And Charleston Courier Express.

Our Victories FULLY CONFIRMED.

THE CAPITAL IN OUR QUIET POSSESSION American loss in Battles of the 8th & 13th. Gens. Pillow and Shields wounded-Col.

rived last evening from Vera Cruz via waving over the palace, or what the Yan- which the victory of the American arms Tampico, having left the former city on kees have called the "Halls of the Mon- was complete, and on which our troops Maj. Waite, badly; Maj. Wright, slightly; the 7th and the latter on the 9th. The tezumas." At 12 o'clock the previous contended with an enemy immensely su- Capt. E. K. Smith, severely; Capt. Cady, Fashion has experienced very rough night, Santa Anna with all his troops left perior in number, and strongly posted. - slightly; Capt. L. Smith, severely; Capts.

but were doing well at last accounts.

Kendall sets down at 3000; another au- yet most of the principal ones are still The defeat was total. yet Gen. Scott entered the valley of Mex- The Mexican population are far from been uncommonly severe—it has been pur- interest most of our readers. The names ico with an army only a little exceeding being satisfied, and there is every reason chased with the blood of some of the most of privates are not given in the list.

the 13th, is Governor of the city:

GENERAL ORDERS-No. 284. Headquarters of the Army,

Mexico, Sept. 14 has hoisted the colors of our country in the capital of Mexico and on the palaces of its

2. But the war is not ended. The Mexican army and Government have fled, only to watch an opportunity to return upon us in vengeance. We must then be upon

3. Companies and regiments will be kept together, and all stand on the alert. Our safety is in mlitary discipline.

4. Let there be no drunkenness, no disorders and no straggling. Stragglers will be in great danger of assassination, and marauders shall be punished by court mar-

5. All the rules so honorably observed by this glorious army in Puebla must be in the capital and its environs. observed here. The honor of the army and the honor of our country call for the best behavior on the part of all. The valiant must, to win the approbation of God mander and friend.

and military Governor of Mexico.

By command of Maj. Gen. Scott, H. L. SCOTT, A. A. A. G.

Two days after, he issued the following aditional orders: GENERAL ORDERS-No. 286.

the capital of Mexico.

By command of Maj. Gen. Scott:

Latract of a letter from a foreigner to a commercial house.

Mexico, Sept. 28, 1847. hostilities should commence on the 7th at o'clock. But nothing was done until the 5th, when a battle commenced in front of Chapultepec, which was warmly conhad to retire with a loss of 800 or 1000 men; the Mexican loss was also considerable, but you well know the difficulty of led banner on the domes of this capital. ascertaining correctly. They lost Gen.

the 13th they commenced firing again, and open their eyes to their true interests?— done this thing. kept it from 5 till 9 a. m.; then they suc- Never. This is my fear. ceeded in taking the castle, and immediately followed up their victory to the cut off. garitas of the city, where they were met McIntosh, Lieut. Cols. Martin Scott, by a most obstinate resistance and did not Graham, Baxter and Dickinson, killed- enter that night; but on the morning of the Great loss of our officers and men, &c. 14th the American army commenced en-The steamer Fashion, Capt. Ivy, ar- tering the city, and at 7 their flag was turned from another battle field—one on Marines. By this arrival we have our correspon- mercy of the invading army, and before light, and in less than two hours every Surgeon Roberts, dangerously; Capt. Madence from Mr Kendall and others up to day light the place was entirely plundered point was carried, all the cannon of the enthe 28th of September from the city of by the leperos and prisoners of the ex-Ac-Mexico. The news is glorious, ever glori- cordada, who had escaped or been set quantity of ammunition captured, and near mortally; Lt. Clark, badly; Lt. Morris, ous for the American arms; at the same loose. At 7 o'clock partial shots were 1000 men, among them 53 officers, taken severely; Lt. Beardsley, badly; Lt. Waintime our losses are severe, and the details heard in the city, fired by the inhabitants prisoners, of the killed and wounded heart-sickening. on the American army as it was entering.

