THIRTY-FIRST CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 26.

In the Senate, Mr Clemens presented a petition praying that the blessings of slavery might be extended over the whole Un-

Mr Foote moved to take up the bill reported vesterday by the committee on Territories, providing Territorial Governments for Utah and New Mexico, for the purpose of making it the special order of the day for Friday next.

Mr Benton objected to the motion, and gave notice that the friends of California had been wronged, and should be admitted into the Union at once. He was in favor of admitting her instantly, and would allow no business to take priority of the bill for her admission. Mr Foote said he felt glad Mr Benton had entered the lists; welcome him heartily; said that Senator's sudden enthusiasm could be easily accounted for; thought his but begged to remind him that he could not | tions over-awe anybody by blustering. If California had suffered for the want of a Government, whose fault was it? The Senator from Missouri, said Mr F., has opposed every measure proposed in that body for the relief of the people of California, and he did not think the people of that new State thanked the Senator over much for he would like to know who her enemies were? It would be a calumny to charge any Senator on that floor with being hosment of this people, encountered that Senator's opposition. But he is now the ardent and uncompromising friend of Califor- brothel. nia!-And why? Because the people of California was to be admitted this session, myself. he conceived to be a well ascertained fact.

friends of California, those Senators who could be. He was in the habit of writing were prepared to vote at once for her ad- out speeches from the reporter's notes. mission into the Union, without remanding | The Senator had always followed the same her back to a territorial condition, and who practice. Yesterday, in a stormy debate, were at the same time opposed to a dissolu- the reporters could not catch every word. believed personaities and imputations upon | changes of words. decorum. He knew that the attack made from S. Carolina. It was stated to me were densely crowded, and hundreds were un-

for the admission of California was false and cowardlythe introduction of personalities; he had reporter's notes. tor speaks for itself. When he (Mr Ben- ter can be settled. ton) cleansed the dark stains now resting upon his character-when he explained dropped. why his knees trembled, his cheeks paled and his frame shivered, when a disclosure was made of a damning deed perpetrated by him-when he cleared off all this, and the Wilmot Proviso. announced himself ready to meet the res-

Mr Benton said it was playing the part of a coward to give insults in a place where they could not be chastized; it was coward- vestigate the charges against the Hon. ly to use language in a place where the Speaker Cobb, to sit during the sitting of blackguard who used it could not be the House. promptly punished! Had it come to this, said Mr B., that a man could use language in the Senate of the United States which would disgrace an oyster cellar or a roadblackguard who used it, to a cudgelling ject. out of the premises? Was the Senate of place where vulgarity and insolence were hour. to be protected?

Mr Dickson moved to lay the motion of floor and spoke an hour. Mr Foote upon the table-which was agreed to.

Mr Chase then took the floor and spoke a motion for the adjournment.

In the House, Mr Preston King charged that the journals of the House had been mutilated by the direction of the Speaker of the House, by substituting a different into his conduct. A long discussion followed. The subject was finally disposed of, however, by referring it to a select committee of nine, appointed by Mr Winthrop -The following gentlemen constitute the committee, viz: Boyd, Ashmun. Doty, Stephens, Strong, tian world. Gentry, and Richardson.

of the whole and took up the President's prevailed, 29 to 16. California Message.

the immediate admission of California.

WEDNESDAY, March 27. In the Senate, after petitions, Mr Ben- appropriated for pensions $560,000. ton rose and asked to be excused from altercation between him and the Senator journed. from Mississippi, (Mr Foote). His own remarks were correct - the remarks of the Senator incorrect. The report of the Senator was a lying report—a fie from beginhis friendship. That Senator, said Mr F., alter words used in personal altercations. calls on the friends of California! Now | The reporters brought their notes to him, and he refused to look at them.

