DR. SHERWOOD'S Vibrating Magnetic Machines.

By recent improvements in these Machines, their power is doubled in cases of the same size, and the prices reduced to $12 and $14 each; the $12 sizes being greatly superior to the $12 sizes of other machines. They now run with more power and smoothness, and are better adapted for magnetizing patients than any other in use. Each case is accompanied with a Manual (11th edition, p. 400, 32 mo.) in the English or French language, according to order, which contains clear and minute directions for the proper use of the instrument in the various diseases to which it is applicable, which are found to include many of the most peculiar and obstinate that are known to the medical profession. The Manual also contains a synopsis of the different systems of medical practice, Allopathic, Homoeopathic, and Magnesian, with a full glossary.
Physicians and others are cautioned against purchasing the imitations of these machines, as they will be found of comparatively little value. No premium has ever been obtained over these magnetic machines at the American or any other Institute, as is represented by the manufacturers of inferior machines.

NOTICE.
DR. H. H. SHERWOOD having deceased on the 15th of September last, his medical practice is continued by us in accordance with his testamentary instructions under the direction of A. S. BALL, M. D. We also continue the publication of the valuable works of Dr. Sherwood, and the preparation of his well known Magnetized Remedies of Compound Chloride of Gold for the cure of all Tuberculous or Scrofulous Diseases. These remedies have now been many years in extensive use, and are a specific for those chronic and similitic organs and limbs which are invariably distinguished by pain produced by pressure on the intervertebral spaces along each side of the spinal column, no matter what name may be given to the malady by physicians.

We have in our possession, subject to the examination of any who may call upon us, numerous letters from patients in various parts of the country, and from many physicians who have long used these remedies in their practice, which fully establish their remarkable success in the cure of Scrofula in its worst forms, Consumption, Chronic Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and other chronic diseases.

The Treatise of Dr. Sherwood upon chronic Diseases, explains fully the nature and effects of these remedies, and will be sent by us without charge to any persons desirous of information upon these points, in any part of the country.
DR. SHERWOOD'S MAGNETIC MACHINES, which have long had an established reputation as superior to any others in medical use for power and simplicity combined, are also manufactured by us, as hitherto, and can be sent by express or otherwise to any place in the United States, or to other parts of the World.

Physicians and Agents can be supplied both with the machines and remedies upon the same terms as were customary with Dr. SHERWOOD. All orders and letters for medical advice, should be addressed to Advance in the price of Cotton—defeat of the Hungarians—Unconditional surrender to the Russian forces—Dissolution of the Hungarian Diet—End of the war—Large reward offered for Kossuth, dead or alive.

Telegraph Office, St. John, N. B., Wednesday evening, Sept. 5.
The steamship Niagara, Capt. Lang, arrived at Halifax this morning at 6 o'clock, bringing 113 passengers, and Paris intelligence of the 23d, London of the 24th, and Liverpool of the 25th.

The official record shows a continued increase of mortality arising from the general prevalence of the cholera in England.

DEFEAT OF THE HUNGARIANS.
The intelligence from the seat of war in Hungary is of the most disastrous kind. The Hungarians have been defeated at all points, and the cause which they so courageously upheld against fearful odds, had fallen past redemption.

The precise details of the circumstances which led to this unfortunate and unexpected result cannot be ascertained from any accounts within our reach. Part of the Malin facts are that the Hungarians have been forced to lay down their arms and submit unconditionally to the Russian forces.

There is no reason whatever to doubt the operations of the Hungarians under Bem just preceding the termination of the struggle. They are given in an intelligible form, and would seem, from the accounts before us, to have had an important influence in bringing about the submission of the Hungarians.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times, under date of Aug. 15, says: "An official report of the 8th, from Col. Dossler, who is at Hermanstadt, gives the particulars of what has taken place in the southwest of Transylvania since the 4th, on which date Gen. Luders was at Galgafy. After Bem's defeat, on the 31st ult, at Scherrberg, he proceeded towards Medegys, which he reached on the 3d, with a force of 8,000 men and 17 guns; having been joined at this place by an auxiliary corps from Clarenburg, consisting of 4,000 foot, 800 horse, and 12 guns, he proceeded towards Hermanstadt. Gen. Hassford, who had been left with six battalions, eight guns, and 350 Cossacks, to protect Hermanstadt, had gone to Reissenack and Lullenhack, where he gained a victory over the insurgent General Steinall. This having been made known to Gen. Luders by his scouts, he foresaw that Bem would fall upon Hassford, probably drive him into Wallachia, and then take possession of Hermanstadt. Nothing remained to be done but to pursue Bem with all speed. Before, however, Luders could overtake him, he learned that Hassford had actually been attacked, driven from his position, and after a murderous battle in the streets of Hermanstadt, in which he had many killed and wounded, had been obliged to retreat to Talmacs.

On the 5th, at 10 a. m., Gen. Luders' army stood before Hermanstadt, six battalions of the enemy, 500 horse and 18 guns, occupying the neighboring heights. A considerable force had been left in the city, and the remainder of the army had gone in pursuit of Hassford.

A battle ensued which ended in the complete route of the Maygars. The Russian cavalry put such of the fugitives as attempted to resist to the sword.

The enemy, who lost 1200 prisoners and 14 guns in this battle, had 600 killed and 500 wounded.

The troops which had followed Hassford, made the best of their way after their routed comrades. The Russians, including the loss suffered by Gen. Hassford, on the 5th, had 36 killed and wounded.

The battles of Scherrberg and Hermanstadt produced a most dispiriting effect among the insurgents. Many threw away their arms and sought refuge in the woods, while others came over to the victors.