10,000. What wonders have not these to believe a reaction will take place. Gen. gallant spirits of the army. The 5th In-"ten thousand" achieved! The Mexican Scott is taking great precaution to prevent fantry has sufiered most. This regiment, accounts representing that we were at any outrages, and I must say, to the credit of along with the 6th and 8th, was engaged in time seriously repulsed are not true. The the Americans, that they have behaved with the attack upon a strong work on the ene-Mexican loss is not definitely ascertained, much more prudence than could have been my's right, and was opposed to such supeexpected under existing circumstances and rior numbers that it was compelled to retire We amex here Gen. Scott's orders after the inhospitable reception they met with. along with the others. The celebrated his victorious occupation of the city, by It is a pretty well known fact with us that Col. Martin Scott was killed in this attack, which it will be seen that Gen. Quitman, the American army have lost since they along with Lieuts. Burwell and Strong, who gloriously distinguished himself on left Puebla, in killed, wounded, and death while Col. McIntosh and many other offifrom fatigue and other causes, about 4000 cers were badly wounded. The worse men, and upwards of 170 commissioned than savage miscreants in the fort, after wounded. The conduct of all the nonofficers, yet their real loss I cannot posi- our men retired, set up a yell and came commissioned officers has been gallant omcers, yet men real loss I cannot post- out men retreat, set up a jet and most conspicuous, while several of dall, of the Picayune. We trust, howmitted in the suburbs on the straggling were unable to get away. In this way poor them behaved so nobly that they have been ever, his wound is but a slight one. this army, after many glorious victories, land there is not a soul to be seen in the bas hoisted the colors of our country in the land there is not a soul to be seen in the land the land there is not a soul to be seen in the land there is not a soul to be seen in the land there is not a soul to be seen in the land there is not a soul to be seen in the land there is n law, and enforces it strictly. I have a good opportunity of knowing the line of works. the feelings of the people, and my opinion is that we are farther off from peace than tepec, our loss was also great, although not

Copy of a letter written by a Frenchman, to one of MEXICO, SEPT, 28, 1847.

My Dear Sir:- I avail myself of the departure of the British courier, to sketch you the scenes it has been my luck to witness