The allegation of the Senator that he (Mr B.) had openly disavowed obligations tile to California. Two years ago, as well to the laws of honor, was utterly false. as at the last session, the Senator from He made no such disavowal. If the Sen-Missouri opposed every measure calculated ator chose, he would bring that matter to to afford protection to the people of Cali- a test. He would like to know how long fornia. Wholesome laws for the Govern- language was to be tolerated here that was worse than the vocabulary of the Fivetor's friendship for California had a strong it may. Here is the newspaper report of up. The House then adjourned. personal caste. Mr F. then pointed out the Senator's speech. I brand it with the advantages likely to follow the settle- falsehood, and I will prove the falsehood ment of the Territorial questions first. any where, at any time. A newspaper | The Senate met, and Mr Butler of S. C., pro-

Let us, then, said Mr F., pass upon the fend himself from this indecent attack, funeral, adjourned. territorial bill first : as soon as the ques- which was made on a newspaper. He tions in controversy embraced in that bill courted no hostility. He was a plain man, had been disposed of, all parties could vote and spoke plainly. This report—the same Mr Winthrop of Mass.. and Mr Venable of N. C. in both papers - was said to be false. The Mr Benton said he considered as the reporters were as accurate as reporters tion of the Union in consequence of her There were chasms in the notes presented admission. He said he believed he was in to him. He admitted that there might be the American Senate, where he also be- some slight difference-some omissions or motives were prohibited by the rules gov- He had alluded yesterday to an affair of the galleries and every other portion of the erning the Senate, as well as by laws of honor between the Senator and a Senator | Chamber to which visitors could obtain access, mitted it-and therefore left out that mat- 10 o'clock, the members of the House of Repre-

commenced it, by imputing to him (Mr F.) His remarks were as brief, as spoken, as unworthy and grossly erroneous motives they were written. If any thing past was for making the motion he had made. The omitted, he now repeated it. He was Senator from Missouri had insinuated that | done with the quarrel here. He had said the enemies of California were at work, and all that he wished to say. He had spoken it is therefore become necessary that he - his sentiments of the Senator very oftenthe Casar, the Napoleon, the Jupiter Ton- and once in a published letter. What ans-should take up arms in her defence. could be do more. He was willing, as he Why had the Senator made a violent at- said yesterday, to call the Senator to protack upon his (Mr F.'s) motives? He per punishment, if he made no claim to said he would not apply the term "coward- any priviledge. He wished to know ly" to the Senator, though that honorable whether the Senator considered himself gentleman had thought proper to use it in responsible to the law of honor. I own connexion with his course; he would myself so responsible. If he is, let him let the early history of the honorable Sena- avow it, and at a proper time, &c., the mat-

Mr Benton sneered, and so the matter

The California message was taken up. and Mr Chase concluded his speech in faponsibility as an honorable man, then he postponed till one o'clock to-morrow.

should hear from him (M. F.) At present, said Mr F., the Senator from Missouri for a few minutes and adjourned.

stands shielded by his established coward-In the House, Mr Winthrop took the Chair and called the House to order. On motion by Mr. Holmes, leave was granted to the committee appointed to in-

The House resolved itself into committee of the whole on the state of the Union, (Mr Boyd in the chair) and resumed the consideration of the bill to admit Califorside tavern? and which, if used in either nia as a State into the Union, and the speof the latter places, would subject the cial message of the President upon the sub-the United States, asked Mr B. to be a floor, addressed the committee for an bers and character, and displayed at its

The committee then rose, when

THURSDAY, March 28.

The Speaker vacated the chair, (which | Mr Clay's resolution, offered early in the ses- | manifest itself at the North.

was temporarily occupied by Mr Win- | sion, the object of which is to dispense with all | throp at the request of the Speaker,) and ceremonies, such as adjourning for a day, weermade a statement fully justifying the course ing crape, and erecting a tombstone in the conadopted in relation to Mr Preston King's gressional ground, in honor of a member of Conresolution. He challenged investigation gress who dies when Congress is not in session, was taken up and passed.

the Senate at length on the old subject.

over till Monday, as to-morrow was Good Friday, swarthy countenance-prominent features Messrs. Holmes, (Chairman,) Vinton, a day celebrated by a large portion of the chris-

Mr Foote objected, because there was impor-The House then went into Committee tant business to be transacted; but the motion

In the House, a number of private bills, or Mr Harris, of Illinois, spoke in favor of claims against the government, were under consideration, but very few acted on. Mr Bayly Mr Ashmun obtained the floor, when the called the attention of the House to the fact that committee rose and the House adjourned. the expenditures of the government, under the head of pensions, were getting to be enormous in amount. Last year they exceeded the amount

The old question of slavery was then resumed, designs too palpable to be misconceived; serving on the committee of foreign rela- in committee of the whole, and Mr Averett, de mocrat of Virginia, blew off his steam on the Mr Benton called attention to the re- subject. Mr Chandler, whig, of Philadelphia, port, in the National Intelligencer, of the followed on the opposite side, and the House ad-

FRIDAY, March 29.

