INSULTED .- The Charleston Mercury #373 that the citizens of that city are considerably excited in consequence of the U. S. troops at Fort Sumter refusing to let a gentleman and his only apply where the paper is sent from the family land at the Fort on a pleasure visit. When office of publication to actual and bona fide the boat containing the gentleman and his family neared the Fort, a sentinel presented his musket and refused them a landing. The corporal of the guard was sent for, and requested to allow the party to land; but he refused, without giving a reason. The Mercury asks if it is not time to expel these men [meaning U. S. soldiers] from the Federal Minions. Messrs. Editors: Fort Sumter has from a usurping Northern President and the subservient tools of his Cabinet. The object of this movement of Federal troops is apparent and unmistakeable. Intimidation of the wavering, encouragement to Union-loving Submissionists, and preparation to meet the question of secession, and dely its exercise. It is a challenge to the State to come up to that issue and meet the Government upon it. Shall the challenge be accepted now? There is but one way of giving the answer-through the Legislature, which should be instantly assembled. In the meantime what should newspapers and every other description of Printed Matter, except Newspapers and Periodicals, published at intervals and not ex- Fort, and all reason for the peremptory prohibition contemptuously refused, amid the jeers of liveried slaves, obedient to the will of official masters. The people should assemble at once-put on their armsguard their City against the ingress of these myrmidons and incendiaries, and confine the pestilence of their presence within the walls of the Forts. There is but one circumstance to temper the anger of a true Southerner-it is that so few of these men are Northerners. The soldiers of the Government are anything else than Yankees, and their deeds illustrate the courage of every land save Yankeedom. Yet are they the instruments of our deadly foe-the Government-and as such instruments, must be placed under the ban
