PROSPECTUS

For the Congressional Globe and Appendix.

These works have now been published by us for ten consecutive sessions of Congress, commencing with the session of 1832-3. They have had such wide circulation, and have been so universally approved and sought after by the public, that we deem it necessary only in this prospectus to say that they will be continued at the next session of Congress, and to state, succinctly, their contents, the form in which they will be printed, and the prices for The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily speeches of the two houses of Congress. The speeches of the members are abridged, or condensed, to bring them in a more compact, or reducible length. All the resolutions, offert, or motions made, are given at length, in the mover's own words; and the yeas and nays on all the questions. It is printed with small type—brevi-tated—and nonpareil—on a double royal sheet in folio, each page containing 16 royal quarto pages.

The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels the various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them; and to remove the hardened feces which collect in the convolutions of the smallest intestines. Other medicines partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual constitution, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhoea,