The Senate did not sit to-day. In the House, Mr McLane moved that, this ing to end .- It was not perliamentary to being Good Friday, the House adjourn. Not agreed to. A number of other motions, to the same effect, were made at intervals, without be-

Mr Preston King having some days previously charged the Speaker with mutilating the Journal altering one of his resolutions, a committee had been appointed to investigate the matter, and that committee now reported.

The charge of Mr King was that he had made a motion to close the debate on the "California bill," but that the Speaker had ordered those Points-language that would disgrace a two words to be erased, and the word "message" substituted. The committee reported that there I claim no privilege, sall Mr B. of in- was a misunderstanding on the part of both the California have sent a certain person here sulting any one. I never have done it. I Speaker and Mr King in regard to the motion as Senator, whom the Senator from Mis- bear with insult a long time. But if I and that the Speaker did right in doing what he souri wanted to see on that floor, and who, notice it at all, one party or the other shall did do. This report was received unanimously. that Senator had every reason to believe, not stay here. If the Senate will not pro- The whole affair, like the man (Preston King) would aid and support him. The Sena- tect me I will protect myself-cost what that started it, was not worth powder to blow it

MONBAY, April 1.

He regarded the Territorial Bill as cover- cant call me to order. I brand this report nounced the Eulogy upon Mr Calhoun. He was ing the whole ground in dispute. That as a falsehood. Henceforth I will protect followed in similar remarks by Messrs Webster, Clay, Rusk and Clemens, and the Senate, after Mr Foote said he must be allowed to de- appointing a committee to superintend the

In the House, the eulogy was pronounced by Hon. Isaac E. Holmes of Charleston, followed by after which, the usual resolutions of sympathy. to wear crape, attend the funeral, &c., were passed, and the House adjourned.

> Telegraphed for Charleston Mercury. OBSEQUIES OF MR CALHOUN.

Tuesday, April 2. In Congress the day was devoted to the funeral bsequies of Mr Calhoun. The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock, but long before that hour upon his motives and his course to-day, that it was an improper allusion and I ad- able to obtain admission. At ten minutes past Mr Foote interrupted the Senator from ter. One other very harsh remark I made, sentatives, preceded by their officers, entered Missouri by remarking, that that Senator on some stories resting on the Senator's the Senate chamber, and took the seats assigned proved himself inconsistent in lecturing character in early life-and that I omit- to them. The Judges of the Supreme Court, and upon rules of decorum, and deprecating ted. But, if insisted on, I can give the the President and his Cabinet soon afterwards entered, those in the chamber rising to receive them. The President was conducted to a seat on the right of the Vice President. The Diplomatic corps, which was largely represented, occupied seats near the centre of the Chamber. A large number of the officers of the Army and Navy, and other distinguished men, occupied the sofas in the lobbies. At 20 minutes after 12 the coffin containing the remains of the deceased was brought into the chamber, in charge of the committee of arrangements, and followed by the relatives, the South Carolina delegation in the House of Representatives, and Messrs. James Gadsden, Thomas Gadsden, John Russell, E. C. vention, to our Senators and Representa-Jones, William Patton, John E. Carew, Edwin de Leon, E. B. White, Lewis Griffin, C. J. Kershaw, and Midshipman Whaley, as mourners. The corpse was placed immediately in front of the Vice President, and after the performance of the Episcopal funeral service the Rev. C. M. vor of the admission of California and of Butler, the Chaplain of the Senate, preached the Charleston papers, that at the annual fair funeral sermon, having taken his text from the to be held in November next, in Charles-Mr Foot's resolution was taken up, and 7th verse of the 57th Psalm. The procession was then formed-Senators Mangum, Clay, Web-The Senate went into Executive session ster, Cass, King and Berrien officiating as pallbearers. There were upwards of two hundred carriages in the line of the procession, which moved to the Congressional Burial Ground, where the remains were deposited to await their removal to South Carolina.

