

The North Carolinian.

CHARACTER IS AS IMPORTANT TO STATES AS IT IS TO INDIVIDUALS; AND THE GLORY OF THE STATE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF ITS CITIZENS.

H. L. HOLMES, Editor and Proprietor.

FAYETTEVILLE, SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1840.

VOL. 2.—NO. 3.—[Whole Number 56.]

TERMS. $2 50 per annum, if paid in advance; $3 if paid at the end of six months; or $3 50 at the expiration of the year.

Political. From the N. C. Standard. Conspiracy Exposed. Springfield, Ill. Feb. 17th, 1840.

stance of my connection, by means of an extensive political correspondence; with many of the purest and most patriotic of our fellow-citizens in other States, induce me to address you at this time, in relation to the Presidential question.

Harrison men, and such they will be from this vicinity. The name of Gen. Scott has been brought out here by a few of our leading office holders. It is suspected that it was at first merely a scheme to get rid of Mr. Clay, and the implied obligation of his support.

becomes burdensome; or the burden will, at all events, be shifted to the shoulders of others. "Convertibility at the will of the holders, and a sense of this power in them, on the part of the issuer is not, as experience has proved and is proving, any restraint in the way of over-issue.

reasoners in favor of the free trade theory, "are to provide that paper money be perfectly secure, and at all times convertible into the coin which it represents; and that the danger of over issues should be met by adequate preventive, or remedial checks."

TO SILK GROWERS. THE subscribers, on behalf of an association of gentlemen interested in the propagation of the Chinese Mulberry, and in the production of Silk, GIVE NOTICE.

Democratic State Central Committee of Illinois. From the (Springfield, Ill.) Old Hickory. Conspiracy against the Rights of the People of the United States—A Plot Detected.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

MORUS MULTICAULIS 3000 Morus Multicaulis Trees are offered to the public, at fifty cents per tree, warranted genuine, and in a good state of preservation.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

COCOONS WANTED. THE Subscriber has about two thousand very fine MORUS MULTICAULIS TREES yet for sale, from 5 to 8 feet high, one-half of which he is willing to sell for 25 cents, to be delivered next summer, the other half cash.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

LOST OR MISLAID. A NOTE of hand made by William Faison, Jr. payable to me, and bearing date February, 1839, and payable the day of red. for the amount of three hundred and twenty four dollars.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber had the misfortune to lose on Thursday, (last week), the following notes of hand or bills, (to wit): One on David B. Kilshe, payable one day after date, for the sum of eighty seven dollars and fifty cents, and dated the 2nd day of March instant.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber having received letters of Administration upon the estate of Doctor Hector McNeill dec'd, at March term of Cumberland County Court 1840, hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said estate, to come forward and make immediate payment, and those having claims against the estate are requested to present them within the time prescribed by law or this Notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

FURTHER NOTICE. ON Saturday the 11th of April next, will be offered to sale to the highest bidder at the late Residence of said Dec'd all the perishable property in a credit of six months, purchasers to give Note with approved securities. The negroes belonging to said estate will be hired to the 1st of January, 1841.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

HORSE STOLEN. THE Subscriber's horse was stolen from the Stable of Mr. Henry Branson, on the night of the 12th Inst. The horse is of dun color, with a black man and tail, with a speck in his right eye, and a white blaze on his forehead. He is about 4 years of age. I will give a reward of TEN DOLLARS for the recovery of the horse and the apprehension of the thief.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

FISH! 50 Boxes Smoked HERRINGS, 700 lbs. DRY COD. For sale by GEO. McNEILL. Fayetteville, March 14, 1840.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber having received letters of Administration upon the estate of Doctor Hector McNeill dec'd, at March term of Cumberland County Court 1840, hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to said estate, to come forward and make immediate payment, and those having claims against the estate are requested to present them within the time prescribed by law or this Notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.

NOTICE. THE Subscriber had the misfortune to lose on Thursday, (last week), the following notes of hand or bills, (to wit): One on David B. Kilshe, payable one day after date, for the sum of eighty seven dollars and fifty cents, and dated the 2nd day of March instant.

It will be borne in mind that the Federal party throughout the Union, held up Mr. Clay, as their candidate for the Presidency, from the commencement of Mr. Van Buren's administration till after the last August elections.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

And because, the "Abolitionists," and the "Anti-Masons," and the "Western Squatters," would "not go for Mr. Clay!" Having secured the nomination of Gen. Harrison, and the co-operation and support of the Abolitionists and Anti-Masons, a new hope inspired the Federal party—a fresh and vigorous shout was raised.

Thus it is that, as with an expanding currency, banks enviously blow up the inflation, so, when the subsequent and surely consequent reaction has commenced, and when, from the external pressure of a demand for coin to be exported, constituting the only really operative check upon excessive issues, they are compelled to contract, they vie with each other in the haste with which they curtail.

From the postmark, and some strong indications of a disguised hand, sufficiently evident in the manuscript, we feel satisfied the following article comes from an old correspondent, who has been idle for a long time. We hail his appearance, and shall be happy to hear from him often.