JOHN C. LATTA,
COMMISSION MERCHANT
GENERAL AGENT,
WILMINGTON, N. C.
100,000 Acres Valuable TIMBER LAND FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber has purchased all the Lands belonging to the estate of Abram Dubois, dec'd, lying principally in Robeson county, and on both sides of Lumber river, the different surveys containing over ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES; a large part finely timbered, and convenient to Lumber river, where a large quantity of Timber is now rafted to the Georgetown market. These lands are very valuable both for Timber and Turpentine, for which purpose a large part is well situated, being in a region where the Turpentine yields more abundantly than any other section of the State. The lands will be sold at a low price, and in quantities to suit purchasers.

Information respecting the title can be obtained by applying to the Hon. Robert Strange, J. C. Dobbin, Esq., A. T. Smith, Esq., Attorneys at Law.

I understand there are many trespassers on these lands, to all of whom notice is hereby given that the law will be enforced against all such offenders.

Application for any part of the lands can be made to myself, or to John Winslow, Esq., who will be duly authorized to make sale of the same.
THOMAS J. CURTIS,
March 1, 1845.

FRUIT TREES.
THE Subscriber takes this method of again informing the public that he has on hand at his NURSERY in Randolph county, N. C., some 100 varieties of the apple trees. Price, $10 per hundred, at the Nursery.

All orders and communications promptly attended to. Address the proprietor, postpaid, at Newmarket, Randolph county, N. C.
THOMAS H. FENTRESS,
Oct. 30, 1847.

All orders left in Fayetteville, with Capt. J. R. Gee, will receive attention. Capt. Gee will give any desired information.
T. H. F.

CAPE FEAR LAND FOR SALE.
THE Subscriber, desiring of changing his business, now offers for sale his FARM, in this county, on the east side of Cape Fear, immediately on the river, 2 1/2 to 3 miles from the Clarendon bridge, containing 554 acres; the greater part of the tract is very rich bottom land, though a portion of good ridges suitable for cotton, tobacco and wheat. There is enough of open land (say 200 acres) for apple trees to 15 hands, and is now in a fine state of cultivation.

There is a very fine barn, and besides feed room and double set of stables, with cribs, kitchen, &c., as well located as any on the Cape Fear.

The terms for payment can be made very accommodating.
I am on the premises every day, and will be glad to show it to any one wishing to purchase.
W. S. LATTA,
Aug. 28, 1847.

NOW FOR THE CLOTHING!
In Arrey's Buildings, on Gillespie Street.
THE cheapest assortment ever offered in Fayetteville. Consisting of fine dress coats, frock coats, vests and pantaloons, of all descriptions, suited in price to any purchaser.

Stocks, suspenders, handkerchiefs, shirts, collars, &c.
He assures those who wish to purchase that these clothes are as well made as any articles of the kind in the country. Any person who buys any bill of goods from him, which do not prove as good as represented, are at liberty to return them, as he has taken pains in Philadelphia to make them up himself, and he flatters himself his taste is as good as any one's.
I. SAMSON,
Sept. 18, 1847.

TIMBER AGENCY.
THE undersigned will attend to the selling of Timber in Wilmington, and whenever there is a "glut" in the market, J. C. Blocker will give it his personal attention—at other times, orders for the sale of Timber will promptly be despatched by addressing W. & T. Love, who will act in my absence. If punctuality in making returns will ensure patronage, then they hope to receive a share.
J. C. BLOCKER & CO.,
WILMINGTON, Sept. 25, 1847.

1847. NEW FALL & WINTER GOODS.

Wm. C. James & Co.
ARE now receiving and for sale by wholesale and retail, their large and extensive stock of Fall and Winter Goods, embracing almost every article that is usually kept in the Dry Goods, Hat, Shoe and Hardware and Cutlery line.

All of which have been recently purchased in the Northern Markets, at auction and private sale under the most favorable circumstances, and many at much below what they could now be bought for.