The public offices were all closed, and draped in mourning, and every mark of respect was shown to the memory of the illustrious deceased

From the Jacksonville (Florida) Republican.

SOUTHERN CONVENTION MEETING. The proceedings of the meeting held here on the 23d ult., in favor of the Nashville Convention, are before the read-Mr Ashmun, who was entitled to the er. The meeting was respectable in num- bama presented a petition of citizens re-Mr Ashmun, who was entitled to the or, addressed the committee for an our.

The meeting was respectable in numbers and character, and displayed at its close a degree of enthusiasm in favor of that the blessings of slavery may be extended, and setting forth that slavery, as that they will give the following was respectable in numbers and character, and displayed at its siding in the slaveholding States, asking that the blessings of slavery may be extended, and setting forth that slavery, as the contractors on the Cape bear and DeepiRiver Improvement, wish to employ from 60 to 80 good Carpenters, to work at Smilly's Falls, for that the blessings of slavery may be extended, and setting forth that slavery, as the contractors on the Cape bear and DeepiRiver Improvement, wish to employ from 60 to 80 good Carpenters, to work at Smilly's Falls, for day for good Mechanics; for ordinary do. 51 per day; with the object. The question of the present that they will remain during the season. propriety of the convention, however, was it now exists, is of Divine origin; that its contested in a debate, which occupied the existence is coeval with the existence of The Speaker laid before the House a whole afternoon. The discussion was society; that it has been established by message from the President of the United ably conducted, by Col. S. Spencer. J. God himself, and sustained and promulgat-Mr Chase then took the floor and spoke till 4 o'clock against the institution of slavery, and in favor of the powers of Congress over the subject in the District of Columbia, as well as in the Territories.—He lumbia, as well as in the Terri also a motion to print 20,000 copies extra one sentiment in the debate as to the juswas referred to the committee on printing. tice of demanding of the North a compliance with the stipulations of the Constitu- town, Captain Halderman, passed General tion, and a concession of equal rights un- Z. Taylor's plantation, on the Mississippi resolution for one offered by himself, to close the debate on the California message of the President of the United States and the bill for the admission of the admission of the printing for Congress, but no action to the Senate, after the presentation of the printing for Congress, but no action to the Mississippi and fears are entered by substituting a different of the Mississippi and the Mississippi and fears are entered by substituting a different of the Mississippi and the Mississippi and fears are entered by substituting a different of the Mississippi and fears and single barrel Guns; Pistols: Percussion Caps; Powder and single barrel Guns; Pistols: Percussion Caps of the President of the United States and plishing the printing for Congress, but no action spuken by the Southern State Legislatures, tertained of the total ruin of numerous and a more conciliatory spirit begins to plantations, and of course the bankruptcy

HON. A. W. VENABLE. The Washington Correspondent of the Columbia (S. C.) Telegraph draws this life-like picture of the distinguished Representative of the Orange Dirtrict : "Mr Venable is an impressive and earn--dark hair and eyes-and impetuous and somewhat adrupt manner-and impatience under every exhibition of cant, shuffling or subterfuge - which he heartily Wrapper. For sale in Fayetteville, by S. J. HINSDALE. detests-from the outward characteristics of Abram Venable-of whom his District may well be proud, as, representing the true manhood of that section in his own

He is addicted to wearing a blue coat with brass buttons, and carrying a silver headed cane of North Carolina hickoryquite a substantial one-which are the two most striking of his outward peculiariies. His internal habit of independence is even yet more singular here-yet it sits very naturally upon him. A more reliable man than Mr Venable at this period, or one more in earnest, the whole South cannot furnish-and he brings to the support of his intentions the capacity both of spirit and intellect to make it thoroughly available. - Raleigh Standard.

From the Charleston Mercury. MOULTRIE HOUSE—SULLIVAN'S ISLAND.

