The North Carolinian.

BY WM. H. BAYNE.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., MARCH 8, 1851.

VOL. 12—NO. 628.

TERMS OF
ADVERTISING:
One square of twenty-five lines or less, for one insertion, 50 cents; every subsequent insertion, 30 cents; if it remains for several insertions, when it will be charged $3 for two months, $6 for three, &c $10 for twelve months.
Liberal deduction for large advertisements by the year or six months.

"CHARACTER IS AS IMPORTANT TO STATES AS IT IS TO INDIVIDUALS; AND THE GLORY OF THE STATE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF ITS CITIZENS."

Persons who advertise in the newspapers should always mark their advertisements with the number of insertions; otherwise they often forget and the advertisements run longer than necessary, and when the bill comes to be settled, there is something said about it, and the advertiser should attend to taking it out of the paper, because it misleads the readers of the paper besides running him to waste.

REGULAR LINE.

The Cape Fear Steamboat Company's Steamer CHATHAM will run regularly between Wilmington and Fayetteville, commencing on Monday the 27th instant—leaving Fayetteville every Monday and Thursday at 9 o'clock, a. m., and arriving at Wilmington same evening; giving passengers going north an opportunity to take the cars next morning at 9 o'clock. And leave Wilmington on Tuesdays and Fridays, at 2 o'clock, p. m., giving passengers by the cars, which arrive at Wilmington at 1 o'clock, daily, an opportunity to take the Boat to Fayetteville.

The Steamer GOV. GRAHAM, with the Tow Boats belonging to the line, will run in connection with the Chatham, making one or more trips a week, as circumstances may require.
Passengers and freighters may rely upon the above arrangement. It is hoped that the necessary expenses to be incurred by this arrangement will be rewarded by an increased patronage; otherwise, a loss will probably be sustained by the Company, which will lead to a discontinuance of regular time of running.

NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Wm. H. Bayne, Editor and Proprietor.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.
MARCH 8, 1851.

SYMPATHY.—Mr Hale, the abolition

Senator from New Hampshire, acknowledged in the Senate that a colored man applied to him representing himself a fugitive slave, and asked for help pecuniarily. Mr Hale was disposed to help him, but observing that the man kept his hat on while talking to him, he concluded that he was not a fugitive slave, and sent him off! Do you mind that now? There is a frank confession that those silly fanatics will do that for a runaway negro which they would not do for a needy creature not in that detectable situation. This is a free country we know; but really we feel like hanging such law-defying fanatics.

The Washington city correspondent of the Charleston Courier says:
There can be no doubt that, before long, the movement already commenced, for the ejection of all blacks from the free States, will be carried out. An experienced and practical man from New-England, formerly an influential member in the House, told me, yesterday, that a feud was rising even in Boston, between a class of whites and blacks, which must lead to extreme measures, on the part of the former, and that the latter must be expelled, by force, or by legislation, which amounts to the same thing.

We tell the free negroes that in less than 10 years we think it very probable they will begin to find "no rest for the soles of their feet" save in their congenial Africa. They will have to go to Liberia, and the sooner the better.

This gives us an opportunity to say that a year or two ago, an intelligent free man applied to us for information in regard to Liberia, and we furnished him with every item he wanted; he was satisfied from what we showed him, that it was best for him to go. He accordingly made up his mind to that effect, and through the agent of the colonization society, with whom we have some acquaintance, we procured him a reasonable passage for himself and wife. We have since heard that he is well pleased.

Will it be believed that some white persons in this town undertook to persuade that man not to go to Liberia, telling him he would die in a few weeks from the fever, &c. yet such we were informed was the fact, and were almost provoked at the time to hold up their names to public reprobation. Any man that advises a free negro to stay in this country, is either not a friend to the negro, or else he has not intelligence enough to know what sort of a country Liberia is.

CALIFORNIA.—The Legislature assembled on 6th January. The Senate, says the "Union," consists of 16 members, and exhibits a democratic majority of two. The House presents a tie between the two parties. T. — independent members will therefore decide most of the political matters.

Gov. Burnett's resignation was offered to enable him to attend to his own business. It was wished in him if he had any to attend to. It is too often the case that people try to get the superintendence of the public business because they cannot get any other business that will pay.

The recent rescue of a fugitive slave in Boston, is the third occurrence of the kind says the New York Express, that has happened in Boston. One in 1794, and another in 1836. The offenders in neither case, we suppose, were ever punished.

In the Virginia Convention for the revision of the Constitution, more debate has taken place upon the simple question of the eligibility of the Governor, than ought to have occurred on a far more important subject. One party advances the best of reasons why the Governor of the State should be eligible to a second term; while the other advances almost as good reasons why he should not be.

We are inclined to consider it a matter of moonshine, after all. But it shows what a mountain may be made of a mole hill. Some people have a penchant that way.

It seems to be a settled fact that the slave which the mob in Boston rescued from the marsh, has arrived in Canada. If he does not starve there, he will be lucky.

The Richmond Republican says that several of the members of the Virginia Convention for revising the Constitution, who came from the largest slaveholding districts in the west, are the most urgent for the white basis of representation.

Many years ago, Stephen Sparks removed from Mecklenburg County, Virginia, to North Carolina, and a few years ago he died intestate in Franklin County.
He left no child but it is believed he had brothers and sisters. If this notice should reach any of them, it may serve to inform them that they are interested in his Estate and upon application to me, I will instruct them how and where they may ascertain its value, &c. By request of the Administrator. W. H. HAYWOOD, Jr.
Raleigh, N. C.

CENSUS OF NORTH CAROLINA FOR 1850.

The Raleigh Register says: We are indebted to Col. George Little, the efficient and obliging Marshal of this State, for the following valuable and elaborate table, embracing many subjects of interest connected with the recent enumeration in North Carolina. It will be seen that our population is somewhat larger than we stated some weeks since; but not sufficiently large, as it will appear from another table, headed "Population of the United States," also published in our issue of today, to prevent our losing one member of Congress.
