"CHARACTER IS AS IMPORTANT TO STATES AS IT IS TO INDIVIDUALS; AND THE GLORY OF THE STATE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF ITS CITIZENS."

HOLMES & BAYNE, Editors and Proprietors.

FAYETTEVILLE, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1840.

Volume 2.-Number 95.

TERMS

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Per annum, if paid in advance, if paid at the end of 6 months, 3 00 if paid at the end of the year, 3 50

Rates of Advertising: Sixty cents per square, for the first, and thiry cents for each subsequent insertion. A liberal deduction will be made to advertisers by the year. Court advertisements and Sheriff's sales, will be charged 25 per cent. higher than the usual rates. All advertisements sent for publication should have the number of insertions intended, marked upon them, otherwise they will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.

except at the option of the Editor. No subscription received for less than twelve PLetters on business connected with this establishment, must be addressed—H. L. Holmes, Editor of the North-Carolinian, and in all cases post-

Subscribers wishing to make remittances by mail, will remember that they can do so free of postage, as Postmasters are authorized by law to frank letters enclosing remittances, if written by themselves, or the contents known to them.

Prices of Job Work: HAND BILLS, printed on a medium, royal, or super royal sheet, for 30 copies, For 50 copies, And for every additional 100 copies, 1 00 HORSE BILLS, on a sheet from 12 to 18 inches square, 30 copies, Over 18 inches, and not exceeding 30,

CARDS, large size, single pack, And for every additional pack, Smaller sizes in proportion. BLANKS, when printed to order, for I quire, 2 00 And for every additional quire, under 5, Exceeding 5 quires, CIRCULARS, INVITATION TICKETS, and all kinds of BOOK & JOB PRINTING, executed cheap for CASH.

THE FOLLOWING

BLANKS!

CAROLINIAN OFFICE:

Kept constantly on hand AND FOR SALE AT THE

CHECKS, on Bank of the State, and Cape PROSECUTION BONDS, Supr. Ct. MARRIAGE LICENSES VENDI EXPO., constables levy COMMISSIONS to take depositions in equity, and Supr. court APPEARANCE BONDS WRITS, Superior and Co. Ct. CA. SA. Supr. Ct. INDICTMENTS for Affray, and Assault and Battery, Co. and Sup. Ct. CERTIFICATES, Clk. Co. Ct.

JURY TICKETS ORDERS to overseers of Roads BASTARDY BONDS TAX RECEIPTS WITNESS TICKETS EJECTMENTS PATROL NOTICES LETTERS of ADMINISTRATION Bonds Deeds, common, Sheriff's Deeds, Constables Ca. Sa. Bonds, Do Delivery do Appeal Bonds, Equity Subpænas, Superior Court Fi. Fa. County Court Sci. Fa, to revive judgment. County Court Subpænas, Superior Court Warrants, Bonds for Col'rd. Apprentice.

LAFAYETTE HOTEL.

Fayetteville, North Carolina. THIS ESTABLISHMENT will be open after the 1st of August, under the management and direction of the Subscriber. The House has been thoroughly repaired, and will, in a few days, be well furnished; and every effort will be made to render it worthy of patronage. EDWARD YARBROUGH.

August 3, 1839. The Augusta Chronicle (weekly,) Raleigh Register and Standard, Wilmington Advertiser, Greensborough Patriot, Salisbury Watchman, and Cheraw Gazette will insert the above three months and forward their accounts to the subscriber.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,) Anson County. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, October Term, 1840.

John Sturdivant and wife, and Benj. D. Henry,

The Heirs at law of Unity Hammond. [Petition for partition.]

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that Dickerson Hammond, John Hammond, Joel Hammond, Armstead Hammond, Willie Gilmore and wife Elizabeth, and Griffin Gatewood and wife Unity, are not inhabitants of this State, it is ordered by the Court that publication be made in the North Carolinian, for six weeks, of the pendency of this suit, for said heirs to appear at the next term of this Court, to be held for the county of Anson, at the Court House in the town of Wadesborough, on the second Monday in January next, then and there to plead, answer or demur, the petitioners' petition, or judgment pro confesso will be entered against them, and the case set down to be heard exparte, as Witness Norfleet D. Boggan, clerk of our said Court, at Office, the 2d Monday of October, A. D., N. D. BOGGAN, C. C. C.