The Mexicans having been beaten in all points and in every way from the 8th to the 13th inst., Gen. Santa Anna left the capital in the evening of the 13th, and took the and country, be sober, orderly and merci- road to the interior. On the 14th, in the ful. His noble brethren in arms will not morning, the Americans entered the city be deaf to this hasty appeal from their com- in a very quiet manner, and Gen. Scott was already in the palace, when on a sud-6. Maj. Gen. Quitman is appointed civil den the people of the low classes commenced throwing stones on the Americans from the tops of the houses, and from all the streets, whilst individuals of a better standing fired from the windows and balconies on the Yankees, who were far from expecting such treatment. Gen. Scottimmediately ordered pieces of artillery to be Mational Palace of Mexico, Sept. 16.5 placed in all directions, and soon swept the streets with grape shot, but this proved The General in chief calls upon his bre- insufficient to subdue the insurrection .thren in arms to return, both in public and Gen. Scott then sent a few companies on private worship, thanks and gratitude to divers points, with orders to break open God for the signal triumphs which they every house out of which they should fire. have recently achieved for their country. to put to the sword those found within, and Beginning with the 19th of August and lastly, to sack the property therein conending the 14th inst., this army has gallant- tained. This order, which was executed ly fought its way through the fields and with great moderation, (thanks to the seforts of Contreras, San Antonio, Churu- cret instructions of Gen. Scott,) but in pec at the close of the action, and now, the gates of San Cosme and Tacubaya, into down the insurrection. These scenes lasted three long and sad days—from the 14th and those who were gathering the bodies and gallantry on the occasion. Here is When the very limited numbers who to the 16th, and I assure you we were of their wounded and lifeless comrades.— the list of the killed and wounded in the have performed those brilliant deeds shall much alarmed during the whole time. All On seeing this worse than savage outrage, have become known, the world will be astonished, and our own countrymen filled respects with prejudice towards the Amer-But all is not yet done. The enemy, can army has not done the hundredth part his pockets. Macintosh did not come out mingh scattered and dismayed, has still of the injury it had a right to do, and which after the battle to gain more time for his many fragments of his late army hovering European armies would have done in simtelligence of the strength and movements legistion, he may again recruit in treble and having seen warfare in Europe towards of our army, in order that he might be humbers and fall upon us to advantage if the end of Napoleon's military career, 1, of service to the Mexicans by communicatwe rest inactive on the security of past vic- judging by comparison, give it as my sin- ing itcere and candid opinion that if a continen-Compactness, vigilance and discipline tal army had been stoned and fired upon are, therefore, our only securities. Let by the population of a vanquished city, the every good officer and man look to those inhabitants would have been dealt with racautions and enjoin them upon all others. ther roughly. Now we are tranquil, but H. L. SCOTT, A. A. A. G. turbances. Our precarious situation will On the 9th the armistice was suddenly is really too small; for figure to yourself latter, Col. Tenorio, is a prisoner in our horse shot under him. broken off, in consequence of Gen. Scott 7000 men in a city of upwards of 200,000 hands; some fourteen officers belonging to Matters are approaching a crisis, while the having considered it infringed, and he hostile souls, and in Puebla less than 1500 the former are also prisoners, but the comtherefore demanded an apology or that to maintain a population of more than 50,- ico; they are all and each of them heroes. tested by both parties. The Americans It is a great thing to see a handful of Amer- wishing to hold the position, ordered all the icans cut their way through 500 miles of forces to retire. The whole affair, as a theon, of Oajaca, and Gen. Balderas, both to Queretaro, where a Congress is to asbrave citizen soldiers; they died heroical- semble next month. He took with him tained in the battle. This is a matter I do leading on their troops. The battle 4000 men, and Santa Anna tell back upon not feel myself qualified to discuss, but it in Macintosh, in giving Santa Anna so fought principally by the National Puebla with 2000 horsemen. These two must be certain that the morale upon the much time, or even in having any reliance regular army having fled in the bodies of troops are the remains of the 20,- Mexicans, of a defeat so disgraceful and so upon his power and ability to make peace of the action; and, in truth, in 000 regular troops who defended the city disastrous, must be important. They have under all the circumstances, however much an the affairs up to the abandoning of the no longer than two weeks ago.

worthless.

On the 12th, at break of day the Americans commenced cannonading Chapultecans commenced cannonading Chapultecan commenced cannonading cans commenced cannonaging Chapters in the long of the continued the whole day. On ple is not yet at an end. When will they paper. It will not be the first time he has here and at home, in recommending measured the whole day. On ple is not yet at an end. When will they paper. It will not be the first time he has here and at home, in recommending measured the whole day. On ple is not yet at an end. When will they paper. It will not be the first time he has here and at home, in recommending measured the whole day.

All communication with the interior is Extracts from Mr. Kendall's Letters.

TACUBAYA, SEPT. 8, 1847. the city, leaving the inhabitants at the Gen. Worth commenced the attack at day- Walker and Anderson, severely; Assistant

Thank God. none of our Generals have it soon became a brisk me, and continued been killed, but Maj. Gen. Pillow and Brig. pretty severe during the day. The Amerians and the proud capital of the same city, conscious of the continued been killed, but Maj. Gen. Pillow and Brig. pretty severe during the day. The Amerians are the clickets. It Discontinued been killed, but Maj. Gen. Pillow and Brig. pretty severe during the day. Gen. Shields were both wounded severely cans fought bravely, and plundered those odds opposed that for some time the result slightly; Lt. Prince, severely; Lts. Lin- Mexico must fall. houses from which the shots proceeded (or was doubtful. The force of the enemy has coln, and Thorne, severely; Lts. Mont-In the battle of the King's Mills on the from which they fancied they came) so been estimated at from 12.000 to 15,000, gomery and Andrews, slightly; Maj. Gen. 8th, Gen. Worth's division lost about 600 that many innocent people suffered in permen in killed and wounded. In the bat- son and property. The troops were much contact them our small force of scarcely verely; Cols. Garland and Trousdale, setles of the 13th—the storming of Chapul-tepec and the attack on the citadel—Quit-tepec and the attack on the citadel—Quitman's division lost 500, Twiggs' 268, Pil- although some partial excesses were comlow's 142, and Worth's 138-848 in all. mitted. On the 16th, things were a little obstacle, and notwithstanding the Mexi- Marshall and Williams, S. C. Vol, slight-Worth had scarcely a thousand men in this restored to peace, and up to to-day have cans fought with a valor rare to them, they ly; Lts. Clark, Ralph Bell, Baker, Davis, action. Our entire loss since leaving become a little more tranquil. On Mon- were finally routed from one point or an- Steen, Bannon, Kirkland, all S. C. Vol., Puebla in killed, wounded and missing Mr day, the 20th, a few of the shops opened, other until all were driven and dispersed. slightly.

