State Democratic Convention

Will meet in Raleigh on 15th May next.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF CUMBERLAND: It is necessary that the Democratic party of Cumberland county should have able and faithful candidates in the field, at the approaching August elections. for mem-bers of the Logislature. We think it also necessary to ensure unanimity as well as able candidates, that there assembled, he or his representatives were Leak has stronger claims upon the demo-college, his use of Convention it is necessary that all the Captains Districts on Land, urging the claim upon the U. S. cratic party than any other gentlemen spots on the floor. should be represented; and to obtain that end. that meetings be held at the musters, to appoint delegates to it.
In times past, there has been much said to the prejudice of the mode of getting up and holding Conventions. We make these timely remarks that the people in the Districts may be reminded that the time for action is approaching. We presume that most of the democrats in the county agree with us, that a Convention ought to be held. We only make the suggestion however, for their consideration.

DEATH OF MR CALHOUN.

Mr Calhoun, although younger than Mr Clay by 5 or 6 years, has preceded him to the final end. Mr Calhoun was 68 years and 13 days old He was born in South Carolina, Abbevil e District. His father was an Irishman, who early emigrated to this country, and fought in some of the battles of the Revolution. His mother was understood to have procured (some one come so common of late by a certain class and how melancholy its consequences! a Virginia woman, Miss Caldwell.

Mr Venable, of North Carolina, was devoted in his attentions to Mr Calhoun during his illness; was at his side at the close of his eventful life. The South Carolina papers express their feelings of gratitude to Mr V. for his attachment. Dr. Calkoun, the son, was, we believe, the on-

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

There are still a good many of the counties which have not appointed delegates to the State Convention, which is to be held in Raleigh on the 15th of May. We hope the people in those counties are not indifferent to the subject. There is wages was paid for it, that wages was the ample time vet, but it is the time for action.

"A MISREPRESENTATION."-The whigh papers are quoting and circulating an extract from the speech of Hon. Truman Smith, in the U. S. Senate, which states that there were 320 more democrats than whigs in office when Gen. Taylor was inaugurated, and that there are yet 56 more democrats than whigs in office. We have no doubt at all that this is a barefaced misrepresentation. We have not the data upon which to prove it, but Mr Smith's speech will be replied to, and we doubt not the proof will then be forthcoming.
