

MY COUNTRY'S NATIVE GLORY.

From the Washington Union. MY COUNTRY'S NATIVE GLORY. BY COLUMBUS DEWE.

TO MY SWEETHEART.

You're a brook of creature, In form and feature,— It's myself that now tell you that same,

THE BARREL MOVEMENT.

A SKETCH OF CAMP LIFE ON THE RIO GRANDE. When the St. Louis Legion was encamped on the island at the mouth of the Brazos Santiago, wash down the game, and make the whole affair a comfortable one.

"Do you think you can execute a 'barrel movement' boys?" said an Orderly belonging to the mess.

"What is it like?" was the general inquiry. "Simply this," says the Sergeant; "the Commissary General is landing stores down at the beach,

All the mess expressed themselves ready for duty instantly, and having added a few more rank and file to the enterprise, off they started on a commendably earnest march,

The Lieutenant, who had critically watched the manoeuvring of the men, congratulated the Orderly on the perfection of their drill.

The subordinate looked him in the eye, and knew, by the slight curl in the muscles of his face, that he "smoked" the new tactics;

"If the cook in your mess seasons it carefully, and it's not overdone, I wouldn't mind tasting it," says the Lieutenant.

The Orderly winked, and they separated. It was refreshing to an old campaigner just to see how "gutter snipe," "short-horned elk,"

GREAT CURIOSITIES.

Some enterprising gentlemen talk of establishing a new museum. They have already collected a great many curiosities, among which are the following:

A piece of the "Philosophers Stone." The tiller of Noah's Ark. A corner of Othello's handkerchief, which a sylbil wove.

A branch of Birnam wood. Some of the hairs of the animal that Locke saw in the moon.

A certain cure of the rheumatism. A bottle of the water through which Leander swam when he crossed the Hellespont.

A walking cane made out of the north pole. The handle of the Odd Fellows gridiron.

The wings of the Flying Dutchman. The unfolded tale of Hamlet's daddy's ghost.

A stone from the mountain that brought forth a mouse. The tail of the night mare.

One of the pearls which were cast before swine.

chestra, with Trumpet obligato, by fame. Some bristles from the last brush with the Mexicans, and a little of Gen. Ampudia's dander on them.

A fluke from the anchor of Hope. Whiskers and noses, from a masked battery. The shadow of the meat that the dog saw in the water.

A pair of skulls from a White-Hall boat; and a table showing the phrenological developments. A bottle of the smoke that Mr Polk's messages ended in.

Some ten-penny nails, made from a fragment of the iron duke. A finger-post, from the road to ruin.

Music of the spheres, original score. The cap of a climax. Musket and powder-horn of a shooting star.

The faith that Henry VIII defected; rather the worse for the scuffle. A boot made on the last of the Mohegans, with one of the spurs of the Rocky mountains on the heel.

The pearl that Cleopatra drank; and the two diamonds that cut one another. A silk tassel from the staff of life.

The afternoon of the day of Algiers. Some of the eels that were used to being skinned. A pair of pointers, from the Great Bear; well trained.

A hinge from the gates of death, and some of the stuff that the child was not quite up to. I hold these things subject to your order, and should I find anything further worthy of a place on the shelves of the Museum, shall inform you.

RIDDLE.—The following riddle is attributed to Mr Macaulay, the essayist: Cut off my head—and singular I am, Cut off my tail—and plural I appear;

What is my head, cut off? A sounding sea. What is my tail, cut off? A roaring river, Within whose eddying depths I peacefully play, A parent of soft sounds, though mute forever.

A correspondent of the Boston Daily Advertiser furnishes the following answer: Ecod! I've guessed it! 'Tis a cod! Cut off his head, he's very odd;

What is his head? A sounding sea. What is his tail? The river D, And where's the Epicure but cries 'Od Zounds,' I know the cod produces the most sweet Sounds.

TABLE TALK.—"Miss Julia, allow me to help you to a piece of this pie?" "Only part of a piece, if you please, Mr Jerrell."

Mr J. (after cutting the pie nearly as fine as mince-meat.) "I declare, Miss Julia, I shall be compelled to give you a whole piece, for cut it which way I will, 'twill be in pieces after all."

Postscript.—"Don't be after forgetting, dear Jenny, to take out this letter directly when it comes to the post-office, or that thief, Marcony's wife, will know by your looks that there's money in it, and so call for it before it gets there."

THE WORD "IT."

The pronoun it is a comical word.—It is sometimes amusing, it is often absurd; It is large, it is small, it is round, it is square, It rains and it snows—it is foul, it is fair, It is black, it is white—it is long, it is short—It is everything, almost, and then it is nothing. It is true—it's a lie; it isn't—it is!

A GOOD ONE.—The Springfield Gazette tells a good story about a clergyman, who lost his horse on Sunday evening. After hunting in company with a boy, until midnight, he gave up in despair. The next day, somewhat dejected at his loss, he went into the pulpit, and took his text the following passage from Job—

"O that I knew where I might find him! The boy, who had just come in, supposing the horse was still the burden of thought, cried out— 'I know where he is! He's in Deacon Smith's barn.'"