since, and was one of the main defences of

On the enemy's left, and nearer Chapulas severe. It was here that Col. Wm. M. Graham, as brave an officer as ever lived, was killed; Capts. Merrill and Ayers also and El Molino del Rey, and many of the fell in that part of the field. The worder now is how any one could come out safe under such a terrible fire as the enemy poured from his entire line of works. — that one of them has received mortal inour men, who rushed onward while their gerous situation. comrades were falling thick around them, gained the victory—had they once faltered captured by Gen. Twiggs and Shields at all would have been lost. The broken ground on the right of the enemy, cut up by deep ravines, saved many of Santa Anna's troops in their flight; them, escapes the punishment of death, yet as it was, our dragoons killed and cap- as he proved that he deserted before the tured many of the fugitives. Large bodies | war. He has been sentenced, however, to of the Mexican cavalry approached the be severely whipped, to be branded on his scene of strife several times, but they were left cheek with the letter D and to wear a driven like sheep by Duncan's battery.

severe than our own. Gens. Balderas, Le- the prisoners at the Molino, on the 8th, on and many other officers are numbered was summarily dealt with. It seems that among the dead, while the interior of their he deserted from Monterey last fall, and a works, the tops of the houses from which comrade who recognized him, to save the they fought, and the ground over which trouble of a court martial, at once pitched they fled, are strewn with lifeless bodies. him into the mill flume and he was crushed so by Mr. Trist. The Mexicans at the trial here in Tacubaya, will be hung in a time were throwing shells at some of the day or two it is said. Most richly do wagons Gen. Worth had sent out to pick they deserve their fate. up the dead and wounded. They had placed a howitzer in position on Chapulteicans, agree in one point—that the Amerifriend Santa Anna, nor worm out fresh in-

The Mexican prisoners say that Santa Anna himself was on the ground in the rear of their works, but left at the commencement of the route. They admit 15,000 men more. The army of invasion suffering most. The commander of the 78 wounded. Nearly every officer had a military movement, is severely criticised by many of our officers. They contend Gen. Herrera, ex-President, has gone that no result has been gained commensu-vocated by several members of the next na was on the ground as is stated, and can side of the picture is undoubtedly the work tered the city, amidst the huzzas of the strong, Lt. Burwell, Lt. Farry; Captains rience of the past may prove a lesson for kee Doodle. Drum, 4th Art. Van Olinda; Lts. Monta- the future, and that by this time our rulers Forenoon, 10 o'clock. - I have just re- Ransom; Lt. Col. Baxter; Major Twiggs, about a peace with the Mexicans they WOUNDED .- Col. McIntosh, severely; For more than an hour the battle raged Snelling, severely; Lt. Clark, slightly; Lt.

GEN. WORTH'S DIVISION.

The above list is not all of the wounded thority given below makes it 4000. And closed, as the want of confidence is great. But to gain this victory our own loss has officers given, but all that would probably

MAJOR SUMMER'S COMMAND.

