as no increased pay will be allowed for and difference when the places are named correctly. 4. The Postmaster General may alter the schedule, and alter the route, he allowing a pro rate increase of compensation for any additional service required, and for any increased speed, when the employment of additional stock or carriers is rendered necessary. 5. He may discontinue the service, or curtail it at a pro rata reduction of pay, whenever he shall consider it expedient to do so, he allowing one month's extra pay on the amount dispensed with.

6. He may impose fines for failure to take or deliver a mail, or any part of a mail, at any post office which is or may be established on the route; for refusing or neglecting to perform any other stipulation of this contract; for suffering the mail to be injured, wet, lost, or destroy-ed; and may exact a forfeiture of the pay of the trip, whenever the trip is lost, or the mail ar-rives so far behind schedule time as to lose connection with a depending mail.

7. He may annul the contract for repeated failures to perform any of the stipulations; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required; for violating the Post Office law; for disobeying the instructions of the Department, or assigning a contract without the previous consent of the Postmaster General.

8. If the contractor shall run a stage or other vehicle more rapidly or more frequently than he is required by the contract to carry the mail. he shall give the same increased celerity and frequency to the mail, and without increase of compensation.

9. Contractors on stage and coach routes shall convey. free of charge, all agents of the Department upon exhibition of their credentials; also, mail bags and post office blanks,

10. The Postmaster General is prohibited, by law, from making contracts for the transportation of the mail with any person who shall have entered into any combination, or proposed to enter into any combination, to prevent the making of any bid for a mail contract by any other person or persons, or who shall have maile any agreement, or shall have given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration to do, or not to do, any thing whatever to induce any other not to bid for a mail contract.

11. On post coach and stage routes, where that kind of transportation is sometimes difficult, proposals will be received for carrying the mails on horseback, in wagons, or carts, for a specified number of months, weeks, or days in each year; but no dispensation of post coach or stage service will be tolerated, unless it be stipulated for in the proposals and embraced in the contract.

12. The proposals should be sent to the Depart-ment, scaled, endorsed " Mail proposals in the State of _____," and addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster General, S. R. Hobbie. AMOS KENDALL.
