PROSPECTUS
For the Congressional Globe
These works have now been published in ten consecutive sessions, with the session of 1841, and have proved an important and necessary work, which will be continued to state, which they are.

Each of these works is necessary for every member of the House of Representatives, both because, then, if there should be any doubt as to the correctness of the proceedings, the Globe and Appendix may turn to the Appendix for the speech at length, corrected by the member himself.
Now, there is no source but the Congressional Globe and Appendix, from which a person can obtain a full history of the proceedings of Congress. The Globe and Appendix, which contained a history, has been discontinued for three or four years. It cost about five times as much for a session as the Congressional Globe and Appendix, and did not contain an equal amount of matter, a great portion of the current proceedings being omitted. We are enabled to print the Congressional Globe and Appendix at the low rate now proposed, by having a large quantity of type, and keeping the Congressional matter that we set up for the daily and semi-weekly Globes, standing for the Congressional Globe and Appendix. If we had to set up the matter purposely for these works, we could not afford to print them for double the price now charged.
Complete indexes to both the Congressional Globe and the Appendix are printed at the close of each session, and sent to all subscribers for them.
We have on hand 3,000 or 4,000 super-copies of the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the extra session, which make together near 1,000 royal quarto pages. They give the fullest history of Congress that has ever been published. We now sell them for $1 each; that is, $1 for the Congressional Globe, and $1 for the Appendix. We propose to let subscribers for the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the next session, have them for 50 cents each. They will be necessary to understand fully the proceedings of the next session. The important matters discussed at the last, will be brought up at the next session, in consequence of the universal dissatisfaction evinced in the late elections with the vast and novel system of policy which the new powers have introduced, and which was forced through Congress without consulting public opinion, or even allowing the full discussion usual in regard to subjects of ordinary interest. The reports of the Congressional Globe and Appendix are not in the least degree affected by the party bias of the Editor. They are given precisely as written out by the Reporters and the members themselves. And the whole are subject to the revision and correction of the speakers, as they pass in review in our daily sheet, in case any misunderstanding or misrepresentation of their remarks should occur.
We make a daily analysis of the doings in Congress, and give our opinions in it freely, but this is published only in the Daily, Semi-weekly, and Weekly Globes. The Daily Globe is $10, the Semi-weekly Globe $5, and the Weekly Globe $2 per annum, in advance. The Weekly Globe is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe and Appendix, and a complete index made to it at the end of each year.

TERMS:
For the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last Extra Session, $1.
For the Congressional Globe for the next session, $1 per copy.
For the Appendix for the next session, $1 per copy.
Six copies of either of the above works will be sent for $5; twelve copies for $10, and so on in proportion for a greater number.
Payments may be transmitted by mail, postage paid, or risk. By a rule of the Post Office Department, postmasters are permitted to frank letters containing money for subscriptions.
The notes of any bank, current where a subscriber resides, will be received by us at par.
To insure all the numbers, the subscriptions should be in Washington by the 15th December next, at farthest, though it is probable that we shall print enough surplus copies to fill every subscription that may be paid before the 1st day of January next.
No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompanies it.
The Democratic papers, with which we exchange will please give this Prospectus a few insertions.
