been recently held, and had carried them triumphantly-would not their apponents have said directly-there, Mr. Tyler, whom and blacklegs keep away .- [Ibid. you have blamed so much for his course in it by the Whig party all over the country. Wilmington Chronicle.

Honorable to the State; A gentleman informed us the other day, that in a recent conversation with the President at Washington, the President told kim in reference to applications for office, that whilst he had them daily in abundance from every Health of New Orleans .- There were other State of the Union he had few or none from North Carolinas This is a most gratifying fact, as evidencing the prevalence among our citizens of a high toned spirit of independence .- Wil. Chronicle.

Quaker Principles .-- This is an era which takes great credit to itself for two things which contribute chiefly to the happiness and well-being of the human family: the institution of Temperance and of Peace Societies. While we give every credit to the present apostles of these great causes, let us not forget the fact that two hundred years ago the Friends, or "people commonly called Quakers," instituted as a strict and inviolable part of their moral creed and practice the technical Temperance and Peace of this day. These great and glorious doctrines have slumbered, except as carried out by the Friends, until lately, when the enthusiasm, guided by benevolence, which mark this age and country, has awakened them in the minds of highest part of the island and low-water the multitude, and led associations to be active in their favor. While we applaud island .- N. Y. Express. this spirit, we must not forget the great Quaker pioneers in these institutions .-New England is never tired of singing, in season and out of season, partially and impartially, the praises of the Pilgrim Fathers; while here, the deeds and memory of William Penn and his associates are was sentenced to be hung on the 15th of hardly ever alluded to. Yet these are the men who felt and pursued the great moral reforms of this the nineteenth, century, and omitting the greatest of all-Religious Liberty-which our Easters brethren of olden time allowed to no fae but themin advance of the times .- No. Gaz.

> New Orleans .- In a charity sermon preached in New Orleans, by the Rev. Mr. Clap, he said "that he had resided twenty years, wanting only a few months, in New Orleans and during that time had witnessed eleven epidemic yellow fever years, and two cholera-erch epidemic three thousand human being, and often five thousand. Within that space of twenty years one hundred thousand human beings had found a grave in New Orleans; thousand were young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty years, each one the representative of some distant family, with whose fate that family was connected, rising when he rese, and with his fall sinking hopelessly and forever.

From the Baltimore Patriot. SENTENCE

OF JEFFERSON GRIFFITH, ALEXANDER CUR-RAN, WM. HANNA & FREDERICK KONIG.

This morning, in Baltimore City Court, present Judges Brice, Nisbet and Worthington, the above named individuals, lately convicted of the murder of John Bigham, were placed in the bar and sentenced each to confinement in the Maryland State Penitentiary until the 30th of August; 1859, making seventeen years and ten months, wanting three days.

His Honor, Judge Brice, in a few brief remarks informed them of the character of the crime for which they had been condemned to suffer-that it was one of flagrant enormity, and that they might be well satisfied their lives had not been made to pay the forfeit. Such, therefore, being the character of the outrage, the Court felt it incumbent upon them to make the sentence to the full extent of its authority.

It may be proper to remark that there is a law of this State requiring that all convicts shall be sentenced so that their time shall expire between the first of April and the first of September. An obedience to this statute is doubtless the only reason why the full term of eighteen years was not given. The sentence awarded to the above individuals, who have so long been a scourge to this community, cannot but meet the approbation of every good citizen.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28. The yellow fever is dead-dead-dead The frost with which we have been happily favored has overcome the inveterate enemy of our race and our clime; and he whose attacks the most vigorous could not withstand-whose advances the most experienced medical generals could not arthe unseen power that controls the revolving seasons. As tears traced his footsteps, so does general joy bespeak his exit. Picayune.

Come Home .- All may now return or come to New Orleans without fear of contracting the yellow fever. Those-all pose the Whigs had turned out en masse those who seek to better their own condition by their talents and industry, and who, at the same time, increase the growth and wealth of our beloved city are welcome among us. Let sharpers, loafers, sharks

Vicksburg .- The Sentinel of last Satur. day says-"For the last two days the wind has been from the north and cold, the thermometer falling to 40. There has yet been no frost, and the yellow fever still prevails. New cases are daily occurring, and our absent friends must not think of returning until after we have one or two good frosts."-[Ibid.

The Florida Squadron. - Late advices have been received from the squadron, under Com. McLanghlin, designed to operate against the Indians. The squadron consists of the Flirt, Phœnix, Wave, Van Buren and Otsego. The Phœnix, in a passage from Indian Key to West, ran up on a shoal about twelve miles from Key West, but after thumping about eight hours, she was got off without much damage They are prepared for a grand expedition into the everglades, which it is expected will result in the capture of Sam Jones, and the consequent termination of the war. -Balt.

A HEAVY LIFT .- The Keeper of the Boon Island Light states that the whole island was completely washed over in the late gale; the sea made a fair breach over it and overturned great rocks which had apparently been undisturbed for centuries. A huge rock, twenty-three feet long, sixteen feet wide, and six feet thick, which, since the memory of the carliest visiter, has stood about half-way between the mark, now rests on the highest part of the