Capt. Croghan Ker, 2d Dragoons, se-

There has been much difficulty in obtaining of a day or two. it, as nearly all the orderly sergeants and executive officers have been killed or than half the officers in Gen. Worth's division have been struck down, either killed or wounded, in the actions of Churubusco companies have absolutely no one to com-

Of our wounded officers, I cannot learn that one of them has received mortal in-

No less than nineteen of the deserters. Churubusco, have been found fully guilty, and are to be hung to-morrow morning. The miscreant Riley, who commanded ball and chain in the front of the army The Mexican loss has been even more during the war! A deserter taken among After the battle was over, Gen. Scott to pieces by the wheel. Another batch of came out, accompanied by his staff, and al- deserters, who have been undergoing a

The brigade of Gen. Pierce was called into action towards the close of the battle. He lost a few men, but I learn that no officers were killed. Both Gen. Cadwallader and Infantry; Lieut. Dick Johnson, 11th In- a little closer." "No, I thank you, sir; this race. If we recollect well, the time between Lee, 11th Inf., slightly; Lieut. Kintzing, but prefer partaking of your hospitalities Voltigeurs, slightly; Lieut. Thos. Shields on some future occasion." And, holding 14th Inf. slightly; Lieut. Swan, Volti- his spy glass to his eye, he continued, "I increase of the direct trade of Charleston, geurs, slightly.

The loss of non-commissioned officers that their entire force was 15,000; it is and privates in this brigade I have not yet it is a sad tranquility, as we fear new disprisoners, and dispersed, their loss has loss in Major Summer's command, which prisoners, and dispersed, their loss has loss in Major Summer's Command, which been near 5,000. Many of them were reg. consisted of 280 men, was 6 killed and 33 bear on me as I will be able to bring to for their supplies of this article, will soon, concluded, or the Americans send about ulars, the 11th and 12th Infantry regiments wounded. Of horses he had 27 killed and night of the 20th, when the Mexicans were tional Plaza at 7 o'clock. The column was The foundry, in which several moulds for casting cannon and other apparatus with glory in all the battles fought in Mex with glory in all the battles fought in Mex ofter ascertaining this Constant and in full flight, is hourly developing itself. The great sacrifice of life yesterday—the loss of so great accordance were found, was entirely demolished, and after ascertaining this Constant and in full flight, is hourly developing itself. The great sacrifice of life yesterday—the loss of so great accordance were found, was entirely demolished, and after ascertaining this constant and in full flight, is hourly developing itself. The great sacrifice of life yesterday—the loss of so great accordance were found, was entirely demolished, and after ascertaining this constant and the first accordance were found. after ascertaining this, Gen. Scott, not many gallant spirits-has all been owing came to a present, was flung to the breeze to the cessation of hostilities and the arm- over the National Palace, and it now triistice which followed, and an awful re- umphantly waves over the Halls of the sponsibility rests either with the Government or with Gen. Scott and Mr. Trist. The instructions will show, but I am of the The latter are censurable for placing faith now, [it is 5 e'clock in the afternoon,] re- he might have desired it personally. I the effect that Santa Anna's loss at El the surrounding heights. The same paper Molino was much more severe than any of the 2d inst. has the following: one here had anticipated. They say that " Santa Anna never was so badly dis-

TACUBAYA, Sept. 11.

was there, as also were some of his prin- date of our accounts." cipal officers, holding a council as to the best mode and point of attack.

and Capt. E. Kirby Smith this alternoon of ade at Puebla. He reached Jalapa on the wounds received at the same time. Lieut. 20th ult- and was to leave the next day for Col. Dickinson, shot badly in the ankle at | Puebla. Maj. Lally's command accom-Churubusco, is also dead. All were gal- panied him. Our correspondent says, lant officers, and their loss is much re- writing on the 29th ult:

of nineteen of the deserters, captured on it had been to escort ammunition for Genverely; Lieut. Tree, 2d Dragoons, se- the 20th August, at Churubusco. Gen. Lane's command, which had already starverely; Lieut. Walker, Mounted Rifles, Scott has just signed the death warrant of ted, the general having left orders for the slightly; Lieut. Williams, 3d Dragoons, thirty others, taken at the some time, and ammunition train to move on and join him. they will suffer the same fate in the course From pretty good information received at