MOTICE.

Whereas my wife, MARGARET D. McFAR-LAND has left my bed and abode, without my consent, I hereby forewarn all persons from harboring her or trusting her on my account.

WM. W. McFARLAND. Laurel Hill, N. C., October 23, 1840.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR! GEO. McNEILL. For sale by Tov. 24, 1840.

Fayetteville FEMALE SEMINARY.

AVING declined further supervision of the FEMALE SEMINARY, it is but just that should express to its former patrons and friends my confidence, that in the hands of Mr. Spencer, it will be conducted with ability and faithfulness, on the general plan heretofore pursued. Mr. Spencer as a teacher, is laborious, accurate and persevering. R. W. BAILEY

THE Subscriber will open the Seminary on the 15th of October next, and hopes by giving his entire and exclusive attention to the businessaided in each department by competent, efficient FEMALE TEACHERS—to merit the patronage heretofore bestowed. In regard to the plan he inand charged accordingly.

No paper discontinued until arrearages are paid, he is DETERMINED to give a course of instruction in each department as THOROUH as possible. The Academic year will be thesame as before; commencing on the 15th October, and closing on the 15th July, and divided into two sessions. Pupils charged from time of entrance to close of session. and no deduction made for absence, except in cases of sickness.

3	1 15 16.71 S In	Mavance.
	Elementary Department, or Second Class,	$3 00 per	session
1	First Class,	16 00	**
V	French Language,	10 00	"
	Drawing and Painting,	16 00	**
	Music on the Piano Forte	accompanied by the Voice,	25 00	"
	Music on Guitar,	25 00	66
	Use of Piano,	3 00	"
	Incidentals,	50	"
		G. SPENCER.
	August 1, 1840.		75-tf

NOW offer for sale a very valuable farm on the Eastern side of Cape Fear River in the county of Bladen, about 16 miles below the Town of Fayetteville, and immediately on the River. There are in cultivation the present year, and there are suitable buildings for the convenience of the farm. Persons production. It is unnecessary to say it is a first-rate farm, as all will be satisfied of that fact when they see it. Terms will be made to suit the convenience of the purchaser. JOHN T. GILMORE.

Fayetteville, Oct. 31, 1840. * * The Observer will copy.

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD. AN OFF on the 22d inst. from my residence on the Cape Fear River, 8 miles above Favetteville, my negro man Acomplected, with thick bushy hair, very bow-legged, when walking rocks very much, and has a great impediment in his speech, particularly when frightened. Said boy is about five feet tive or six inches high, and weighs about 145 lbs.; aged about 30 years. The above reward will I paid for his delivery to me at my residence, or for confining him in any Jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable expenses paid. It is more than probable that he may make an attempt to go to Mr Arch'd. McArns, Robeson County, near Gilchrist's bridge, who owns one of his brothers, whither he has made the attempt to go beretofore. HENRY R. KING.

October 31, 1840.

MOUNTAIN BUTTER. 50 Firkins (assorted.) Some very superior, at prices from 5 to 16 cents per pound! GEO. McNEILL. for sale by Nov. 24, 1840

STOVES & STOVE-PIPE

the largest assortment of STOVES ever before off red in the State, consisting of Box-Stoves, Six, Seven and Nine Plated Stoves, Boiling, Baking and Cooking Stoves, of the most approved patterns, Church Stoves, suitable for Churches, Court and School Houses, Manufactories, &c., assorted, from 18 to 36 inches in length. ALSO, Pipe and Fire-Place Franklins, with an assortment of Stove-Pipe and Elbows, together with a large and very general assortment of JAPANNED and PLAIN TIN ware, at WHOLESALE and RETAIL, all of which he will sell on the best terms.

IFHe still continues to manufacture every ar ticle in the COPPER, TIN and SHEET IRON ware line, at the shortest notice.

JAMES MARTINE.

Fayetteville, Nov. 27, 1840. NEW GOODS.