They respectfully solicit a call from their friends and the public generally, to give their stock an examination before laying in their fall supplies, as great pains have been taken and much time consumed in order to obtain every article at the lowest price, so as to offer every advantage that would be gained by going further North.

New supplies will be received throughout the season as they are wanted.
Hay street, nearly opposite the new Hotel.
Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 4, 1847.

N. B. Always on hand a large assortment of Double and Single Barrel GUNS, with all the necessary equipments.
W. C. J. & Co.

CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY.

Nearly Opposite Liberty Point.
The subscriber having taken the stand lately occupied by Simpson & McLaughlin, respectfully returns his thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and hopes by unremitting attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same.

I have on hand several vehicles: Carriages, Barouches, Buggies, Rockaways, Waggon, &c., of the most approved style, which, for lightness and durability, compare with any made here or elsewhere.

Persons wishing to purchase will do well to call and examine them, as I am determined to sell very low for cash or approved notes.

Having had several years experience in one of the largest establishments north, I am prepared to manufacture Carriages of any description, at the shortest notice. All work warranted for twelve months; and repaired, free of charge, should it fail in point of workmanship or material.

REPAIRING neatly executed at the shortest notice and most reasonable charge. Orders thankfully received.
A. C. SIMPSON,

NEW TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT
The undersigned has taken the New Store at the west end of the Lafayette Hotel, and next door to Mrs. McRae's dwelling, where they will carry on the business of tailoring in all its branches. They will always keep the latest fashions for gentlemen's clothing. They flatter themselves their work will compare with any tailoring done in the State either in cut or workmanship of the garment.
HUGH GRAHAM,
A. J. WOODWARD.
Fayetteville, Oct. 16 1847.

For Dyspepsia. R. F. HIBBARD'S WILD CHERRY BITTERS.
This preparation is a certain Sedative allaying all Nervous Excitability and calming Nervous Irritation—Palpitation of the Heart—Dizziness of the Head—Faintness, and all diseases arising from a Sympathetic Affection of the Stomach, are entirely relieved by a very few doses of these Bitters.

It has already become a favorite with many Medical Practitioners.
The Rev. J. N. Moffit, who has used it, speaks of it as follows:
BROOKLYN, JAN. 1847.
Gentlemen: Having suffered for years from the effects of sedentary habits and close application to study, I was induced to try your preparation of Wild Cherry. Its beneficial effects were soon apparent, and I take great pleasure in recommending it as an excellent medicine especially adapted to excitable temperaments, and one that should be generally known and patronized. Yours, J. NEWLAND MAFFITT.

The Long Island (N. Y.) Farmer, a paper printed at Jamaica, L. I. gives the names of persons in that village who have been benefited and cured by its use.
The following named persons have been benefited by their use in Jamaica: M. S. Hunting, James J. Brenton, Charles Welling, Hendrick A. Hendrickson, J. E. Allemand, Mr Manwaring; Daniel Higbie, Springfield.

Hibbard's Wild Cherry Bitters.—Three obstinate cases of Fever and Ague, have been cured recently by the use of Hibbard's Wild Cherry Bitters. Mr. Watts, at Springfield, says that it cured him after other remedies had been tried in vain. B. F. Hibbard's Bilious Pills, should be taken, say a dose or two, before using the Bitters. Two of these pills are a dose, and are equal to 4 or 6 pills of any other kind.

Mr. Ward, of the firm of Gales Stout & Ward of this city says that he has found it very beneficial in a severe attack of fever and ague. The number of persons that have been cured and benefited in Jamaica alone, would establish the reputation of the article.

Fayetteville, Oct. 9, 1847.

THE PLANTERS PILL!!!
R. F. Hibbard's Anti-Bilious Pills
These Pills having got into general use at the North as a family pill, are offered to the South as the very best pill that can be used in warm weather, or during the sickly season. For all diseases of the head, for Fever and Ague, Jaundice, Bilious Colic, and Flatulency, they are not surpassed by any other Medicine known. The minuteness of the dose (only two Pills)—their simplicity and energy, together with their great convenience, happily adapt them to the use of families, travellers, emigrants, seamen &c.