> From the N. O. Delta. Oct. 14. Among the wounded, we regret to see the name of our contemporary, Mr Ken- supply of provisions-and there is not a soul to be seen in the vengen, nowever, for in half an hour Bull-streets; windows and doors are barricaded, can's battery, aided by the fall of another Artillant Same and Hole of the 2d approach of Gen Scott to the capital, have Mexico on the 15th Sept., says that he and the ladies keep in both night and day, of their works, drove the dastardly wretchand the ladies keep in both night and day, of their works, drove the dastardy wieters and our once merry city wears a sombre es in full flight across the fields No one lery; Sergeants Updegraff, Farmer, Arappella and other aspect; the trail of the serpent is evidently knew or even surmised the strength of the aspect; the train of the serpent is evidently knew of even surmised the strength of the over it. Gen. Scott has declared martial place; it was an old fort, constructed long geant Major Thompson of the 6th Infantry; Mexico on his own responsibility. The I trust and hope that Gen. Scott will at role, are Capts. Clay, Heady, and Smith, once promote these brave fellows. More Lieuts. Churchill, Davidson, and Barbour and 16 privates.

> The city of Mexico was quiet at the latest dates, though daily reports of the rising of the populace and the assassination of our army were rife. Little fear, however, was the 5th of this month at Queretaro.

time since formed a coalition to oppose negotiations for peace, have held a meeting, by delegates, and denounced Santa Anna as a traitor and an outlaw, and at the same time have passed a resolution pledging each State to furnish 3000 men, armed and equipped for the further prosecution of the war, and appointed Gens. Parades and Bustamente to command the troops thus to be raised.

The whereabouts of Santa Anna was not known at the capital on the 28th Sept. Rumor placed him in the vicinity of Puebla.

The Engineers, throughout all our operations, have performed a most dangerous and laborious duty. They have proved themselves to be men of sterling worthof masterly ability, and bright ornaments of their profession. There was a little incident which occurred to Capt. Mason in one of his reconnoissances, which is worthy of record. It became necessary on one occasion for him him to go very close to the enemy's breastwork, in order to ascertain its true position. As he approached, a Mexican officer rode out with two of his escort, and came up within a very short distance, when Capt Mason drew his reare situated. I can see two guns in em- of a cargo of coffee from Rio, and the exhave one in embrasure a little further to same place. The merchants of the interior and myself;" and moving round a little to co-extensive with their wants .- Ib. the right, he continued his observations.

Gens. Quitman and Smith, at the head of their commands, entered the Grand Na-Montezumas, and, with one of our national poets, we may say-

Our flag is there, our flag is there-Behold its glorious stripes and stars! Our flag is there, our flag is there— We hail it with three loud huzzas!"

Gen. Worth's command halted four o five squares from the Plaza, where Col Garland was wounded. About 8 o'clock Gen. Scott and Staff, i

Some people hope that peace will be ad- turned to their positions; and if Santa An- will say nothing of the bribery—that dark full feather, escorted by the Cavalry, encounsels have prevailed to the exclusion of Plaza, the band moved the patriotism of KILLED -Col. Martin Scott, Capt. Mer- the opinions of men who might have been the whole of us to a little higher pitch, by rill, Capt. Ayers. Lt. Strong, Lt. Arm- listened to with profit. I trust the expe- the good, old-fashioned national air of Yangue and Cantey, S. C. Volunteers; Col. must see and feel that in order to bring AFFAIRS IN V. CRUZ AND ON THE ROAD. must use hard blows instead of soft words. is fully confirmed, and the Genius of Lib-We have accounts from Mexico, brought erty, of the 27th ult., says our troops under in by Frenchmen and other foreigners, to Col. Childs were bombarding the city from during the afternoon of the 9th no less than comfitted, as by the very latest accounts 1500 wounded men came into the city, at Puebla. His force, after its junction while the number of killed was over 600. with that of Gen. Rea, amounted in in-It must read strange, the story that fantry and cavalry to 3000 men, and it some 7 or 8000 men have set themselves was quartered in the convent of St. Carwright, severely; Lt. Hunt, slightly; Lt. down before a strongly fortified city of men. The Americans under the command over 200,000 inhabitants, with an army of of Col. Childs, were strongly fortified in a with a violence not surpassed since the Hayes, slightly; Lt. Foster, severely; Lt. at least 25,000 men to defend it; but the massively built and very capacious conforcements, in the utmost security and tranquility. At intervals bombs were A smull party of us have just returned thrown into the city, which, however, we from a ride over to La Piedad, the head- are happy to say did not receive much inquarters of Gen. Pillow. General Scott jury from their explosion previous to the

