We are informed upon good authority that no nomination for Governor has yet been made by the whig Convention at Raleigh.

The kindness of several friends and Representatives at Washington in sending us the Message, is hereby gratefully acknowl- ficit of means. And next we are told "there edged.

28th CONGRESS.

The prospect opens brightly! Harmony prevails in Congress, so far, contrary to the hopes and wishes of our whig opponents. Below we give all the news we have received, up to the time of going to press on Friday evening :

On Monday last the two Houses of Congress met. The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock, by its President Willie P. Mangam. 22 States were represented, some of them however, by only one Senator. Hon. Wm. II. Haywood, Jr., appeared in his sent.

The Senate after receiving the credentials of and qualifying all the newly elected Senators, adjourned.

On Tuesday the Senate done little else than hear the President's Message. The Senate ordered 1,500 copies of the Message and Documents, and 2000 copies of the message without the documents. They then went into an election of Printer to the Senate, when Gales & Seaton got 23 votes and Blair & Rives 17: so the former were elected.

THE HOUSE was called to order at 12 o'clock on Monday, by their Clerk, Matthew St. Clair Clarke, who proceeded to call the roll. When the first name from New general ticket I had been called, Mr Campbell of S. C., inquired whether those members solution to the Clerk, to be read, which resolution was in effect, that the Clerk should first call the names of members who were elected according to the law of Congress, and that immediately after, they should hear the claims and decide upon the rights of the other members (elected by general ticket) to take their seats. This resolution the Clerk refused to read, and some members objected to its reading. Mr Campbell then said be would read it himself as he had a tight to do. Some members intimated he had no right to read it, in the then state of the House, and Mr Campbell did not press the subject. The roll was then called, and 189 members answered, (224 is the whole number.)

The Clerk then said if it were the pleasure of the House to elect a Speaker, the members would a coare their ballots. Mr Barnard of New York (whig) desired to present a paper. It was objected to by Messis Tagersoll and Dromgoole (dems.) After some talking, the Clerk put the question to the House on the reading of the paper, and it was voted down. Mr Barnard then said the paper was nothing but a "solemn declaration on the part of some of the members of the House, of their opinion of the utter illegality and unconstitutionality of proceding to the election of Speaker with the aid of certain persons who had answered to their names from New Hampshire, Georgia, Mississippi, and Misscuri."

It was then agreed to proceed to election of Speaker, viva voce. Mr JOHN W. JONES. of Virginia, received 188; Jno. White (the old Speaker and a whig) received 59 (the whole whig strength); MrWillkins, of Pa., 1.

Mr Jones was elected. The old rules of the last Congress were then adopted us the rules of this, with one or two amendments, one of which was abolishing the rule allowing members only one hour to speak. Another allowing the House to suspend the tales by a majority instead of two-thirds. Ma Adams, as usual, tried to have the 21st, or abolition rule abolished. On Tuesday, Mr Barnard, raised a debate by trying to get his motion of yesterday and the paper which he wanted to read, spread upon the journals in their regular order. The debate was interrupted by the reading of the Message, and was not renewed to any extent. 15,000 copies of the Message and 500 copies of the documents were ordered to be printed.

Hou. Wm. Montgomery, a Representative in the 26th Congress, from this State. died in Orange county on the 30th ult.

THE MESSAGE.

The President's Message came to hand on Friday morning. As our paper has South Carolina, on the 27th ult. The princito be mailed by 2 o'clock on that day, we can only give, this week, the following notice of it by the Globe:

"The spirit exhibited by the communication of the President, touching our relations with Mexico and Texas, is of a very different cast from that manifested in his dealings with the difficulties between the United States and will be paid, without creating another. Part Great Britain. If the resolute bearing now of this debt was created (two millions of it) assumed in relation to the prosecution of the right asserted by Mexico over Texas had been maintained towards Great Britain when demanding the dismemberment of Maine, the mediate use. It would seem that, with an increased Tariff, we have a diminished revenue; and with enlarged expenditures, a still greater deof the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1845, of upwards of about four millions;" and a debt of near six millions more, falling due at the

The Executive specific for all this is a continental paper money, in notes running down to five dollars, to be paid out to circulate among the people, to the amount of fifteen millions. Like France, when she issued lina, by annual appropriations, supplies all her assignats, our Administration is opposed to the increase of loans, particularly in time of peace!! All incumbrances can be cleared off by substituting a paper for a specie currency!!

In connexion with this scheme of "grand financiering," the renounced exchequer plan | tion of Texas to the Union, of banking is again recommended !"

In relation to the Texas question, the President, among other things, says:

"I communicate herewith certain despatches also a correspondence which has recently oc- democratic principles. curred between the Euvoy from that Republic and the Secretary of State. It must be regarded as not a little extraordinary that the Government of Mexico, in anticipation of a public discussion, which it has been pleased mocrat to pursue any other course; that union to infer from newspaper publications, as likely to take place in Congress, relating to the annexation of Texas to the United States, should have so far anticipated the result o such discussion as to have announced its determination to visit any such anticipated de Hampshire [whose members were elected by cision by a formal declaration of war against the United States .- If designed to preven Congress from introducing that question, a a fit subject for its calm deliberation and final had been elected in accordance with the re- judgment, the Executive has no reason to anisements of the second section of the appor- doubt that it will entirely fail of its object. tionment act, which requires members of The Representatives of a brave and patriotic Congress to be elected by Districts. So that it will be seen he does not recommend the annexation, but plainly shews that he thinks the subject ought to occupy the attention of Congress.

The democrats of the Third Congres sional District, met at Rockford on the 15th ult., and appointed the Hon. JNO. HILL their delegate to the Baltimore Convention. They expressed a strong preference for Mr ion, and has a right to use his vote as he Van Buren, but pledge themselves to support the nomince. Gen. Graves was Chairman, and Hugh Stokes, Esq., Secretary.

NO GO .- It seems from the Richmond Enquirer, to be pretty certain, that the great wonderment found out by the whigs, that Goggin (whig) was elected over Gilmer by 21 majority, instead of Gilmer over Goggin, is explained by the suggestion that the Clerk of Madison has probably overlooked the third day's voting at Robinson's precinct.

Such are our sentiments: If any man is, or pretends to be so wedded to men-has vill be satisfied with none other, and boasts that if his favorite be not nominated, he will not be bound by the nomination, let him do as he pleases--if he will kick up and pout and sulk, because he was not suited, let him go-the quicker we are clear of him the better; such men never have been and never 21, gross, Our people are not near supplied, will be any thing but a clog and hinderance to any party to which they may attach themselves. Every man has a right to his opinpleases, and if he cannot or will not vote with the democratic party, yet professing to be a democrat, let him go, and vote as he pleases. We are against coaxing, bribing, or threatening any man to act with the democratic party. If he loves men better than principles, he thereby either betrays his ignorance or his cupidity.
