HOTCHKISS' Vertical Water Wheel.

There are several hundred of these wheels in operation in different counties in North Carolina. For proof of their great advantage over the common water wheel, or any other wheels now in use for saw mills, we confidently refer to those who have applied them to their mills. We can recommend them particularly for their superiority in cases of a low head of water, or back water.
We still keep a supply of Wheels, suitable for different heads of water, at Wilmington, Newbern, Washington, Edenton, and Fayetteville. The wheels may also be had of E. A. Brevard, Lincolnton, and Uriah Wells, Petersburg, Va. Persons wishing to obtain the right to use the wheels, will be served on application to D. McNeill & Co., Fayetteville, N. C.

DR. SHERWOOD'S Vibrating Magnetic Machines.

By recent improvements in these Machines, their power is doubled in cases of the same size, and the prices reduced to $12 and $14 each; the $12 sizes being greatly superior to the $12 sizes of other machines. They now run with more power and less noise, and are better adapted for magnetizing patients than any other in use. Each case is accompanied with a Manual (11th edition, p. 400, 32 mo.) in the English or French language, according to order, which contains clear and minute directions for the proper use of the instrument in all the various diseases to which it is applicable, which are found to include many of the most peculiar and obstinate that are known to the medical profession. The Manual also contains a synopsis of the different systems of medical practice, Allopathic, Homoeopathic, and Magnetopathic, with a full glossary.
Physicians and others are cautioned against purchasing the imitations of these machines, as they will be found of comparatively little value. No premium has ever been obtained over these magnetic machines at the Auction, or any other Institute, as is represented by the manufacturers of inferior machines.
As I have become the Agent for the sale of the above Machines from a conviction of their usefulness in disease, and not from any desire to speculate on them, and am responsible to the owner for them, they can only be obtained by the payment of the cash on the delivery of the Machine. I have deposited them with Mr. Bayne at the Carolina Office, who will show them, or deliver them on the payment of the cash price, and on no other terms.

DR. H. H. SHERWOOD'S Compound Chloride of Gold,

FOR SCROFULOUS DISEASES.
These remarkable medical remedies of the late eminent and well known Dr. Sherwood of New York, consisting of a preparation of magnetized CHLORIDE OF GOLD, compounded with various other materials with great care and by a laborious process, and of a BITUMINOUS PLASTER, have been tested by an extensive practice of twenty-five years' continuance, and may now justly be considered as more successful than any other known remedy in the treatment of CONSUMPTION in all its early stages, and of all Tuberculous or Scrofulous Diseases. For this class of complaints they are extensively adopted by physicians in their own practice in various parts of the country. They are prepared by us under the direction of the Executive of the estate of the late Dr. Sherwood, to whom, by his will, his medical recipes are intrusted in the same manner in all the various diseases, and are always accompanied by Dr. Sherwood's valuable medical treatise upon the treatment of Chronic Diseases, a work which was the result of many years of labor and research, and which shows in the clearest manner the principles upon which the operation of his remedies is founded and their mode of cure. This work will enable any person to detect the nature and extent of scrofulous or tuberculous disease in himself or others, by pressure on the ganglions of the spinal nerves, on the spaces between the vertebrae along each side of the spine.

AWFUL SCENE AT AN EXECUTION.

A correspondent of the Jackson (Tenn.) Whig thus notices a scene, at the execution of John M. Riley, near that place, on the 8th ult. for the murder of William Willis, which seems to have stricken terror to the stoutest hearts:
“On arriving at the gallows, a dark cloud which had previously arose in the west, overspread the entire firmament with its murky folds and caused consternation around. Every thing was now in confusion. As the thick masses of clouds gathered their folds deeper overhead, the crowd below partook of the character of the disruptive elements above. Nature seemed in convulsions. All was dismay, confusion and consternation! A single blaze of lightning, in its gyration, struck a tree near where the gallows was erected, and lightened it up in one sulphurous flame. The rain descended in torrents, the vivid lightnings flashed around, the muttering thunder rumbled along the thick folds of clouds, and horror seized upon the hearts of the people. The women fell into swoons, and the men trampled upon them as they hurried to and fro, frightened out of their wits. All was confusion and uproar! Trees falling on every side—the thunder roaring overhead, and the lightning flashing in their faces—caused in the crowd a panic never before witnessed. Those that were on horses rushed from the place as if Old Nick was after them. All thought they saw the devil and those that did not leave, staid there from physical inability to get away, for they were too much frightened to leave.”