FAMILY EXPENSE.—Archdeacon Paley, in a familiar table-discourse, touching the expenses brought by original sin upon husbands and fathers in the way of cantrics and satins, says—"I never let my women, (be it understood, he spoke of Mrs Archdeacon Paley and the Misses Paley.) I never let my women when they shop, take credit; I always make them pay ready money. Sir, ready money is such a check upon the imagination!"

BON MOT.—A witty limb of the law in passing a person engaged in posting bills on a corner, addressed him thus:—"How are you William, to-day?" "My name is not William," replied the man, it is John.

"Ah!" replied the first speaker, "I thought your name was William for I heard them call you Bill Sticker."

VOLUNTEERS FOR OREGON! Attention Rheumatic Battalion! In anticipation of a war with England, the individuals comprising the Rheumatic Battalion are each and every one notified and warned to appear (armed as shall hereafter be directed) before the Orderly Surgeon, at his Drug Store, on Main st, and purchase a bottle of Hews' Liniment and Elixr, which is warranted to cure all the old cases of Rheumatism or Inflammatory Rheumatism that have remained uncurd up to the present time. This without delay, so that they may be in readiness to march, if called upon. To the Universal Rheumatic Battalion! Given this day at Head Quarters by COMSTOCK & CO., Commander General.

The above article is sold at wholesale by Comstock & Co., 21 Courtland street, N. York; and by S. J. Hindsdale of this place; Atkins & Co., Clinton; Estlin & Bro., Kingston; Bass & Sullivan, Kenansville; D. G. Patterson, Little Rockfish; and McDowal & Co., Elizabethtown, where the only genuine article manufacturer, and sold at half price to meet the wants of the poor. Also, C. & Co's celebrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, a splendid article, for 50 cents a bottle, warranted as good as any dollar article. The genuine to be had only of Comstock & Co., N. York, and by some as above. June 27, 1846.

SUPERIOR QUALITY AT HALF PRICE FOR THE CURE OF Scrofula, chronic rheumatism, general debility, cutaneous diseases, scaly eruptions of the skin, Itch, or impur or pustul on the face, mercurial and syphilitic diseases, bilis, or an impure habit of body, ulcerations of the throat and leg, pains and swellings of the bones, liver complaints, and all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, exposures and imprudences in life, excessive use of mercury, &c.

The great popularity of Sarsaparilla, and its established efficacy, render it superfluous to enter into any encomium of its virtues or adduce any evidence in its favor. The Sarsaparilla is warranted positively as good as any other that can be made at one do lar, at just half the price of those so much advertised, and as strong and in as large bottles, viz: fifty cents per bottle, or five dollars per dozen.

This article has cured Scrofula of 30 years, after the dollar articles had been used in vain. To be had in New York only, at 21 Courtland street; and of S. J. Hindsdale, Fayetteville; Atkins & Co., Clinton; Estlin & Bro., Kingston; Bass & Sullivan, Kenansville; D. G. Patterson, Little Rockfish; McDowal & Co., Elizabethtown; where the only genuine can be had.

To all the world who use leather in any form: Oil of Tannin, or Leather Restorer. A new chemical discovery. Most people know, that skins and hides are converted into leather by the use of Tannin, extracted from certain barks, &c. When the fibre and strength of the Tannin is worn out, leather becomes dead, hard, dry, brittle, cracked, covered with a crust, &c. This all know. To restore then life, softness, moistness, strength, smoothness, and remove all scabs, fly, or blister—restore the tannin. This is done by the use of Tannin, which penetrates the stiffest and hardest leather, it has been 20 years in use, and if it tears easily with the fingers, it imparts at once a strength that is utterly incredible until seen. It becomes like new leather in all respects, with a delightful softness and pliability, and makes all leather completely and perfectly impervious to water—particularly boots, shoes, carriage tops, harness, hose, trunks, and in fact all things made of leather, giving a splendid polish, even higher than new leather has, and at least doubling its wear and durability, in whatever manner the leather is used. These are Facts.

For sale by S. J. Hindsdale, of this place; Atkins & Co., Clinton; Estlin & Bro., Kingston; Bass & Sullivan, Kenansville; D. G. Patterson, Little Rockfish; and McDowal & Co., Elizabethtown.

Balm of Columba. For restoring the Hair and keeping it from falling out. This celebrated hair restorative, which has been used successfully by over ten thousand persons, is now for sale in this town. As there are numerous counterfeits on this article, be sure and see that Comstock & Co. is on every wrapper. Buy of the agent of this town, and you will be sure to get the true. For sale wholesale by Comstock & Co., N. York; S. J. Hindsdale; Atkins & Co., Clinton; Estlin & Brother, Kingston; Bass & Sullivan, Kenansville; D. G. Patterson, Little Rockfish; and McDowal & Co., Elizabethtown; where the only genuine can be had.
