

PORTUGAL.

The following beautiful lines, we find in the North Carolina Star. They purport to be from the pen of a North Carolinian. If so, the writer has but few if any superiors among the poets of this day.

From the Raleigh Star. TO Wide as the boundless sky above— And deeper than the sea— On earth, if there can be such love, Such love I've felt for thee.

Each morning, ere the rise of sun, I wald to think of thee; And as the hours of day roll'd on Thine image dwelt with me.

Each eve, when in the glowing west, I saw the sun depart, Bright thoughts of thee still filled my breast And love still warmed my heart.

Before I closed my eyes in sleep I breathed a prayer each night That angels would thy slumbers keep, And make thy visions bright.

Then o'er the fairy land of dreams, That in my sleep unfur'd, I roved with thy till morning beams Again illum'd the world.

By night when on the sky I gazed And mark'd each brightest star, It told me of my love, and prais'd— It told me she was fair.

By day when o'er the meads I rovd, Each flower 'neath my feet, Still a whisper'd of the maid I lov'd— It told me she was sweet.

When'er I saw the faithful dove And heard it softly coo, Its music told me of my love— It told me she was true.

SARSAPARILLA. FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, AND FOR THE CURE OF SCROFULA, MERCURIAL DISEASES, CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS, STOMACHIC DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, LOSS OF APPETITE, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c.

THE PROPRIETORS have spent much time in bringing the preparation of Sarsaparilla to its present state of perfection, and the experience of fourteen years has furnished them the most ample opportunity to study it, their various forms, the manner in which it is recommended, and to adapt it exactly to their relief and cure. Patients who wish a really good Medicine are invited to give it a trial, and satisfy themselves of its superiority, and the invaluable property it possesses of arresting and curing disease. The bottle has been enlarged to hold one quart, and in this form may safely claim to be the best and cheapest medicine of the age. Its progress to the fame it has attained may be traced by a long line of facts and cures that stand landmarks and bear witness to the truth of its claims. It has already done for the thousands who have used it, and who have been cured of their most distressing and struggling with disease. It purifies the blood, and strengthens the fountain springs of life, and infuses new vigor throughout the whole animal frame.

LIVER COMPLAINT. The following is an extract of a letter received from Rev. Wm. Galusha. Berkshire, Vt., Oct. 22, 1848. Messrs Sands: I have been afflicted with a severe pain in my side, occasioned by a diseased liver, for the last 20 years, suffering at times what language cannot convey; but since taking your Sarsaparilla I have been greatly relieved, so much so that I have been able to attend to my business, and preach occasionally, for the last 18 months. I wholly discarded all other medicine, and thoroughly tried the Sarsaparilla, which I can recommend in truth and sincerity to all those who are in any way afflicted with any species of scrofulous complaints. There have been some remarkable cures effected by its use in this vicinity. Mrs. Shaw, by the use of six bottles, was restored to her health, and she had before enjoyed for ten years; and Mrs. Stevens, who had been afflicted with a severe erysipelas, was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles. Yours truly, WM. GALUSHA.

SCROFULOUS AFFECTION OF THE EYES. South Kingston, R. I., Oct. 11, 1847. Messrs Sands: Gentlemen—My little daughter, when one year old, was attacked with a scrofulous humor on her face, which soon after extended into her eyes, causing total blindness in one of them, and disfiguring her whole face. I employed two or three different remedies, but exhausted her utmost skill to give her relief, but it all proved useless, and finally one of them remarked to me that he had known of some striking cures effected by Sands' Sarsaparilla, and advised me to try it. I obtained one bottle which she commenced using, and before it was all used up it had effected an entire cure. She was four years since she was cured, and there has been no re-appearances of the disease, and we are satisfied that it is a perfect cure. It gives me great pleasure to add that I can recommend it to every sufferer from any similar complaint. Yours respectfully, GEO. ROBINSON.