FOR FEVER AND AGUE.
Perhaps there never was a remedy that has done more to eradicate from the system, that peculiarity of Bilious Affection accompanied by fever called Fever and Ague, as these Pills when taken according to directions, they never fail to perfect a cure.

The Pills were made by the original proprietor, Rev. B. Hibbard, about 50 years ago; B. F. Hibbard, son of the Rev. B. H., is the present proprietor, and still continues to manufacture in his own name.

BILIOUS COLIC.—Patients find relief from a single dose of them. I have known individuals attacked with Bilious Colic, and so severe was the gripping, painful sensation, that they were unable to straighten themselves; they have felt their large dose of the Pills, bruised to pieces, and put in brandy, that in fifteen minutes were able to sit up and converse.

The great truth, that preventive is better than cure, should be regarded as truth rather than fiction, and the first symptoms of disease, should be promptly met by a dose of Pills; and by thus much of care we should find ourselves rid of a thousand troubles.

The cheapness of the Pills, their convenience and their certainty of action, render it very important for each family to keep them constantly on hand.

Whoever wishes to secure good health and good spirits, will not fail to take these Pills according to directions.

The public utility and unbounded popularity of these Pills render it unnecessary to insert many certificates; those however, who may be anxious to learn still farther particulars, can be fully satisfied by application to the proprietors and manufacturers.

Every effort should be made to guard against fraudulent and pernicious imitations of HIBBARD'S PILLS, as the secret of preparing and compounding them is only known to the family of the discoverer.

For sale by S. J. Hinsdale, agent for Fayetteville; P. F. Pescud, Raleigh; Dennis Heist, Hillsboro; B. Howard, Tarboro; P. J. Brown, Louisville; B. Ware, Wilmington; and by one agent in nearly every village in the United States and Canada. R. F. Hibbard & Co. 95 John street, New York, sole proprietors.

TRUMPHANT SUCCESS OF JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINE.—J. W. Goodson, Bellevue, Ohio, says—Your medicine sold here from very general satisfaction and the demand is increasing. The Carnative Balsam is selling well.
D. Beaver, Winchester, Freble co. Ohio, says—Your Expectant is getting very popular, and in fact taking the place of all other medicines of the kind. Your Vermifuge is deservedly popular, as also your Carnative Balsam and Pills, and require no certificate to recommend them.

D. A. Barrow, Galena, Ill. June 1846, says—I am out of your Vermifuge, and wish you would send me some as soon as possible, as I have calls for it every day—also send more of Sanative Balm. I am also nearly out of Expectant and Hair Tonic. I have sold considerably by the dozen.

Jesse M. Allen, Columbus, Ohio, April 1st, 1846, says—You will perceive that I have sold all your Vermifuge; and I may tell you that I have been out for a long time, with a great many calls for it. Your Vermifuge particularly stands deservedly high as a worm medicine, and has uniformly been attended with good effect. Please forward as soon as possible.

Williams & Hayward, Raleigh, N. C., June 1846, say—Send us a fresh supply of your medicines. Your Carnative Balsam is highly spoken of by all who have used it.
C. O. Wilson & Co., Portland, Me., Aug. 20, 1846, say—We wish you to send us some more of your Carnative Balsam. Your medicines sell rapidly this summer. The Balsam and Vermifuge give good satisfaction.

A. N. Williams, Parkersburg, Va., says—Your Carnative Balsam I tried in the case of an infant of my wife, afflicted with Diarrhoea and hepatic derangements, with marked success.
Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia, and sold on agency by S. J. Hinsdale.