This extensive establishment is now rapidly progressing towards completion, and will be ready for occupancy on the 15th of May next. It is of the Italian order of architecture, the main building three stories high, 85 by 50 feet; the wings two stories high, 85 by 100 feet. The entire building is surrounded by a double piazza, 14 feet wide, making a grand promenade of 884 feet in extent. The front, on the beach, including piazzas, measures 284 feet, and the wings extend on either side 114 feet deep. The house contains on the first floor, a Dining Room, 58 by 80 feet, a Ladies' Parlor, 20 by 32 feet; two Reception Rooms, each 25 by 32 feet; four Private Parlors, 15 by 17; the whole of which can be thrown open by means of sliding doors, so as to make a Ball Room 170 feet in length. On the second story are four Parlors, connected by folding doors, and in front is a Promenade for Ladies, 112 by 15 feet. There are 90 Chambers 12 by 15 feet, and the Galleries, above and below, leading to the Sleeping Rooms, are 10 feet wide, connected with the house, on the West wing, is a Bathing House, 40 by 54 feet; latticed in on all sides, and made light and airy. The basin is of concrete, and will contain five feet water. which is supplied by a pump worked by a windmill. The basin will contain several private baths, 4 by 6 feet. On the North wing is a building running back 115 by 21 feet, two stories high, containing the Kitchen, Bar Room, Billiard Room and Ten Pin Alley. On the West, in rear of the Bathing House, will be the Stables, 35 by 75 at our warehouse feet. The grounds will be handsomely laid out, and irrigated by jets d'eau.

NAG'S HEAD CONVENTION : - A Conven tion, composed of Delegates from the Counties interested in the opening an Inlet at or near Nag's Head, assembled in the town of Plymouth, Washington, on the 14th ult. The convention was numerously and ably attended-Delegates being presented from the Counties of Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, Camden, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Tyrrell, Washington and Carteret.

Committees were appointed to have such documents printed and distributed, and to collect such information, as they may deem proper, in furtherance of the great work of re opening the inlet. A Committee, consisting of one from each county, was also appointed to proceed to the seat of Government and deliver a Memorial, prepared by another Committee of the Contives in Congress, and to call upon them to use every effort to enforce the same.

South Carolina Institute .- The committee on Premiums of the South Carolina Institute have given notice, through the ton, premiums will be awarded for the following articles, among others enum-

For the best tierce of Rice. For the best leaf Tobacco, not less than 100 lbs. For the best barrel of Wheat Flour. For the best tierce of Indian Corn.

For the best barrel Spirits of Turpentine. For the best barrel of Rosin. It is the intention of the Institute, say the Committee, with the consent of the persons sending the above articles, to forward such as receive premiums to the " World's Fair," to be held in the city of London in the early part of the year 1851. GOOD FOR CLEMENS!-In the Senate, on the 26th ultimo; Mr Clemens of Ala-

GEN. TAYLOR'S PLANTATION SUBMERG-ED .- The Cincinnati Commercial of the 14th states that when the steamer Yorkof the owners.

would have been inflicted on that, and not upon the peo-ple. We think the fault is in the people, and that if the people would keep the skins of themselves and their chil-dren properly washed, and abstain from gluttony, poison, and idleness for a generation or two, Consumption would

However, consumption prevails as matters are, & picks A very proper resolution, we think.

A very proper resolution, we think.

Mr Baldwin of Connecticut, then addressed the Senate at length on the old subject.

Mr Badger then moved that the Senate adjourn over till Monday, as to-morrow was Good Friday, over till Monday, as to-morrow was Good Friday, over till Monday, as to-morrow was Good Friday, over till Monday as to-morrow was Good Friday that the Senate adjourn to the control of this model in the state of the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of things we must do the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of things we must do the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of things we must do the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of things we must do the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of things we must do the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of the wed of life, with journey and voyages and match out the wed of life, with journey and voyages and match out the wed of life, with journey and voyages and will the wed of life, with journey and voyages and well the wed of life, with journey and voyages and method of the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of the wed of life, with journey and voyages and method of the best and prettiest of us. in our prime in this state of the wed of life, with journey and voyages and well as the wed of life, with j manity, and undoubtedly prepared the remedy in its best form, and the public may rely upon Mr Fowle for the gen-uine article.—Boston Daily Chronotype, Jan. 18, 1847. None is genuine unless signed I. BUTTS on the

ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENT DIVISION NO. 31, SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

This Division will celebrate its first Anniversary or This Division will celebrate its first Anniversary on Thursday the 11th of April. A procession will pe formed at the Division Room at 3 o'clock. p. m., and will march to the M. E. Church. where an Address will be delivered by Brother CLEMENT J. WRIGHT, Esq., to which the public are invited to attend.

