Swiftly o'er the troubled deep, Darkness may lend her gloomy aid, And wrap the groaning world in shade; But man can show a darker hour, And bend beneath a stronger power;-There is a tempest of the soul, A gloom where wilder billows roll!

The howling wilderness may spread Its pathless deserts, parch'd and dread, Where not a blade of herbage blooms, Nor yields the breeze its soft perfumes; Where silence, death, and horror reign, Uncheck'd, across the wide domain;-There is a desert of the mind More hopeless, dreary, undefined!

There Sorrow, moody Discontent, And gnawing Core are widly blent ; There Horror hangs her darkest clouds. And the whole scene in gloom enshrouds; A sickly ray is cast around, Where naught but dreariness is found : A feeling that may not be told, Dark, rending, lonely, drear, and cold.

The wildest ills that darken life Are rapture to the bosom's strife: The tempest, in its bleakest form, Is beauty to the bosom's storm; The ocean, lash'd to fury loud, Its high wave mingling with the cloud, Is peaceful, sweet serenity The passion's dark and boundless sea. There sleeps no calm, there smiles no rest,

When storms are waring in the breast; There is no moment of repose In bosoms lash'd by hidden woes; The scorpion sting the fury rears, And every trembling fibre tears: The vulture preys with bloody beak Upon the heart that can but break!

BRIEF EXTRACTS.

Sowing a Name-We have seen a young child express the greatest surprise and delight on discovering in a flower-bed its name written in the green of the young plants, the seed of which had been sown in that form by a fond father or mother. But by and bye, dear children, you will see your name or character, as it has been planted by yourself, springing up in the opinion people entertain concerning you, and it will be exactly as you have sown it Be careful then, how you sow. Do not spoil your name by sowing foolishly or wrongly. Remember every word and action is a seed put in, which will surely spring up and constitute your name in the world. The Pilot Mountain House, 1; miles from the pinnacle, has been newly fitted up for the apwho may be pleased to seek health or pleasure at the Pilot Mountain.

One mile from the house is a fine mineral spring, and a good carriage road leading to it. The ascent to the pinnacle has been rendered perfectly safe, and comparatively easy, by ladders made for the purpose. The view from this point is the grandest spectacle in North Carolina, if not in the whole southern country, being a huge shaft run up 1800 feet into the blue etherial arch, from a comparatively level surrounding surface, and embracing the Blue Ridge and Alleghany Mountains, from the peaks of Otto to the north S0 miles, to the Table Rock in South Carolina, 100 miles, including within the range Paris' Mountain, Spartanburg district, and both peaks of King's Mountain in York District.

The large number of visiters to this grand curiosity has greatly increased within a few years, and the subscriber can assure the public that all who come shall enjoy themselves so far as de-pends upon him. The number of visiters during the last season, as shown by the register, was between three and four hundred.

A good Guide to conduct visiters up the pinnacle, and to point out the different and distant objects, will always be in attendance. Travellers passing over the Blue Ridge, by Mount Airy, will lose but little in time or distance, by calling at Pilot Mountain House. The purity of the air, the excellence of the water, and the beautiful scenery, never fails to