WILLIAM MCINTYRE AS just received and offers for sale, Superior Black, Invisible Green & Blue Cloths; Bea-ver & Pilot Cloths; Double-Mill'd Drab & Lyon-Skin; Sattinnetts, Kentucky Jeans, Strong Twill'd ket-Coats; French Merinoes & Circassians; Calicoes, Muslins, Mouslin D'Lains; Shawls; Plush, Musk-Rat & Seal-Skin Caps; Wool & Russia Fur Hats; Boots & Shoes; Hoods & Florence Braid Bonnets.

GROCERIES.

Teas, Loaf-Sugar, Wines & Liquors, Cheese; Raisins, half & quarter Boxes, White Figs in Boxes; Window-Glass, Putty & White Lead.

Hardware & Cutlery. Carpenters' & Blacksmith's Tools; Collins, & Co's. Axes, and Whettmor's Cards, &c. Fayetteville, Dec. 12, 1849, warranted. Apply to JAMES MARTINE.

A constant supply of the above kept on hand, and

The latter of the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress, of postponing of the above kept on hand, and the power conferred by Congress of the power conferred by Congress o will be sold low, to sell again. Fayetteville, September 5, 1840

MESSAGE

The President of the United States, TO THE TWO HOUSES OF CONGRESS At the commencement of the second Session of the Twenty-Sixth Congress.

Fellow-Citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives :

beloved country through the vicissitudes of it my duty, as you have been informed on a collected from the people, and were indispen- ours. Most humiliating may be the another year, the invaluable blessings of previous occasion, to propose to the British sable to the public service. This suspension, embarrassments consequent upon such a health, plenty and peace. Seldom has this Government, through its minister at Washing- and the excesses in banking and commerce condition. Another objection, scarcely less favored land been so generally exempt from ton, that early steps should be taken to adjust out of which it arose, and which were greatly formidable, to the commencement of a new the ravages of disease, or the labor of the hus- the points of difference on the line of boundary bandman more amply rewarded; and never from entrance of Lake Superior to the most extent unavailable, the principal part of the magnitude, and to foster national extravagance before have our relations with other countries | northwestern point of the Lake of the Woods, been placed on a more favorable basis than by the arbitration of a friendly Power, in con- collection of many millions accruing on mer- events, who needs at this day to be admonished that which they so happily occupy at this formity with the seventh article of the treaty critical juncture in the affairs of the world .- of Ghent. No answer has yet been returned A rigid and persevering abstinence from all by the British Government to this proposiinterference with the domestic and political tion. relations of other States, alike due to the ge- With Austria, France, Prussia, Russia, and, in addition to the decrease in the reve- favor of additional loans by capitalists, who nius and distinctive character of our Govern- and the remaining powers of Europe, I am nue thus produced, two and a half millions of eurich themselves by Government securities ment and to the principles by which it is di- happy to inform you our relations continue to duties have been relinquished by two bienni- for amounts much exceeding the money they rected; a faithful observance, in the man- be of the most friendly character. With al reductions under the act of 1833, and pro- actually advance—a prolific source of agement of our foreign relations, of the Belgium, a treaty of commerce and naviga- bably as much more upon the importation of individual aggrandizement in all borrowing practice of speaking plainly, dealing justly tion, based upon liberal principles of recipro- iron for railroads by special legislation. and requiring truth and justice in return, as city and equality, was concluded in March the best conservatives of the peace of nations; last, and, having been ratified by the Belgian last four years in relation to revenue, we have, and by the selfish importunities of applicants a strict impartiality in our manifestations of Government, will be duly laid before the Sen- during the same period, been subjected to an for appropriations for works avowedly for the friendship, in the commercial privileges we ate. It is a subject of congratulation that it unavoidable continuance of large extraordi- accommodation of the public, but the real concede, and those we require from others: provides for the satisfactory adjustment of a nary expenses necessarily growing out of objects of which are, too frequently, the these, accompanied by a disposition as prompt long-standing question of controversy; thus past transactions, and which could not be im- advancement of private interests. The to maintain, in every emergency, our own removing the only obstacle which could ob- mediately arrested without great prejudice to known necessity which so many of the States rights, as we are from principle averse to the struct the friendly and mutually advantageous the public interest. Of these, the charge upon will be under to impose taxes for the payment invasion of those of others, have given to our intercourse between the two nations. A mes- the Treasury, in consequence of the Chero- of the interest on their debts, furnishes an 760 acres of land (river survey,) and 12 acres of throughout every portion of the earth to which after many delays and difficulties, a treaty of Seminole Indians, which were found in pro- object. We possess within ourselves ample back land joining the same. About 250 acres were their enterprising and adventurous spirit may commerce and navigation, between the U. gress, has been nearly fourteen millions; and resources for every emergency; and we may are requested to examine the same before the crop to the value of our friendship, or ignorant of signed at Lisbon, on the 26th of August last, al sum of nearly three millions. is housed, as they can then judge properly of its the terms on which it can be acquired, and by the plenipotentiaries of the two Govern- It affords me, however, great pleasure to be Government with all the means asked for years, (the most of them during the successful administration of my immediate predemaining are, I am happy to believe, in a fair ests of our tobacco trade. way of being speedily and satisfactorily adjusted.

