A BILL Amendatory of the several Acts establishing the Treasury Department.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That there shall be, and hereby is, created and established in the Treasury Department at the seat of the Government of the United States, a Board, to be called the Exchequer of the United States, to be composed of the Secretary of the Treasury for the time being, the Treasurer of the United States for the time being, and three Commissioners, to be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate; one of the said Commissioners first appointed to be appointed for two years, one for four years, and one for six years, and vacancies subsequently occurring, to be so filled as that one vacancy shall regularly occur at the end of every period of two years; the said Commissioners not to be removed from office, except for physical inability, incompetency, or neglect or violation of duty; and in case of any such removal it shall be the duty of the President to lay the reason thereof before the Senate. And on the first organization of the Board, one of the three Commissioners shall, by the members thereof, be elected President, who shall hold his office for two years, when a new election shall be made; and in like manner a new election shall take place afterwards at the end of each successive period of two years. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall have authority to appoint all such inferior officers as in the judgment of the Board the transaction of its business may require, the amount of MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES have b[illegible] thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign r[illegible] edy for the Dyspepsia, Flatulency; Palpitatio[illegible] Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heart-burn and Head a[illegible] Restlessness, Ill-temper, Anxiety, Languor [illegible] Melancholy, Costiveness, Diarrhœa, Cholera, Fev[illegible] of all kinds, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all[illegible] kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption Scurvy, Ulcers, Inveterate Sore, Scorbutic Eruption and Bad Complexions, Eruptive Complaints, Sallow Cloudy, and other disagreeable Complexions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Common Colds and Influenza, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame; In Fever and Ague, particularly, the Life Medicines have most eminently successful; so much so that in the Fever and Ague districts, Physicians almost universally prescribe them.

[illegible] general[illegible] ted States [illegible] bur[illegible] and [illegible] of the [illegible] lic [illegible] shall, [illegible] the said [illegible] principal [illegible] shall give be[illegible] amount and in [illegible] the Treasury sh[illegible] performance [illegible], Board of Exch[illegible], shall pay [illegible] thereon by the Treas[illegible] and by all disbursing officers [illegible] the Government having authority [illegible] such drafts or orders. And every suc[illegible] ment shall be made at the option of the p[illegible] entitled to receive it, in gold and silver [illegible] or in Treasury notes.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said Exchequer and its officers shall perform the duties of Commissioners of Loans, in receiving subscriptions, transferring stock, and paying dividends and interest thereon, under the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall render to the Treasurer of the United States all necessary facilities for transferring and disbursing the public funds as shall be required by him, and shall perform all the duties of pension agents under the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and shall render and perform all other duties and services in relation to the collecting, keeping and disbursing of the public funds as shall be prescribed by law or by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Exchequer at the Seat of Government, and its several agencies, to receive on private deposite gold or silver coin or bullion, the property of individuals, to be held as in other cases of deposite made by individuals for convenience and security; and to issue certificates of the fact of such deposite having been made; which certificates shall always be redeemed on presentation at the agency where issued. But the amount so deposited, shall never exceed, in the whole, fifteen millions of dollars, to be distributed by the Board among its several agencies, according to the extent of their business respectively; and for issuing such certificates, no higher premium shall be demanded than shall be sufficient to indemnify against the hazard of loss, and remunerate for the safe keeping the deposite, and in no instance to exceed the one-half of one per cent. But paper issued by the Board and its several agencies, whether in the form of bills or of certificates of deposite, shall be redeemable only at the place where issued, unless the board shall see cause to order otherwise.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Board of Exchequer, within three months after its first organization, to establish such by-laws and rules of proceeding as it may judge expedient and proper for the regulation of its concerns and the government of its agencies; and copies of all existing by-laws and regulatioas shall be laid before Congress every year at its annual session.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be prepared Treasury notes of denominations not less than five dollars nor exceeding one thousand dollars, which notes shall be signed by the Treasurer of the United States and countersigned by the President of the Board of Exchequer, and made payable to the order of the principal agent at each agency, and shall be by him endorsed when issued at such agency, and which notes shall be redeemable and shall be redeemed in gold and silver, on demand, at the agency where issued; and Treasury

2. Bi[illegible] five hundr[illegible] drawing shall not [illegible] a longer [illegible] than thirty days from date; and bills drawn on places more than five hundred miles from the place of drawing shall not be drawn for a longer time than thirty days from sight.