ANOTHER NARROW ESCAPE FROM BURYING ALIVE.

Some four or five appalling cases of this sort have occurred in Cincinnati and St. Louis, lately, in the midst of the fearful rage of mortality from the scourge. The Cincinnati Commercial of the 13th, gives the latest as follows:
“We learn from Col. Williamson, of Lockland, that a man was seized with cholera in that town on Wednesday, and died in a few hours—or rather he was pronounced dead, and the paraphernalia of mourning was assumed. The body was laid out and placed in the coffin; but a few hours previous to the time appointed for the funeral, the dead man rose from his coffin, to the great terror of those around, and walked out of it in his shroud! He divested himself of the garments of his grave, and is now apparently a well man. It is needless to add that he sent the coffin back, having no further use for it.—This is true, and it is another warning against too much haste in burials.”

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A free negro man named Shadrack Manly, employed as a fireman on board of the Rail Road train for 8 or 10 years, was knocked off from the locomotive, on Saturday afternoon, by striking against a post of the county bridge that runs across the Road, about 200 yards above the Depot. He was standing with one foot on the brake and leaning over, when the accident happened. He fell under the wheels, which run over his face and killed him instantly.—The Coroner's jury brought in a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—Fayetteville Commercial.

NOTHING BUT A PRINTER ANYHOW.

Some person uttered this sneering expression within hearing of the editor of the Cincinnati Times, he indignantly replies as follows, in defence of the profession he follows in pride.—“Nobody but a printer, forsooth!—It makes our free blood run through our veins to hear such expressions from the lips of those nursed on republican soil.
And has labor become disgraceful? Is the name of a Printer a reproach in the land? We cannot believe it.—Whoever gains a livelihood by toil, is a nobleman. Let those who scorn the laborer, look back to their grandfathers, and they will see nobleman after the make of God's own hand—men who stood and sung among the waving corn—men who wore their human nature like a crown!
“Nobody but a printer, anyhow!”
Who was William Caxton, one of the fathers of literature? “Nobody but a printer!”
Who was Earl Stanhope? “Nobody but a printer!”
Who was Sam'l Wordsworth, the poet? “Nobody but a printer!”
Who was Benjamin Franklin the great American philosopher and statesman? “Nobody but a printer!”
Who was Gov. Armstrong of Mass? “Nobody but a printer!”
George P. Morris, James Harper, Horace Greeley, N. P. Willis, Robt. Sears and Senators Cameron, Dix, and Niles, and a host of no less conspicuous names—who are they? “Nothing but printers, anyhow!”
Let the mistaken souls of our land scorn those who honestly work out the penal condition prescribed by the Creator and if justice is not gone for ever, they will blister their hands with manual labor. We have seen such justice even in our day.
A witness called to give testimony in a country town court about a lost shirt, came to the point very abruptly as follows: “Mother said, that Sal said, that Polly said, that Bob told her, that he saw a boy, that seen a fellow that run through the street, with a red striped flannel shirt of a white color, and all checker, checker, and our gals won't lie, for the old woman has licked 'em a hundred times for lying.”

ICE FOR SALE.

Keep cool if you can!
The large Ice House at Cambellton is now filled with as good Ice as has ever been offered in this Market, imported direct from Boston with but little delay on the voyage. The subscriber will open the House on Monday the 14th instant, and superintend the delivery of Ice in any quantity to suit purchasers. Persons wishing it to be left at their place of business or residence, can be accommodated by giving notice. It can be had previous to 2 o'clock of each day (except Sunday) by applying at the store at Liberty Point, (door fronting on Person street,) where a supply will be kept.
As the Ice was purchased for cash, it will be sold at the lowest price it can be afforded at. Prompt payment will be expected—the bills of regular customers will be made out weekly, and on each Monday please call and settle.
Terms.—Under 5 lbs, 3 cents per lb.—larger quantities, 2 cts per lb.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

A Coroner's inquest was yesterday held on the body of Lewis Dunning, supposed to have come to his death by a blow inflicted by a sailor, named Sandy, or Alexander, a large athletic man, with whom he had a dispute on Wednesday or Thursday evening last. Dunning died on Tuesday evening, about 7 o'clock. Alexander belongs to the brig Maria, which sailed for Bristol, R. I. on Sunday last. We learn, incidentally, that Alexander probably acted in self-defence.—Wilmington Commercial.