mony. If clouds have lowered above the other hemisphere, they have not cast their portentous shadows upon our happy shores. Bound by no tangling alliances, yet linked by a common nature and interest with the other nations of mankind, our aspirations are for the preservation of peace, in whose solid and civilizing triumphs all may participate ways ready to maintain those just and enlight- of Colombia have not yet been been satisfied the ability to adhere, in every emergency, to Legislature; the second rests upon the fidelity ened principles of national intercourse, for by the separate Governments into which it the sacred obligations of law; to execute all with which which their more immediate which this Government has ever contended. has been resolved. In the shock of contending empires, it is only

The excitement which grew out of the territorial controversy between the United States State and that vast empire will no longer be surely now be no difference of opinion in with which that duty is discharged. Neither and Great Britain having in a great measure regulated by express stipulations. subsided, it is hoped that a favorable period is approaching for its final settlement. Both you that the Government of Chili has entered moment, had suffered itself to be deterred which the public mind is so justly sensitive. Governments must now be convinced of the into an agreement to indemnify the claimants from upholding the only true standard of value can well be entirely avoided; and least so at dangers with which the question is fraught; in the case of the Macedonian, for American either by the pressure of adverse circumstances periods of great political excitement. An and it must be their desire, as it is their in- property seized in 1819; and to add, that in- or the violence of unmerited denunciation. intelligent people, however, seldom fail to terest, that this perpetual cause of irritation formation has also been received which justishould be removed as speedily as practicable. In my last annual message you were informed that the proposition for a commission of exploration and survey promised by Great Britain had been received, and that a counterproject, including also a provision for the between them, have, according to the last re- which a course really right, and demanded may without doubt, independently of the certain and final adjustment of the limits in port received from our commissioner, sur- by a financial crisis, may, in a community extraordinary requisitions for the public dispute, was then before the British Govern- veyed and established the whole extent of the like ours, be pursued, however severe its service growing out of the state of our Indian ment for its consideration. The answer of boundary north along the western bank of the immediate operation. that Government, accompanied by additional propositions of its own, was received, through its minister here, since your separation .-These were promptly considered; such as were deemed correct in principle, and consistent with a due regard to the just rights of the United States and of the State of Maine, degree of latitude with the western bank of debt, the certain tendency of public securities tracted reduction of the revenue, strengthened concurred in; and the reason for dissenting Keyseymeres, Flannels, Vestings, Blankets, Blan- from the residue, with an additional suggestion on our part, communicated by the Secre- will be concluded in the present season. tary of State to Mr Fox. That minister not feeling himself sufficiently instructed upon ces, and the success with which embarrass- future industry of their citizens, been merous and diversified interests and objects, some of the points raised in the discussion, felt it to be his duty to refer the matter to his own Government for its further decision .-Having now been for some time under its advisement, a speedy answer may be confipoints still in difference, and the undoubted of public prosperity, is seldom conducive to this relation affords to foreigners to scrutinize over which I had any control) were somewhat disposition of both parties to bring the matter the permanent welfare of any people; and the management of our domestic affairs, if diminished. The expenditures of 1839 were to an early conclusion, I look with entire confidence to a prompt and satisfactory termination of the negotiation. Three commissioners stitutions like those of the United States.— serious alarm. Fortunately, the Federal debt and trust claims, will probably not exceed FRICTION MATCHES. Our safest reliance for financial efficiency of Congress, under the act of the last ses-50 GROSS, HOLMES' Improved Friction Matches, just received, and for the line which separates the States of the line which separates the states t 80-tf inclemency of the season, and will resume their labors as soon as practicable in the en- distribution of the surplus revenue was in a and so honorable to our national character, mercial intercourse of the two countries.

minister at Mexico.

