VALUABLE PLANTATION AND TURPENTINE AND TIMBER

Land for Sale.

The subscriber intending to remove to the west, offers for s le his plantation in Robeson Prospect Hall, Bladen county, N. C. ? county, 7 miles from the village of Lumberton, lying immediately on the main road from Lumberton to Marion Court House. The tract contains twelve hundred and fifty acres. It lies within five miles of Lumber River, and is very heavily timbered, as none has ever been cut from it. No better turpentine land can be found in the county. The cleared land (about 4 or 500 acres) yields as good crops of corn and cotton as any in this section of country. About 100 acres is perfectly fresh.

The situation is high, pleasant and healthy; water good ; with a comfortable dwelling house and all necessary out-buildings in good repair. There are also on the premises a good water of a dark copper color. He has a large natural grist mill, 1 gin and screw, all in good repair. Any person wishing further information, will please address the subscriber at Leesville, Robe-

ing to look at it. ALEX. H. FULMORE.
