SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED

Extract of a letter from Edward Bingham, Esq., Druggist, Detroit.
Detroit, March 23d, 1841.

Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your valued bottles of the INDIA CHOLAGOGE, prepared by you, and have found the same to be a most efficacious and universal remedy in the cure of Fever and Ague, Chill, Fever, Dumb Ague, &c. &c. I can say, I think, without hesitation, that I have never known it to fail in cases which have come under my own observation, where it has been faithfully used according to directions. DR. SHERWOOD'S Vibrating Magnetic Machines.

By recent improvements in these Machines, their power is doubled in cases of the same size, and the price reduced to $12 and $14 each; the $12 size being greatly superior to the $12 size of other machines. They now run with more power and smoothness, and are better adapted for magnetizing patients than any other in use. Each case is accompanied with a Manuel (11th edition, p. 400, 32 mo.) in the English or French language, according to order, which contains clear and minute directions for the proper use of the instrument in the various diseases to which it is applicable, which are found to include many of the most peculiar and obstinate that are known to the medical profession. The Manuel also contains a synopsis of the different systems of medical practice, Allopathic, Homoeopathic, and Mag-netopathic, with a full glossary.
Physicians and others are cautioned against purchasing the imitations of these machines, as they will be found of comparatively little value. No premium has ever been obtained over these magnetic machines at the American or any other Institute, as is represented by the manufacturers of inferior machines.

MORE ABOLITION DOCUMENTS.
We learn from the Pendleton Messenger, that on Friday, the 14th instant, thirty-eight documents, post marked Boston "signed Junius and addressed to the Hon. John C. Calhoun of a most malicious, offensive and insulting character to the southern people" were received at the Post Office at Pendleton C. H. Being directed to various persons.
One directed to Col. Wm. Sloan was delivered to him, by whom its contents were made public. The executive committee of the Committee of Vigilance and Safety, demanded of the Post Master the remaining documents, who, in the discharge of what he considered his duty, refused to deliver them to any one but those to whom they were directed. The matter was taken under consideration until next day, when the executive committee, having given the Post Master notice of their intention, entered his office and by force took possession of the offensive documents.
The committee of Vigilance and Safety and the citizens of the District have been called together, to meet on the 20th inst. to take the matter into consideration.
The Post master may indeed have acted according to his prescribed duty, in not delivering the documents, and the executive committee may have acted without the authority of Law, but it was not in accordance with Law that the tea was emptied into Boston Harbour. In times of trouble and difficulty, we must lose sight of the technicalities of law. The very establishment of committees of Safety, originated from the inefficiency of our laws properly to protect our rights; in short we are in the midst of Revolution. The acts of Congress, passed to protect the rights of the South, have been set at defiance and the plainest provisions of the constitution have been disregarded, in order to injure and insult us—and it would be recreant in us to be duped into submission, by useless quibbles about law. Until the Legislature can provide a remedy for existing evils, (arising from the abuse of the Post office) the people will provide one for themselves and take the consequences.

THE MARRIAGE COVENANT
In Olden Time.
The following is said to be a transcript of the marriage covenant, used by a clergyman of Boston, a century since. In delicate distinction made between the man and the woman, in their separate vows, and also with the peculiar solemnity attached to the promise by the phrasing of the fourth paragraph—
"You, the Bridegroom and the Bride, who now present yourselves Candidates of the Covenant of God and of your Marriage before him, in Token of your Consenting Affections and united Hearts, please to give your Hands to one another.
Mr. Bridegroom, the Person whom you now take by the Hand, you receive to be your married Wife; you promise to love her, to honor her, to support her, and in all things to treat her as you are now, or shall hereafter be convinced is by the Law of Christ made your Duty, a tender Husband, with unspotted Fidelity till Death shall separate you.
Mrs. Bride, the Person whom you now hold by the Hand, you accept to be your married Husband; you promise to love him, to honor him, to submit to him, and in all things treat him as you are now, or shall hereafter be convinced is by the Laws of Christ made your Duty, An affectionate Wife, with inviolable Loyalty till Death shall separate you.
This solemn Covenant you make, and in this sacred oath bind your soul in the presence of the Great God, and before these Witnesses.
I then declare you to be Husband and Wife regularly married according to the Laws of God and the King; therefore what God has thus joined together let no man put asunder."