Nothing has occurred to disturb the har- justly be anticipated. mony of our relations with the different Governments of South America. I regret, how- contemplation of these circumstances, one, constitution, and the confidence they repose with a generous emulation. Yet it behooves ever, to be obliged to inform you that the not the least gratifying, is the consciousness in the political sentiments of those they select us to be prepared for any event, and to be al- claims of our citizens upon the late Republic that the Government had the resolution and as the representatives in the Federal by assuming a resolute bearing, and clothing pressed the intention of his Government not most needed, a rallying point by which the duty of economizing the expenses of the themselves with defensive armor, that neutral to prolong the treaty of 1828 it will cease to business of the whole country might be brought public service is admitted on all hands; yet nations can maintain their independent be obligatory upon either party on the 12th back to a safe and unvarying standard—a there are few subjects upon which there exists day of December, 1841, when the extensive result vitally important as well to the interests a wider difference of opinion than is commercial intercourse between the United as to the morals of the people. There can constantly manifested in regard to the fidelity maining claims upon that Government. ance of the convention between the United adhere, under all circumstances, to the line of powerful than a large surplus revenue; and States and Texas, for marking the boundary duty; and to satisfy them of the safety with unusually large appropriations for 1837 Sabine river, from its entrance into the Gulf | The policy of the Federal Government, in traced to this source. The sudden and rapid of Mexico to the thirty-second degree of north extinguishing as rapidly as possible the distribution of the large surplus then in the latitude. The commission adjourned on the national debt, subsequently, in resisting every Treasury, and the equally sudden and un-16th of June last, to reassemble on the 1st of temptation to create a new one, deserves to precedentedly severe revulsion in the com-November, for the purpose of establishing ac- be regarded in the same favorable light. merce and business of the country, pointing curately the intersection of the thirty-second Among the many objections to a national with unerring certainty to a great and prothe Sabine, and the meridian line thence to to concentrate ultimately in the coffers of the propriety of the earliest practicable Red River. It is presumed that the work foreign stockholders, is one which is every reduction of the public expenditures.

course of rapid execution. Nearly twenty- should be an object of earnest solicitude.

convention for the adjustment of claims of millions of dollars, still outstanding, and less expenditures. With all the Powers of the world our rela- citizens of the United States upon Mexico by twenty-three millions than the United But, to accomplish so desirable an object, tions are those of honorable peace. Since having met and organized at Washington, in States have in deposite with the States, is two things are indispensable: first, that the your adjournment, nothing serious has occurred to interrupt or threaten this desirable harthe Government, relating to those claims, have not been presented for payment. They within the boundaries prescribed by its were communicated to the board. The may be redeemed out of the accruing revenue, founders; and, secondly, that all appropriations claims not embraced by that convention are if the expenditures do not exceed the amount for objects admitted to be constitutional, and now the subject of negotiation between the within which they may, it is thought, be kept the expenditure of them also, be subjected to two Governments, through the medium of our without prejudice to the public interest, and a standard of rigid but well-considered and

The charge d'affaires of Brazil having ex- the constitution; and thus to present, when discharge the trust committed to them. The It affords me pleasure to communicate to have arisen if the Government, at that critical recriminations, upon a point in respect to fies the hope of an early adjustment of the re- the performance of this duty was highly such a matter. Practical economy in the The commissioners appointed in pursu- It cannot fail to stimulate their agents to adverse influence to contend with more day gathering strength. Already have the But, to change a system operating upon The present sound condition of their finan- resources of many of the States, and the so large a surface, and applicable to such numents in regard to them, at times apparently indefinitely mortgaged to the subjects of was more than the work of a day. The atinsurmountable, have been overcome, are European Governments, to the amount of tention of every department of the Governmatters upon which the people and Govern- twelve millions annually, to pay the constantly ment was immediately, and in good faith, ment of the United States may well congratu- accruing interest on borrowed money—a sum directed to that end; and has been so continlate themselves. An overflowing treasury, exceeding half the ordinary revenues of the ued to the present moment. The estimates however it may be regarded as an evidence whole United States. The pretext which and appropriations for the year 1838 (the first official duties in March, 1837, the act for the debt. To maintain a destinction so desirable, a limited portion of them; and which post-

