DR. SHERWOOD'S Vibrating Magnetic Machines. By recent improvements in these Machines, their power is doubled in cases of the same size, and the prices reduced to $12 and $14 each; the $12 sizes being greatly superior to the $12 sizes of other machines. They now run with more power and smoothness, and are better adapted for magnetizing patients than any other in use. Each case is accompanied with a Manual (11th edition), p. 409, 32 mo.) in the English or French language, according to order, which contains clear and minute directions for the proper use of the instrument in the various diseases to which it is applicable, which are found to include many of the most peculiar and obstinate that are known to the medical profession. The Manual also contains a synopsis of the different systems of medical practice, Allopathic, Homoeopathic, and Magnetopathic, with a full glossary. Physicians and others are cautioned against purchasing the imitations of these machines, as they will be found of comparatively little value. No premium has ever been obtained over these magnetic machines at the American or any other institute, as is represented by the manufacturers of inferior machines.

As I have become the Agent for the sale of the above machines from a conviction of their usefulness in disease, and not from any desire to become extensively responsible to the owners for them, they can only be obtained by the payment of the cash on the delivery of the machine, I have thought fit to deposit with the Carolina Office, who will deliver them on the payment of the cash price, and on no other terms. CHARLES McTAGUE. April 7, 1849. 6m.

DR. H. H. SHERWOOD'S Compound Chloride of Gold, FOR SCROFULOUS DISEASES. These remarkable medical remedies of the late eminent and well known Dr. Sherwood of New York, consisting of a preparation of magnetized CHLORIDE OF GOLD, compounded with various other materials with great care and by a laborious process, and of a BITUMINOUS PLASTER, have been tested by an extensive practice of twenty-five years' continuance, and may now be considered as more successful than any other known remedy in the treatment of CONSUMPTION in all its early stages, and of all Tuberculous or Scrofulous Diseases. For this class of complaints they are now extensively adopted by physicians in their own practice in various parts of the country. They are prepared by us under the direction of the Executive of the estate of the late Dr. Sherwood, to whom, by his will, his medical recipes are intrusted in the same manner as in all respects as heretofore, and are always accompanied by Dr. Sherwood's valuable medical treatise upon the treatment of Chronic Diseases, a work which was the result of many years of labor and research, and which shows in the clearest manner, the principles upon which the operation of his remedies is founded, and their mode of cure. This will enable any person to detect the nature and extent of scrofulous or tuberculous disease in himself or others, by pressure on the ganglions of the spinal axis, and the spots between the vertebrae along each side of the spine. H. H. SHERWOOD'S Successors, No. 192 Chamber St., New York. Our Agent in Fayetteville, N. C., is CHARLES McTAGUE. April 7, 1849. 6m

ELECTIONS. INDIANA.—The democrats have elected their Governor and Lt. Gov., and a large majority of the Legislature. So far as heard from, the democrats have gained one member of Congress. KENTUCKY.—The democrats gained two members of Congress and lost one. The Legislature is whig. The emancipationists did not elect a single member to the Convention to alter the Constitution. About 50 whigs and 30 democrats, elected to the Convention. THE CHOLERA is on the decrease in some places, and on the increase in others.

Telegraphed for Charleston Courier. NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9. Twelve hundred bales Cotton have been sold since the reception of the Cambria's accounts, at higher prices. Middling is quoted at 9 3/4; fair at 11 cents. Our city continues very healthy. The interments of the week were 60—one of cholera, none of yellow fever. A destructive overflow has taken place in Red River, which is still rising. It is feared that the cotton in the valleys will be a total loss. The steam ship Alabama has been chartered by government to carry troops from Pascagoula and Pensacola to Tampa Bay. Texas papers say that the late rains have damaged the cotton crops immensely, and that they will not average half a crop throughout that country.

Later From Europe. The steamer America, Capt. Harrison, arrived at Halifax yesterday, at 2 o'clock p. m., with one week's later intelligence from Europe, bringing fifty-three through passengers, Paris dates to the 26th, and London to the 21st ultimo. The accounts from the manufacturing districts are altogether satisfactory. In cotton and woolen goods a fair business is going forward. Produce.—A moderate business has been done in produce at full prices. Cotton market.—The official cotton quotations of the brokers for the last week are still quoted, but not altogether obtainable. Fair Upland 5 1/4; fair Mobile 5 1/4; fair Orleans, 5 1/4; middling qualities, 4 1/4. Flour.—Western canal, 2 1/2 a 2 1/2 1/2; Philadelphia, 2 1/2 a 2 1/2; Baltimore, 2 1/2 a 2 1/2; Ohio 2 1/2 a 2 1/2. Wheat.—United States red, white and mixed, 80 a 75. Indian corn in less request at 29 a 30s. per quarter for white, and 28 a 30s. for yellow. Indian meal 15s. a 15s. 6d.

