100,000 Acres Valuable TIMBER LAND
FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber has purchased all the Lands belonging to the estate of Abraham Dubois, decd., lying principally in Robeson county, and on both sides of Lumber river, the different surveys containing over ONE HUNDRED THOU-SAND ACRES; a large part finely timbered, and convenient to Lumber river, where a large quantity of Timber is now rafted to the Georgetown market. These lands are very valuable both for Timber and Turpentine, for which purpose a large part is well suited, being in a region where the Turpentine yields more abundantly than any other section of the State. The lands will be sold at a low price, and in quantities to suit purchasers.

Information respecting the title can be obtained by applying to the Hon. Robert Strange, J. C.
Dobbin, Esq., A. A. F. Smith, Esq., Attorneys at Law.

I understand there are many trespassers on these lands, to all of whom notice is hereby given that the law will be enforced against all such offenders.

Application for any part of the lands can be made to myself, or to John Winslow, Esq., who will be duly authorized to make sale of the same.

WILD CHERRY AND SARSAPARILLA PILLS.

DR. LE BOY, a Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians in London, having used in his private practice, for a number of years, the
at length made an extract of them, which, with other valuable ingredients, he has combined in one of the best remedies for the cure of the above diseases, and which he has named the Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla Pills. They are the most efficacious purgative ever used.

THE WILD CHERRY is an excellent tonic, possessing astringent and aromatic properties, which are highly beneficial in Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Weakness of the Stomach and chest.

THE SARSAPARILLA
is a powerful diuretic, and is given in Rheumatism, Gout, Scrophulous diseases of the Skin, and to eradicate the root of the disease. In the operations of all other narrowing medicines, the Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla is found to be the most powerful, and it is the only remedy which removes the root of the disease, and frequently makes the system which they were only temporarily cured, and the disease returns. Dr. Le Boy's Pills, on the contrary, strengthen and tone the system which they purify and purify. And this is the peculiar attribute and the principal cause of their unrivaled popularity.

THE VIRTUES OF THE SARSAPARILLA AND WILD CHERRY are so well known to medical men and the community to require further detail.

ANOTHER PROOF OF THE EFFICACY OF DR.
JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.—This will certify that I was entirely bald for about three years, when I was recommended to try Dr. Jayne's Hair Tonic. I procured two bottles of Dr. Jayne's Tonic, and using the Tonic for about three months, my hair came in all over my head, and although not quite as thick as before yet it is constantly growing. This surprising restoration of my hair has excited the astonishment of all my acquaintances, and made me an object of curiosity to many. In an now 55 years of age, and have reason to regard the inventor of this matchless Hair Tonic as a public benefactor.

FEVER AND AGUE.—Jayne's Ague Pills are warranted to cure the worst form of Fever and Ague. The money will be refunded in all cases if they fail to cure, and they never do fail.

AMONG THE THOUSAND AND ONE MED-ICINES advertising in this paper, for all pulmonary complaints, "Jayne's Expectant" stands alone. Its path to public confidence has been paved not with puff-ery, but with the most successful results. It is the only physician, does not profess to perform physical impos-sibilities—as for instance, to cure a man whose lungs are like a honey-comb, or whose chest is like a barrel, or whose system is so diseased, that he does not believe he is born out by well authenticated facts, that in all diseases of the lungs and chest which are susceptible of cure, without miraculous interference, his Expectant will restore the patient to health.

Treated only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia, and sold on agency by S. J. Hinsdale.

SPEECH OF HON. A. W. VENABLE,

OF NORTH CAROLINA,

In the House of Representatives, June 1, 1848, in committee of the whole, upon the power of Congress to legislate upon the subject of Slavery in the Territories.

Mr Venable said:

Mr Chairman: The extent to which Congress may exercise legislative authority over the territories of the United States, has become a subject of most absorbing interest. It is felt to be so in every portion of our country—has been the source of deep feeling and agitating debate, and will continue to excite and disturb the repose of the country until definite action shall fix a conclusion for the popular mind.

This subject, Mr Chairman, has become one of great practical importance, and I avail myself of this occasion to present my views to the committee and the country—to assert the rights of my constituents and the State which I in part represent, to the common property of all the people of all the States. A convention recently held at Raleigh, speaking the sentiments of the Democracy of North Carolina, most distinctly asserted their opposition to the doctrines recently made prominent, by their tendency to restrict the occupation of the territorial possessions of the United States to those citizens who reside in States where slavery does not exist. The clear and temperate but decided manner in which their determination to resist such opinions is expressed, admonish me of the propriety of urging their wishes upon this House; whilst I assure you that their conclusions are not referable to impetuosity in action, nor have they been rash in their adoption.

understanding may be established, and peace and good-will be restored to our deliberations. The heirs of a common inheritance, won by the sacrifices and the valor of ancestors, or accumulated by the progress of our own greatness, should never descend from their high station to wrangle about the partition, or permit folly to estrange those who ought to be bound together by the most sacred bonds.

With this view, sir, I declare that we are content to abide the Missouri compromise; not that we believe that Congress had any right to annex any such condition, or to enact any such law; but the compromise having been made and acquiesced in for near thirty years, there is no purpose entertained by any southern statesman to disturb it now. If this compromise would adjust this difference, if it would compose this trouble, we are content to abide it, and the renewal of its operation recognized by the laws admitting Texas into the Union, and adjusting its territorial limits.

In doing this, and entering our protest as to the power of Congress to make the compromise, we say to our fellow citizens of the non-slaveholding States, We have made large concessions; we have given up a large territory, to which our slaveholders cannot remove; we have consented to make it exclusively yours; whilst we have placed no restriction to prevent you from the occupation of the territories to which we are permitted to come. This concession abridges our rights, without the promise of a consideration; it enlarges yours, without any equivalent being paid by you; yet, for peace, harmony, and good-will, we have acquiesced, and will continue to acquiesce; and are now willing
