TEAS!

AGENCY OF THE NEW YORK CANTON TEA COMPANY. The oldest Establishment in America!

THE CANTON TEA COMPANY has been popularly known for many years. This is the largest and oldest Tea Establishment in America. The public have had full proof. of their integrity and responsibility.

They possess facilities, in relation to the Tea Trade, in a very abundant degree, and doubtless, superior to any other Tea Concern in America. Their scrupulous regard to all principles that tend to clerate the character of a large business is well as the second to the character of a large business. large house, is well understood, and has alreaday secured them a connection, probably, larger than all other Tea Establishments united, and they consequently are deter-mined to sell Tear purer, more fragrant, and perfect for the prices in the aggregate, than any house in the world—hina excepted. They most zealously invite the attention of the inhabitants of this town and vicinity to their Agency where complete assortments are always on hand; they feel no hesitation in stating that wherever a single tral is made, a very decided preference is given to the celebrated Teas of the CANTON TEA CO.

BALTIMORE PIANO FORTE MANUFACTORY. VERY IMPORTANT INVENTION.

It has long been a question among teachers and amateurs of music, as to the most suitable touch for a Piano Forte. Some at this time contend for a light touch, while others, with equal ability, advocate the heavy. This question is now permanently settled. WISE & BROTHER have inwented a contrivance by which the same instrument may be instantly set to any required touch. by the turning a single screw varying, if necessary, three hundred and six-ty-five differences. The advantages of this are evident. both to teachers and amateurs as lessons may be practised on the heavy, and exhibited on the lighter touch, to suit ex-actly any physical capacity which is agreeable to fact and progressive lessons. DR. LE BOY, a Licentiate of the Royal College of Phys cians in London, having used in his private practice, for number of years, the WILD CHERRY AND SARSAPARILLA. at length made an extract of them, which with other veg etables, he has combined in one of the best Pills ever mad known to the European Community, and which met the attention of the American people.—They are the most efficacious purgative and tonic yet discovered.

THE WILD CHERRY

is an excellent tonic, possessing a tringent and aromati-properties, which make it valuable in Dyspepsia, Jaundice Weakness of the Stomach and chest. THE SARSAPARILLA is demulcent, diurctic and soothing, and is given in Rheu matism. Scrofula, Diseases of the Skin, and to eradicat the bad effects of Mercury. In the operations of all other purgative medicines debilitation and purification go hand purgative medicines debilitation and purification go hand in hand; they remove the good, as well as the had; thus weakening the system, which they were only required to cleanse, and making the cure generally almost as bad, and frequently much worse than the disease. Dr. Le Roy's Pills, on the contrary, strengthen and tone the system which they purge and purify. And this is their peculiar attribute, and the principal cause of their unrivaled popularity. larity.

P. S. The virtues of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry are too well known to medical men and the community to require further detail.

THE BITER BITTEN.

There lived in the city of Dublin, a celebrated horse-dealer, named Giles, who, like most of his profession, was not very scrupulous as to the means by which he made money, and often profited by his bargains sue between the Kings of Europe; headed with the unwary. He sold, to a major in by King Gales, the First. of America, and a regiment quartered at the royal barracks, King Louis Philippe, the Last, of France, for £110, a horse which had more beauty on the one side—and the People, on the than soundness; and the officer, on discovering the imposition, asked him to take such combatants, in such a contest? RETORT. - The pope's nuncio once dined with a party, most of whom were ultra-Protestants. After dinner, a good deal of wine having been drunk, one of the party, being desirous to quiz the nuncio, proposed as a toast-"the devil." When the bottle came round, the nuncio, to the astonshment of the company, took up his glass, and drank the health of his Satanic majesty, with the utmost gravity. Then, after a pause of a few minutes, the nuncio rose, propose a toast; which being agreed to, he gave—" the pope." This toast having produced murmurs of disapprobation, the nuncio again got up, and said, - " Gentlemen, I am really quite surprised at your objecting to my giving, as a toast, the head of my church, after I have, to compliance with your wishes, drank the head of yours.

THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER. That Illustrious individual, whose sex it is difficult to describe, though he is evidently one of the smaller insects, and who retails Allison and water, in the columns of the National Intelligencer, calls the recent movement in France, "the fell work of an infuriate mob." It offends the aristocratic nostrils; and arouses the English spleen of Mr Gales, that any nation should dare to follow the example of this country, and become a deplorable republic. Not alone has France offended in this, but she has destroyed the whole shop-keeping rule at a blow, without consulting Mr Gales. Here is the secret of the Intelligencer's spite. Hence it is that Mr Teapot Gales has a terrific tempest kicked up in his hollow cranium. Had the republicans of France first applied for and obtained the sublime permission of Gales, of the Intelligencer, they might have kicked up all kinds of a dust with perfect impunity. Failing in this necessary piece of courtesy, Mr Gales doubts. He shakes more. Mr Gales can do no less. As a charitable individual; we condole with the entire French nation, upon the afflicting dispensation of Providence, which has placed Mr Gales in opposition to their recent movement. It is distressing to think that Mr Gales cannot be appeased. The whole world hails the Revolution with ecstacy-civilized mankind grasps the hand of regenerated France with enthusiasm; but that sturdy defender of princes & potentates is not to be moved by any such stuff. He stands in opposition to the rest -and a great contest must necessarily enother. Who can possibly decide between