3. In no instance shall more be demanded from the seller of such bill, by way of interest or exchange, than an interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum for the time which the said bill has to run, at a rate of exchange never exceeding the cost of remitting specie, and in no case to exceed two per cent. And it shall not be lawful for the Board of Exchequer, or any agency, to purchase any bill drawn by or upon any member or officer thereof, or in which such member or officer shall in any way be interested; nor to receive any deposite of any money belonging to any such member or officer. And no bill shall be purchased or draft sold at any agency, without the assent of at least two officers of such agency; nor by the Board of Exchequer without the assent of two of its members.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That no agency established in any State under the provisions of this act shall, contrary to any law which such State may enact, receive any other deposites than those of the United States, or make or sell drafts, or purchase bills, other than such as shall be necessary in the collection, transfer, and disbursement of the public funds.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That if at any time it shall be found necessary to carry on the operations of the Exchequer Board, and its agencies hereby created, the Secretary of the Treasury may cause to be prepared, issued, and delivered to the Exchequer Board certificates of stock of the United States, in the usual form, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, to an amount not exceeding five millions of dollars, the interest of which shall be payable semi-annually, and the principal shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the Government after the expiration of twenty years from the issue thereof.—And it shall be lawful for the said Exchequer Board to sell and transfer the said stock for gold or silver coin, or bullion. And it shall be the duty of the Exchequer Board to provide for the punctual payment of the interest on the said stock as it shall become due, and for the reimbursement of the principal from the profits and other means and resources of the Board and its agencies. But the faith of the Government, nevertheless, shall be pledged for the payment of the interest and the principal of such stock.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Exchequer and its several agencies shall keep separate and distinct sets of books, for the purpose of entering and recording, in one set, all transactions respecting the collection, keeping, disbursing of the public revenue, and transmitting the public moneys from place to place for the service of any of[illegible] or any of its [illegible] use, in any way, [illegible] posited with or belong[illegible] any of its agencies, or belong[illegible] ed States, or any other person or pers[illegible] ing or depositing with the said Board or any agency, he shall be deemed guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof before any court of the U. States of competent jurisdiction, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not less than —— nor more than —— years, and to a fine equal to twice the sum or value of the property embezzled.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That if any officer or member of the Board of Exchequer, or any of its agencies established under the provisions of this act, shall give or sign a false certificate of a deposite having been made with any agency, or shall issue or shall deliver any draft or bill of exchange without having received the full amount thereof, and caused the receipt of the same to be duly entered into the books of the same agency, or shall be guilty of any other malpractice by which any responsibility of the said agency or of the Board of Exchequer, or of the United States, shall be improperly created or increased, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not less than one year nor more than seven years, and to pay a fine equal to the amount of the false certificate so given, or of the bill or draft so issued or delivered, or to the amount of the responsibility so created or increased.

Political.

Committees of Congress.

In our article of yesterday we alluded to the organization of the committees as presenting an insuperable bar to the introduction of measures for which, as a party, the Democracy could be responsible. A glance at the leading committees will show at once how entirely the Democratic side of both branches is shorn of influence in the preparation or presentment of measures.

In the Senate, the Committee of Foreign Relations is composed of five members. Mr Buchanan, formerly the head of the committee, is the only Democrat left on it, and he is put below Messrs. Rives and Preston, and is hedged up by Messrs. Tallmadge and Choate on the other side. Thus bound hand and foot by opponents, he can do nothing on the committee, or through the committee, with the Chamber or the Departments.

The Committee on Finance, the most important committee, is organized in the same way—four to one. The former able chairman of that Committee, Mr Wright of New York, is removed from it altogether. Mr Evans is