CAUSE FOR THANKFULNESS—The following anecdote shows the perseverance and curiosity of some of the daughters of "Mother Eve." Besides one gentleman and two ladies, travelling in a stage coach in Vermont, there was a small, sharp-featured, black-eyed woman, who had questioned her companions to her satisfaction, and had nothing further to do, until the arrival of a lady deeply veiled, and dressed in mourning, who was no sooner in, and seated, than the little woman commenced her examination as follows, viz: "Have you lost friends?" "Yes, I have." "Was they near friends?" "Yes they was." "Was they relations?" "Yes they was." "How near?" "A husband and a brother." "What did they die with?" "Yellow Fever." "Was they long sick?" "Not very." "Was they sea-faring men?" "Yes they was." "Did you get their chests?" "Yes, I did." "Was they hopefully pious?" "I hope and trust they was." "Well if you got their chests, and they was hopefully pious, you have great reason to be thankful."

Vardell's second balloon ascension, feet foremost, ended in his getting a ducking in the North River, New York, from which he was rescued by a boat.

The population of Baltimore is estimated at 154,000.

The steamship America arrived at Halifax at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.
The Prince of Wales has been created Earl of Dublin.

There were 475 deaths by cholera in London on the 11th, and 365 on the 12th.
In Scotland there had been 159 deaths.

FRANCE.
A letter from Louis Napoleon to his friend Ney has been published in the Moniteur, and virtually acknowledged by the cabinet. It makes some talk in political circles, and the following is an extract:
"The French republic has not sent an army to Rome to put down Italian liberty, but on the contrary, to regulate it by preserving it against its own excesses, and to give it a solid basis, by replacing on the Pontifical throne the Prince who first had boldly taken the lead in all useful reforms. I learn with pain that the benevolent intentions of the Holy Father, as well as our own actions, remain sterile in presence of hostile passions and influences."
A council was held on the 15th, and General Rawdon attended by order, and being called into the room where the ministry were sitting, was formally informed that he was appointed to the command of the army of Italy. He then received his instructions, which amounted to this: That should the Pope not come to Rome, he is to carry out with vigor the line of conduct specified in the President's letter. General Rawdon started the same night for his new command. He is a cavalry officer, and has been a member of the Chamber of Deputies since 1847.

A telegraphic despatch reached Brest on the 6th, with orders for the ships Pantoira, Hunsard, Favert, Wert, and two others, to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to sea. Their destination was supposed to be Hayti.
The government has just decided that the French squadron on the Chinese seas should be composed of three ships of war.

ITALY.
Arrival of Garibaldi at Genoa.—A letter from Genoa announces the arrival of the celebrated Garibaldi in that city. He arrived in a fishing boat, accompanied by a single volunteer, at Fort Venero on the 5th instant; thence he proceeded to Chiavaro, through Spezia, where he was recognised by the people, and a considerable crowd assembled to greet him. The military intendant requested him not to create any disturbance, but to remain at Chiavaro until he should demand instructions from his government. A captain of the gendarmes was sent from the capital to escort Garibaldi to Genoa, where he is to remain until he can find an opportunity of quitting Italy.
Everything was quiet at Venice.
There is nothing certain from Gaeta except that the cardinal triumvirate refused to pay the dividends on the public debt due in June.
Nothing new from Rome.
A small revolution took place in Cephalonia, which amounted to nothing.
Letters from Gaeta of the 5th instant, mention that the crisis here is becoming more menacing, and a rupture more imminent.
It was considered probable that the Pope would, in the end, place himself under the Austrian flag.

THE POPE AT NAPLES.

Letters from Naples of the 4th, announce the arrival of the Pope in that city.
HUNGARY.
Comorn and Peterwardein still hold out.—There is nothing at all of the slightest importance from Hungary, except the fact that Comorn and Peterwardein had not yet surrendered. There is no news of Kusuth.
GERMANY.
All the northern States of Germany, except Aldenburgh, have acceded to the alliance proposed by Prussia, Saxony, and Hanover.