From the tenor of our Vera Cruz correspondent's letters, we have no doubt Lieut. Burbank, who was mortally that Col. Childs would soon be reinforced wounded at El Molina, died yesterday, by the arrival of Gen. Lane with his brig-

"Capt. Biscoe's command returned I have already mentioned the execution vesterday from the National Bridge, where the Bridge Capt. Biscoe was confident there was not a guerilla at Cerro Gordo, and that the whole command would arrive safe at Jalapa, where it would obtain a

Our correspondent, writing from Vera Cruz on the 4th inst., says that a gentlemitted in the suburbs on the stragging were unable toget away. In this way poor soldiers. At 8 o'clock at night all is quiet, Burwell lost his life. Fully were they a-

Captain Fairchild's command returned to Vera Cruz on the 3d instant from the Bridge, having escorted provisions to Col-Hughes' and Col. Collin's command. On the way back they were fired into, and Lt. Moralles, of Captain F's, company, was severely wounded in the left hand, which will no doubt have to be amputated.

General Alvarez has been appointed commandant of the State of Puebla, and is entertained by our army of any such attempt.

The Mexican Congress was to meet on the purpose of cutting off General Scott's communication with Vera Cruz, and of The seven northern States which some preventing any new accession of men and supplies.
The following is from the Genius of Liberty of the 30th ult:

"Our city looks quite brisk and lively this morning, owing to the arrival of the steamers New Orleans, Telegraph and Ohio; our harbor, notwithstanding the violence of the wind, is literally covered with boats, running backwards and forwards, landing horses, mules and government stores; and the loud peal of the cannon is occasionally heard from Fort Conception, giving a hearty welcome to our gallant officers and brave soldiers. "Gen. Patterson and staff, Maj. Polk, brother of the President; Capt. Stapp, Lieuts. Lampire, Palmer and Mitchell, Ill. Vols.; Capt. Livingston, Lieuts-Steward, Scott and Holmes, Florida Vols., Licut. Jenkins, regular army, arrived by the steamer New Orleans from N. Orleans, and Gen. Cushing and staff, by the steamer Ohio, from Brazos," volver. The Mexican then in Spanish saluted "Good morning." The Captain responded. The Mexican then said, "You "Passenger," on the New York course. But KILLED-Col. Wm. M. Graham, 11th seem to be very curious: suppose you come Fashion has made better time than was made in I can see very well from where I am."- her and "Boston" was a fraction over 5 minutes WOUNDED-Major Savage, 14th Inf. "Walk inside, 'sir; we will endeavor to to 4 miles, while the time of this race in which slightly; Major Talcott, Voltigeurs, treat you as well as the accommodations she is beaten, was 7 minutes 45; seconds. Every slightly; Capt. Guthrie, 11th Inf. slightly; of the camp will enable us. " "I am thing gets out of fashion, and now "Fashion" is Capt. Irvin, 11th Inf. slightly; Lieut. much obliged to you sir, for your kindness out of herself. That "Passenger" can "travel on."

Our correspondent, writing on the 4th inst. says Gen. Patterson expected to be able to start for the interior in about a week with 2000 or more men.

> Direct Trade. - As an evidence of the only want at the present to see how you we would notice the arrival this morning brasure, one in barbet, and I think you pected arrival of several more from the the left. That gun I see your men loading who have hitherto visited Northern cities Charleston Eve. News.

> > Copper Ore. - The Mountain Eagle says: We learn that six hundred tons of copper ore is shortly to be shipped from here to Boston. It is found in great abundance and of the richest quality in Polk county, Tenn., and Cherokee county N. C. where a company of Germans are engaged in working the mines. We have seen several chunks of the ore at the Depot, which seems to be almost the pure metal itself. The wagons are to commence hauling it next week .- Ib.

> > Won't Consent .- The State of Connecticut on Tuesday took the sense of the voters on the question-Shall the colored people of the state be allowed to vote? The answer through the ballot box was an expressive " No."