The Vienna accounts, by way of Warsaw, of Aug. 16, state that the Hungarian Diet, having surrendered its powers to Georgey, had dissolved itself.

A meeting, including Kossuth, Georgey and Bem, subsequently took place at or near Arad, at which it was determined as useless. Georgey, addressing the council of war, protested that he had no hopes for the cause of Hungary; that his resistance was in vain, and that nothing but utter ruin would attend the prolongation of the struggle.

Georgey's remaining, induced a number of the Hungarian Generals to side with him on surrendering not only Georgey's corps, but also part of the besieging army at Temeswar, numbering in all from 30,000 to 40,000 men that stood by Georgey. The war party, headed by Bem, Kossuth, and the leading members of the Hungarian Parliament, had nothing left but to hasten to Osora. It is stated that they have already entered upon Turkish territory, and it is also stated that M. Kossuth carried with him the insignia of the Hungarian empire, including the State jewels.

Georgey surrendered to Prince Paskiewitch under the one condition, if condition it can be called, that the Prince should intercede with the Austrian emperor for himself, his troops, and his country.

It is asserted that Georgey's desperate resolution was prompted by the mutinous conduct of the hussars.

A Vienna letter in the Deutsche Rebore states the number of troops that surrendered with Georgey to have been 27,000 men, with 60 guns. It was thought that Gen. Klapka, too, would now be induced to surrender, Comorn especially, as the city of Raab was, on the 15th instant, occupied by the imperialists, who have likewise dispatched a corps to the valley of the Wady.

From a Vienna letter of the 17th in the Kolner Zeitung, it appears that M. Kossuth intends to hold out till the last. He has published a proclamation announcing the translation of his government from Arad to Orcherza, where he is now protected by the Hungarian army from the Baisk.

The Russian papers publish the following letter from Prince Paskiewitch to his Majesty the Czar:

"Hungary is at the feet of your Imperial Majesty. The government of the insurgents have transmitted their power to Georgey—the chief of the army of the insurgents makes an unconditional surrender to the Russian army. His example will be followed by the other insurgent corps. The officers whom he sent to capitulate offered to proceed with or without Austrian commissioners to the corps to induce them to surrender.

I have the fortune to inform your imperial majesty that Georgey's only condition to his surrender was to be allowed to lay down his arms to your majesty's army. I have made arrangements for the insurgents to be dispersed by Gen. Rudizul's corps respecting the extradition of the prisoners. I am in communication with the command of the Austrian army. As for Georgey, I keep him at your imperial majesty's disposal."

It was rumored that the Emperor of Russia had set a price of 60,000 roubles on Kossuth's head, dead or alive.

It is reported by some of the ardent friends of Hungary that Georgey has proven himself a traitor, and has yielded to the golden arguments of the Russians.

Kossuth's wife and family, it is said, had fallen into the hands of the imperialist troops.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.
In every department of trade there has been a steady business going forward, and the commercial advices generally by the steamer are essentially the same as those brought by the Caledonia.

Prices of cotton are still advancing, and large sales are readily effected.

Accounts from the manufacturing districts continue of a satisfactory character, all branches of trade appearing to be fully employed.

Under the favorable influence of the weather, the harvest operations, and the increasing probability that the crops will be generally secured in good time, and that the harvest will be considerably above the average for several years past, the grain trade has continued dull, and prices have a downward tendency.

The potato disease is beginning to show itself. In cured provisions there has been but a very moderate amount of business transacted, and the value of most descriptions has slightly receded.

Metal continues to meet an improved demand, and prices are tending upwards.

THE MARKETS.
Liverpool, August 25.—COTTON.—The sales for the week have reached 67,000 bales, of which speculators took 33,000 bales, and exporters 6,500 bales. The tenor of the Europe's advices, and the satisfactory accounts from India, had the effect to carry up the prices of a penny per lb. for all descriptions.

Flour.—The transactions going forward in Liverpool and at all the principal foreign markets, are of a steady character, only the trade generally being exceedingly dull and heavy. Flour is again rather low, and parcels of good sound western canal are selling at 25s. 6d. and 2s. per bbl.; prime Baltimore and Ohio, 24s. 6d. a 25s., and unselected and heated, 18s. 6d. a 2s. per bbl. Corn is in steady demand at 25s. 6d. a 25s. 6d. per quarter, except unmixed prime white, which is scarce and selling at 25s. a 25s. 6d. The finest quality of wheat is steady as to price, but secondary sorts are easier to buy.

Problem for solution by the Octomvirate.
If her Catholic Majesty's (mis) government of Cuba requires the employment of one sloop-of-war, one steamer, Zachary Washington's special edict, and the vigilance of all the United States marshals, district attorneys, and other officials, to secure it from the attacks of the buffalo hunters on Round Island, how many regiments of artillery, "full-moon talks," and Indian sub-agents, will the securing of the four Indians, the removal of the Seminole generally, or their pacification, require, and how long, by the present plan of operations, will it be before the State of Florida is habitable for white men?

A solution of the above will oblige
BILLY PENN BOWLEGS.

ARTIFICIAL DIAMONDS.—A Lady at a supper given on a public occasion displayed in an ostentatious manner a profusion of artificial diamonds, which she had purchased at the shop of the well-known Dovey. She long teased a lady who sat next her with a great deal of impertinent conversation, and with obtrusive offers to help her to the dainties upon the table. "I shall I," said she, "send you a puff? I thank you, madam," said the other; "you had better take one yourself, as you seem to be very fond of past."