Visiting Brethren, neighboring Divisions. Cool Spring Tent of Rechabites, and Cadets of Temperance, are invited to unite with us.

Brethren of the Order are requested to meet at the Division Koom at half-past 2 o'clock.

J. A. PEMBERTON,

JAMES BANKS,

March 30. 579-2t JOHN SHAW,

Com'tee

NEW GOODS. We are receiving out stock of Spring and

J. & T. WADDILL. March 30, 1850. 579-tf

SPRING GOODS. 1850.

JAMES KYLE Has just received a large & general assortment of

DRY GOODS. Among which are, Superior embroidered and printed Lawns, Ginghams and Calicoes, Brocade and figured Silks, Plain and striped ditto, Swiss and Jaconet Muslins, Plain and striped Muslins, Thread and Bobinet Lace and Edgings, Lace Caps, some very superior, Superfine black and other Cloths, Cassimeres. Ditto

Merino French Cashmere Vestings, Irish Linens, Lawns, and Diapers, Silk and Cotton Handkerchiefs, Linen Cambric ditto, Drab-de-ta, French and English, Linen Drilling, Asker Bolting No. 1 to 10, With many other articles, all of which being purchased for Cash by the Package, will be offer ed by wholesale or retail at very low prices. March 30, 1850.

PLEASE LOOK AT THIS. We dont want to press our customers too hard, but al open accounts older than 1st of January, 1849, must be closed. If you have no money, please call and give your

J. & T. WADDILL. March 30, 1850.

RECTIFIED BYE WHISKEY. We have received, and will keep constantly on hand, a prime article of PURE RYE WHISKEY, from the Distillery of Dr. Francis Williams, of Davie county. We sell this liquor as we receive it, pure and unmixed. Hotel and Bar keepers may depend on getting the pure article

J. & T. WADDILL. March 30, 1850. 579-tf

$25 REWARD.

A man by name Alexander Johnson broke and sconded from the Juil of Moore county on the 16th inst. The subscriber will give a reward of twenty-five dollars for the apprehension and delivery of said Johnson to him at Carthage, Moore county, or fifteen dollars for his arrest and confinement in any jail in North Carolina where I can obtain possession of him again. Said Johnson is about 45 years of age, 6 feet high, round shoulders, light hair, and intemperate. He is well known in Moore and a portion of the upper part of Cumberland county by the name of Big-Fighting Alexander Johnson, and no doubt will range considerable in Cumberland, where game is plenty, as he is a great hunter.

A. C. CURRY, Jailor. 553-tf

Copartnership Notice-

The undersigned have associated themselves together, under the name and style of McNABB, BRUCE & CO.,

For the purpose of carrying on a general Mer-ROB'T McNABB.

S. C. BRUCE. JNO. C. JACKSON. Carthage, March 23, 1850.

SPRING & SUMMER GOODS.

AREY & SHEMWELL Would announce to their patrons and the public generally, that they have just received their stock of spring and summer GOODS.

Embracing almost every kind usually kept in the DRY GOODS LINE, to which they most respectfully call the attention of purchasers.

They return thanks for the liberal patronage heretofore received, and a continuance of the same is solicited of course. (73- North-west corner Market Square, Green st March 23, 1850.

60 or 80 Carpenters WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

McCULLOUGH & HUNTER, Contractors on the Cape Fayetteville, March 23, 1850. 578-3t-pd

WANTED,

Now receiving a variety of FANCY GOODS

10,000 PRINCIPE SEGARS.

March 23, 1850. 578-6t W. PRIOR among them 8 doz. Fans; 1 doz. pair Flower Vases; a large

NEW GOODS.