SINGULAR AFFAIR.

A few weeks since, a father and son, living in Ross county, by the name of Christy, both of whom were addicted to intemperance, quarreled, and the son beat the father. The father then ordered the son to leave his premises, threatening, if he returned, to kill him. The son did return, and the father true to his word for once, shot him dead in his tracks. The citizens being afraid to arrest him after the commission of the horrid deed, he left, and went into Clinton county, where he ran at large for two or three weeks, until his daughter, who had witnessed the tragedy, learning his whereabouts, followed him into Clinton, went before a magistrate, made oath to the facts, and had her father arrested. At last accounts, he was lying in Clinton jail, awaiting the arrival of the sheriff from Ross. This case is certainly without a parallel—a father beaten by his son, a son shot by his father, and the father arrested upon the affidavit of his daughter.—Ohio Statesman.

MELANCHOLY INCIDENT.

The N. Y. Express relates the following melancholy incident:
“Two young ladies, beautiful and accomplished—Mary Louisa and Virginia Star, one 19 the other 21 years of age,—were both engaged to be married on Monday last. On the Saturday night previous both went to Hoboken, and there imprudently partook of ice creams, strawberries, and other fruits. The hour appointed for the wedding found both of them cold in death, with their bridal garments for a winding sheet.”

HOW THE DEVIL APPEARED TO A TAILOR.

A Jersey tailor, one Jonas Topfiff, declares positively that he has in his shop a suit of clothes which he made for the Devil. He says he was hunting out in the marshes when he met a strange looking man who asked him if he wasn't a tailor. He replied “yes.” The strange man then gave him a piece of black cloth, and told him to make a suit of clothes to his measure, and to bring them out on the marsh on that day week, when he would pay for them. Jonas measured him, agreed to make the clothes, and did make them; but thinking it a strange place to carry clothes, he first crossed himself and sprinkled the clothes with water in the Catholic Church at Newark. He then went out on the marshes, where he saw the strange man; but the moment he came in sight the man vanished, and he was unable to find him. Some people think Jonas invented this story to attract people to his shop, when he exhibits the clothes—the cloth of them being of beautiful silky fine texture. At all events, Jonas' custom has increased wonderfully since he has become tailor to his satanic majesty.

There are over a thousand princes in Germany, great and small, who receive annually from the people over $200,000,000, while a laborer works eighteen hours in twenty-four for seventy cents per week. Good soil for revolutions.

CHOLERA.—Specific Extra.—Silbbee, the larval Yankee, says the following herb receipt is infallible in cases of imaginary gripes:

Take a little catohoun, hair nip, old nip, fether few, plauten, mountain mint, Solomon seal, Gil grow over the ground, rock Polly Pod, Reuben run away, Love lies a bleeding, Live for ever-green, spiguer, coles foot, and alicum paine, essence of white beans, honey out of a bee tree, maiden leaf, and green elder scraped both ways.
Put the above in a broken mouth pitcher, steep down thoroughly, and take as much as the law allows.

CONSOLATION.—A passenger on board the ship Regulus, of Boston, in a letter home, states that they had on board their vessel a thin and feeble member of their company, who had been sea sick all the way out to the line. One day this man went to the doctor, and in a sad, supplicating tone, accosted him with— “Doctor, can you tell me what I shall be good for when I get to San Francisco, if I keep on this way?” “Tell you? To be sure I can. You're just the man we want to begin a grave yard with!”

“I want two embraces,” as the printer ter said to his female compositor.

Punch says there is no man, however high, but who is jealous of some one; and there is no man, however low, but who some one who is jealous of him!

The depth of the sea off Cape Hatteras, as ascertained by the officers engaged in the coast survey, is nineteen thousand eight hundred feet
