PHILADELPHIA, May 20-12 m .- The Steamer Ohio of the Union Line, which left New Castle today, was run into at 8 o'clock this morning by the steamer Commodore Stockton, off Greenwich Point one mile from Philadelphia. The Ohio's bow was knocked entirely off and she sunk in about 20 minutes after being struck. When the water reached the upper deck the consternation became frightful, women and children running up and down uttering the most piteous lamentations. As the water continued to encroach, the scene became awful. Many jumped overboard, and it was feared were lost. Two or three are known certainly to have been drowned. The total number on board was about 100. Among the Baltimoreans were John Wills who swam ashore, losing his bat and baggage; Mr Danskin, Mr Dorsey of the firm of Dorsey & Nelson, Mr Eaton, of the firm of Eaton & Bros. Mr Stump, merchant, and neiece, Miss Levering, Mr Stewart, and others, all of whom were saved. Some got ashere on planks, some swam, and others found' refuge in small boats. The relief boats took many off the wreck but the lights being extinguished by the water persons could not see where to go or determine what to do. The boat sunk so rapidly that nearly all the baggage floated off and was lost. The Ohio was a splendid boat and was nearly ruined by this disaster. The Stockton is also much
