NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Wm. A. Bayne, Editor and Proprietor.
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.
JANUARY 13, 1849.
An error occurred under the Congressional head in this paper of the 30th Dec., in regard to the resolution of Mr Gott. We stated that that resolution commanded the committee on the District of Columbia to report a bill to abolish slavery in said District. It should have been to abolish the slave trade in said district.

BANK OF CAPE FEAR.
Our attention has been called to an article in the Wilmington Commercial in regard to the above corporation.
The late statement of the condition of the Bank shows that it has invested funds in U. S. stocks. This has been objected to, on the ground that the Bank, seeing the depressed state of the exchanges, the scarcity of money, &c., should have discounted more freely, instead of investing its funds in government stock.
To this the friends of the Bank reply that the Bank must have a certain amount of specie to meet liabilities, and that government stock is equivalent to specie, and at the same time draws interest.
To this the writer in the Commercial replies, that the excuse of the Bank will not do; for by referring to the statements of '45-'46-'48, he finds that in the two former years, the Bank had less specie and discounted more notes, than in the fall of 1848. So, of course the Bank must find some other excuse for tightening the money market.

The Wilmington Gazette, two weeks ago, published an article which made the affairs of the Bank look rather blue; and although the Gazette was condemned for the publication, we suspect very strongly, that the Gazette has "let the cat out of the bag;" in other words, has stated what many are afraid is too true, to wit: that many of the debts due to the Bank, and counted among its resources, are not worth a copper; and hence its disability or disinclination to serve one at the expense of offending another, which it would have to do if it loaned to the safe trader, and refused the doubtful one.
Such are the baneful consequences of favoritism, which prevail in banking operations, and act like a blighting mildew upon commercial communities.

Professor A. B. Longstreet, the well remembered author of the most amusing "Georgia Scenes," has been appointed President of the Centenary College, at Jackson, Louisiana, says the Natchez Free Trader.

ROWAN.—The election in Rowan county to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons occasioned by the appointment of Judge Ellis, has resulted in the election of Mr Ham. C. Jones, whig.

They have a floating Church, of the Episcopal order, at Philadelphia. It is described as a very handsome building, and cost over $5000. It is built for the benefit of the seamen and boatmen, and will seat 550 persons.

GEN. TAYLOR.—Sometime since we copied an article going the rounds of the papers, to the effect that Gen. Taylor had said that if the northern States attempted to interfere with the subject of slavery that he was for drawing the sword and throwing away the scabbard.
This expression has been overhauled by those who were instrumental in setting it afloat. So Mr Claiborne has again written that he is desirous that the matter shall be correctly stated, and therefore he states that Gen. Taylor said nothing about slavery in the territories, but spoke entirely of the interference by the north with the rights of the slaveholders in the States; and that he studiously avoids giving any opinion in regard to his course on the subject of slavery in the territories.

From Yucatan.—The barque Florida, which took down 850 volunteers for service in Yucatan, returned yesterday, leaving Sisal on the 10th inst. The troops were all well, and most of them had reached Merida. The papers say they conducted themselves with great order and propriety. In Merida on the 4th inst. was celebrated a great victory gained by the whites over the Indians in Peto. The details are not given, but it is spoken of as being decisive of the war. Between this victory and the arrival of the volunteers, the Yucatecos are full of joy and exultation.

A CUTE CHAP.—We once knew a boy who said he liked "a good rainy day: too rainy to go to school, and just about rainy enough to go a fishing."