(Opposite Bank of Cape Fear,) Keeps constantly on hand, Brown, loaf, crushed, and refined Sugar, Coffee, Sack and Alum Salt, Swedes and Alum Salt, Swedes and English Iron,
Cut Nails, Trace Chains,
Saddles, Bridles, and Collars,
Window Glass, 8 x 10 and 10 x 12,
Blacksmiths' Tools in sets,

Castings, Hardware and Cutlery, Shoes, Hats and Caps, A varied assortment of Staple DRY GOODS Together with almost every article to be for in the market, suited to the demands of town and country. The above Goods will be sold CHEAP for cash or exchanged for country produce. Dec. 15, 1849.

NEW GOODS

Our Fall and Winter Stock of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HARDWARE, &c.,

Has now come to hand and is ready for sale. Our stock large, and well worthy the attention of those wish purchase. We will barter for any kind of country COOK & TAYLOR November 3, 1849. 558-tf

Corn Shellers, &c. W. McIntyre

Has received and offers for sale, 5 Corn Shellers, two wheels, 2 Plank Road Ploughs. 6 Ploughs, No. 1914, targe size. 250 No. 1014, 1114 & Corn Ploughs Ploughshares, Lansides & Mole Boards Dec. 22, 1849. 4m

ECOKEINDERY R. W. Hardie, has resumed the bookbleding business at the new store next door to Mr Beasley. Jeweler, where he will receive and execute binding in any stylede.

To Colonels of Regiments. By the act of Legislature of 1848, it was made the duty of Colonels to give exempts under that act. a certificate of exemption. We have supplied several regiments wind blank certificates, and will keep a supply on hand at the Carolinian Office. 75 cents per quice.

J. T. WATTS,

Dealer in MER

FAMILY GROCERIES, Provisions & Grain, Market Square,

Would call the attention of the purchasing public toble assortment of Fresh Family Groceries, Provisions, Liquen, Grain, Hardware and Cutlery, Crockery, Glass and bolles Ware; Hats, Shoes, wood Ware, Staple DRY GOODS, November 3, 1849

HOTOHELSS

VERTICAL WATER WHEEL There are several hundred of these wheels in colina. For proof of their great advantage over the common flutter wheel, or any other wheels now in use for saw mills, we confidently refer to hose who have applied them to their mills. We can recommend them particularly for their superiority in cases of a low head of water, or back We still keep a supply of Wheels, suitable for different heads of water, at Wilmington, Newbern, Washington, Edenton, and Fayetteville. The wheels may also be had of E. A. Brevard, Lincolnton, and Uriah Wells, Petersburg, Va. Persons wishing to obtain the right to as the wheels, will be served on application to D. Mc-Neill & Co., Fayetteville, N. C.

D. McNEILL. A. A. McKETHAN. D. J. MCALISTER.

January 19, 1550.

NEW GOODS The undersigned is now receiving and offers for sale of the most reasonable terms, a general associate of DRY GOODS. Suitable for the Spring Trade. Panama. Palmetto, and other Hats of the latest fashions.

STRAW BONNETS of various kinds. BOOTS and SHOES. He also keeps constantly on hand a stock of Groceries, Hardware, &c., and would be glad to see his friends and enstomers and

March 2, 1850 575-tf. Opposite Cape Fear Bank JUJUBE PASTE,

For sale by S. J. HINSDALE. MERCHANTS' STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

Fayetteville and Wilmington.

Steamers Wm. B. MEARES, ROWAN. Lighters Odd Fellow.

Mike Cronly, Ben Berry, Ready Money.

This line of Boats is still in successful operaion on the Cape Fear River, and continues to offer as many facilities to the shipping public as any other line.

Persons patronizing this line may rest assured that their Goods will be brought up with despatch, and at the very lowest rates of freight. From the number and construction of their boats, this Company is, perhaps, prepared to bring more goods to the wharf on low water.

than any other company. Packages should be marked " Care Merchants Company, Wilmington," and to such agents in Fayetteville as shippers may prefer. All pack-ages not specially marked to an agent in Fayetteville, will be promptly forwarded by the

Agent of this company, at the usual rates. E. J. LILLY, President. JOHN WADDILL, Jr.,

JOHN BANKS. Agent at Wilmington. Fayetteville, Feb. 23, 1850. 574-tf N. B. The Agent at Favetteville guarantees to the shippers by the Merchants's line, that but half rates shall be paid on drayage to warehouses on the wharf.

J. WADDILL, Jr.

AUCTIONEER

Commission Merchant,