DEAFNESS - DR MCNAIR'S ACOUSTIC OIL

The deaf from infancy, often receive in a most initaculous manner then bearing when they least expect it, by the use of this Oil, which shows them pain of conversing in a loud tone, without pleasure, or of b ing neglected and sounned, to avoid that distress which is filt nutually by the deaf person and his hearers. How sacred a duty therefore it 15, that we use all necessary means to remove such French and American Instruments of the best an affl ction, and er joy the social qualities implanted in our natures ! This Ear Oil has the effect so to reheve the tension, and bring into use the natural action of the parts, as to restore the heartag when lost or impaired. This is proved by so many wel known cases, that where known, it occess no praise. The great wish of the proprietor is, that each may speak to oth rs of its nn. common virtu s, the suff rers may know and be celeved and restored by its use

BLACKSMITH SHOP, At the junction of Bridge and Person Streets. THE undersigned would beg leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public generally, for their patronage herete fore, and would now inform them that he h s engaged the services of Mr Amos Williamson, under whose superintendance the work will be conducted, and in whom the public will find a competent workman, always ready to serve them with good substantial work, at prices to suit the times. The horse-shoeing department will have partic-ular attention, and will be executed by that re nowned colored son of Vulcan, DavidPookam, who as a horse shoer, is not surpassed by any workman in the place. He solicits from his old customers a continuance of their patronage; to all others he desires only an opportunity to secure their custom. Jalapa, May 11, 1817. (The General in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America to the Mexican Nation.

MEXICANS : The recent events of the war, and the measures adopted in consequence by your government, make it my duty to address you- to show you truths of which you are ignorant, because they have been criminally concealed from you. I do not ask you to trust my words, (though he who has never talsified them has a tight to confidence,) but to judge of these truths by facts within the view and knowledge of you all.

Whatever may have been the origin of this war, which my country saw itself forced to this then, Mexicans, the liberty which you undertake by irre-nediably circumstances, enjoy? which I learn are unknown to the greater part of the Mexican nation, we regard it as nece-sity; such is it always to both bellig- errors which do not dishonor them, and to erents, and reason and justice, if not forgot- | adopt a system of true liberty, of peace and ten on both sides are in dispute, each believing them its own. You have proof of this the North ; which will I believe that they are truth as well as ourselves, for in Mexico, as ignorant of the falsity of the calumnics of the in the United States, there have existed and bie-s, intended to excite to hostility.