FLAGS FOR NORTH CAROLINA.—We stepped into Mrs. Sisco's a day or two since, and saw two very handsome flags, designed for military companies in North Carolina. One was for the "Rough and Ready Light Dragoons," of Elizabeth city. It is made of heavy scarlet silk, three and a half by four feet in size. On one side is a likeness of Gen. Taylor, painted by Jeffries, with an eagle over his head, holding in his beak a scroll, on which is inscribed "Pro Patria."—The reverse of the flag has a figure of an officer of the company in full uniform, in the attitude of a salute, with the name of the company in a scroll. The flag is trimmed with heavy gold bullion fring, and cord and tassels of gold and silk. The staff is beautifully finished, with gilt spear, &c. The other is a flag for a company of the Third Regiment of N. C. Militia. It is a regular U. S. flag, about 7 feet long. The field piece is blue; on one side is the American eagle, holding in its beak a scroll, with the motto, "Semper paratus;" on the other is the name of the company, &c.—Baltimore Sun.

BILLY WHITE'S PRIVATE OPINION:
OR, THE LOGIC OF A LOAFER.
Poor Billy White! He is, as he sagely remarks, the victim of circumstances. Billy returned here the other day on the steamer Fashion, from Vera Cruz, where he had been employed as a mule-driver. He had a dollar or two in his pocket, but soon after his arrival he found that his last pecuniary had been spent in a grocery on New Levee street, just above the steamboat landing. Dragging himself out from under a wood-pile the next morning after his debauch, he made his way to the place where he had spent the last of his dime. His hands trembled and his lips twitched and quivered, and indeed, to use his own eloquent expression, "he had the shakes terribly on to him." He beckoned the barkeeper aside in a most mysterious manner, as though he had something of the utmost importance to communicate.

"Look here, old feller," said Bill, in a sort of growling whisper, "I want a whiskey toddy strong, with a leetle peppermint and a slight shake of the nutmeg into it; but I aint got the first red cent to pay you for it."

"See that sign there!" answered the barkeeper, pointing to an ornamental piece of japanned tin on which was painted in golden letters—"Cash to-day and credit to-morrow."

Billy gave a languishing look at a neighboring whiskey bottle, and running his hands into his pantaloons pockets, he walked slowly and sadly out of the grocery into the street. Luck, however, did not desert Billy; for, while passing the corner near the Triangle-Buildings, a cab broke down and the trunk of the passenger inside fell out. The gentleman told Billy that if he would carry the trunk to a ship that he pointed out he would give him fifty cents.

With the alacrity and strength of a young giant Billy shouldered the load, safely deposited it at the appointed place, received his half-dollar, and went on his way as happy as a prince. At the first grogshop Billy took what he called an "eye-opener," made of gin and bitters, then a "phlegm-splitter" of rum and water, and lastly a "non-wester" of raw whiskey. These little creature-comforts made him feel happy, and he went out into the street in search of nothing in particular. Billy wandered about all day, calling in at this grogery and at that, and at night he found himself sitting on the edge of the wharf in front of the front boat landing. He was in a rather sorrowful mood, and thus gave vent to his feelings.

"Yes," said he, with a whimper, "that's me.—I'm just like that flatboat floatin on the waters—rottin all my timbers, and nobody to break me for fire-wood. That ere old flat is like me, too, in another way: it was a werry good boat to come down stream with corn, pork, and all them sorts of vegetables, but now, when all them's discharged, they dont care a tinker's damn for it! That's my case, kerzackly—I was werry good when I listed in the 'mule-drivers,' but when they discharged me they said I wasn't worth a damn! How could I help it if the darn mules broke out of the pen when them fellers, the guelkillers or guerrillas, or some such named fellers come! Wasn't it a rainin cats'n dogs, and was I a going to get soaked in to the skin for the sake of a parcel of long-eared critters like mules? I reckons not, my walaunt Captain! Bill White aint the feller to lower himself in that way, whatever he may be in other pertiklers. Then, agin, was I court-martialed? Did I have any boards of officers to set on me, and see who was in the right? No."

Here Billy gave a deep-drawn sigh, wiped his left eye with the corner of his jacket, and proceeded—
Either me or the mules was right; but the veller Mexikins took one of us, and the Merikans took the other. Then they wouldn