FROM THE CONTINENT. We have accounts from Vienna to the 21st of June, which are confused and contradictory. It is admitted, however, that Jeniacko, the Ban of Croatia, has been completely defeated by the Magyars under Bem, who, it appears, crossed the Trousse canal at the head of 30,000 men and took the encampment of the Croats by storm. After a series of conflicts, which lasted four days, they compelled the Imperialists to raise the siege of Peterwarden and evacuate the Banat. The insurrection in the south of Hungary is complete, being announced in a bulletin published at Kinn-Bashewich, at Zeitung on the Wiener. We have the version of a sharp action that took place near Waitzen, between Georger and the Austrian Generals Sass and Komberg. The Bulletin says that on the 15th the Hungarian army marched upon Waitzen, then occupied by the Russians, who, according to others, fell back as the enemy advanced. At night Georger occupied a strong position before Waitzen. His army, estimated at 44,000 men, with 120 pieces of artillery, was attacked the next morning by the advanced guards under Sass, but the artillery of the Hungarians failed every attempt to dislodge them. The cannonading on both sides was severe. The Hungarian cavalry executed a number of vain charges on the 17th they attacked Waitzen, and on the 17th they attacked Waitzen, and notwithstanding a desperate resistance, the Hungarians, were compelled to evacuate the town with the loss of two standards, two cannon, and 500 prisoners. In the course of the pursuit, it was found that only the rear guard of the Hungarians had been engaged, their main army having marched to the north. Gen. Komberg with cavalry was despatched in pursuit.

Melancholy fate of an Aeronaut.—Considerable anxiety has prevailed in the vicinity of Cardiff and Swansea, throughout the week, regarding the fate of an aeronaut named Green. (not Mr Charles Green of Vauxhall celebrity) who, it is feared, perished by falling into the sea in his ascent in a balloon from Cardiff on Monday last. The balloon was the property of Mr Wadman of Bristol, who had been announced to make the ascent, but through illness was prevented. Mr Green undertook the trip, and at took his departure from terra firma about 6 o'clock in the evening. His course on leaving the earth was over the town in the direction of Penarth, Mr Green liberating a parachute with a car attached to it as he passed over. The next morning about 5 o'clock, the balloon was discovered at Wadmore in Somersetshire, lying on the ground, about three parts filled with gas and not at all injured. No one was with it, but in the car a coat, neck tie, pair of boots, and a pocket handkerchief were found. Inquiries have been made along that part of the coast after Mr Green, but not the least intelligence can be elicited of his fate. At dusk on Monday evening, the coast guard perceived a balloon crossing the Severn in the direction of Cardiff. It was close to the sea when discovered, and one party saw it dragging through the sea, and suddenly ascend to a great altitude. This led to a supposition that Mr Green abandoned it to save himself by swimming, but perished in the effort. His body was found in the channel.

When Baron de Steuben was at the head of his division at Yorktown, waiting for the striking of the British flag, he perceived himself in danger from a shell thrown by the enemy, and suddenly threw himself into the trench. Gen. Wayne, in the jeopardy and hurry of the moment, fell upon him. The Baron turning his eyes, saw it was his Brigadier. "Always know you were brave, General," said he; "but I did not know you were so perfect in every respect of duty. You cover your General's retreat in the best manner possible."

ENGLAND. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at London tavern to express public opinion in regard to the efforts being made by the Hungarians for independence, and to urge upon the British ministry a recognition of the de facto government of Hungary. It is mentioned as a significant fact that a Quaker moved the first resolution, which proves that the efforts of Hungary are fully appreciated and understood, when they thus overcome the scruples of members of the Peace Society, who in their speeches, instead of using expressions of sympathy, boldly propose to aid Hungary by taking up arms against Austria. The meeting became highly excited, and rose as one man and shouted for war. The petition adopted by the meeting was laid before Parliament and elicited an interesting debate upon Hungarian affairs.

ITALY. It is announced that the troops who recently received orders to embark for Italy, and were recalled after the account of the surrender of Rome, are to be embarked for their original destination. Rome is under the military rule of General Oudinot, and order and tranquility prevail. All public acts are rendered in the name of the Pope. He continues living in Gaeta, but beyond the fact that he will remain there until after the accouchement of the Queen of Naples, nothing seems to be known. It is said he will afterwards proceed to Rome, fully clothed with both temporal and spiritual authority, and that the priesthood around him, having learned nothing from past misfortunes, resolutely refuse concessions to the popular party. Nothing is said as to how the French army is to be paid, but it is reported that Russia has agreed to lend his Holiness two millions without interest, the principal to be paid at the rate of half a million annually.

The American consul, at the latest advices, had not resumed his authority. When the French soldiers attacked his office he withdrew after protesting against the indignity. Garibaldi was at Orvieto on the 17th. He had levied a tribute of two thousand pounds on the inhabitants; after which he took up a position in the neighborhood. Finally the people are collecting from different parts of the country and forming armed bands, intending to join Garibaldi. The state of affairs in Ireland remains about the same as at the last advices.