It is understood that their respective exam- eight millions of dollars of the public moneys Never should a free people, if it be possible inations will throw new light upon the subject were, in pursuance of its provisions, deposit- to avoid it, expose themselves to the necessity in controversy, and serve to remove any er- ed with the States in the months of January, of having to treat for the peace, the honor, roneous impressions which may have been April, and July, of that year. In May there or the safety of the Republic, with the made elsewhere prejudicial to the rights of the occurred a general suspension of specie pay- Governments ot foreign creditors, who United States. It was, among other reasons, ments by the banks, including, with very few however well disposed they may be to with a view of preventing the embarrassments exceptions, those in which the public moneys to cultivate with us in general friendly which, in our peculiar system of government, were deposited, and upon whose fidelity the relations, are nevertheless, by the law of their Our devout gratitude is due to the Supreme impede and complicate negotiations involving Government had unfortunately made itself own condition, made hostile to the success Being for having graciously continued to our the territorial rights of a State, that I thought dependent for the revenues which had been and permanency of political institutions like aggravated by its occurrence, made, to a great debt, is its inevitable tendency to increase in public money then on hand; suspended the He has been an unprofitable observer of chants' bonds; and greatly reduced the reve- of the difficulties which a Government, nue arising from customs and the public habitually dependent on loans to sustain its lands. These effects have continued to ope ordinary expenditures, has to encounter in rate, in various degrees, to the present period; resisting the influences constantly exerted in countries; by stockholders, who seek their Whilst such has been our condition for the gains in the rise and fall of public stocks, country and Government a standing in the senger has been despatched with the Hano- kee treaty alone, without adverting to others additional and very cogent reason why the great family of nations, of which we have just verian treaty to Berlin, where, according to arising out of Indian treaties, has already excause to be proud, and the advantages of stipulation, the ratifications are to be exchang- ceeded five millions of dollars; that for the ting a national debt, by which the people would which are experienced by our citizens ed. I am happy to announce to you that, prosecution of measures for the removal of the be exposed to double taxation for a similar carry them. Few, if any, remain insensible States and Portugal, was concluded and the public buildings have required the unusu- be quite sure that our citizens, in no future exigency, will be unwilling to supply the ments. Its stipulations are founded upon able to say, that, from the commencement of the defence of the country. In time of A series of questions of long standing, those principles of mutual liberality and addifficult in their adjustment, and important in vantage which the United States have always upon the Government, at home or abroad, has justification for the creation of a permanent their consequences, in which the rights of our sought to make the basis of their intercourse been promptly met. This has been done, debt by the Federal Government. Its limited citizens and the honor of the country were with foreign Powers, and it is hoped they not only without creating a permanent debt, range of constitutional duties may certainly deeply involed, have, in the course of a few will tend to foster and strengthen the com- or a resort to additional taxation in any form, under such circumstances, be performed but in the midst of a steadily progressive re- without such a resort. It has, it is seen, Under the appropriation of the last session duction of existing burdens upon the people, been acvided during four years of greater cessor,) been brought to a satisfactory con-clusion; and the most important of those reat the end of the year. The small amount of constitution, and one also remarkable for the The commissioners appointed under the Treasury notes, not exceeding four and a half occurrence of extraordinary causes of > the revenue shall prove to be as large as may practical economy. The first depends chiefly on the people themselves, the opinions Among the reflections arising from the they form of the true construction of the its contracts according to the requirements of representatives, and other public functionaries regard to the incalculable evils that would diversity of sentiment, nor even mutual honorable to their fortitude and patriotism. management of public affairs can have no relations, be, in no inconsiderable degree,