ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA. The steamship America has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 20th Dec. The sales of Cotton for the week ending the 19th were 28,000

The Madrid Gazette contains an official document from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in reply to the note of Mr Webster, in which he expresses satisfaction at the tone of the note, and liberates all the American prisoners taken in the late Lopez expedition. La Borde, the Spanish Consul, is about leaving for N. Orleans,

> From the New Haven Register THE FIRST FUGITIVE CASE IN CON-

NECTICUT: A novel case-at least in practice-under the Fugitive from Service act, came off in this city, before Charles R. Ingersoll, Esq., U. S. Commissioner. Three runaway apprentices from the State of New York, were brought before him on the complaint of Mr John Russell, an extensive file manufacturer in Sing Sing. Westchester co., N. Y. alleging that "under the laws of the State of New York" "the service or labor" of the persons arrested, was "due to him," and that a week or two since they had absconded from that State into the State of Connecticut, where they had been found. The arrests were made in Plymouth. The indentures entered into by the parties in Sing Sing, by which they were bound to serve Mr Russell for terms vary from two to four years, executed according to the laws of New York, were produced and proved-and the facts of the escape and the identity of the persons fully made out. John S. Beach, Esq , appeared for Mr Russell, and C. S.

Andrews, Esq., for the apprentices. The Commissioner said, the facts of the case being unquestioned, that he had no doubt that apprenticed servants, such as the indentures showed these persons to be by the laws of New York, were within the purview of the Constitutional provision requiring the surrender of "persons held in service," on claim of the person to whom such service was due. That the history of that article in the Convention showed that persons "bound in service," were contemplated by its framers as within its requirements, and that the legislation and practice of the Colonios before, as well as the summary powers given to the master. to reclaim his apprentices by the State laws since, showed that the power now asked to be exercised was neither novel in legislation, nor arbitrary in its character; and that in the various disquisitions upon this provision of the Constitution, he had never seen it questioned, that white men as well as black men, and servants for years as well as servants for life, were within its objects and requirements. A certificate was therefore given to Mr Russell in accordance with the Fugitive Act of 1850, and under it the apprentices were carried back to New

We understand that Mr Russell has suffered of late by a stampede among his apprentices, of whom he has a large number, and their subsequent employment on wages in rival establishments-and he has availed himself of this Act, as the only means to put a stop to the practice.

LAND WARRANTS .-- The Charlestown (Va.) Free Press publishes a letter from the Hon. C. J. Faulkner, member of Congress from that district, in which he expresses the opinion that a law will be passed during the present session of Congress rendering valid the assignment of bounty land warrants. He adds :

"In this view I would recommend to you and to all other persons holding warrants to make no contracts in regard to them, as their value will be unquestionably enhanced upon the passage of such a law, and the warrants at once be converted into cash at a fair price."

ALABAMA AND THE COMPROMISE .-- We learn from the Mobile Advertiser that the Senate of Alabama has passed a joint resolution declaring that Alabama will not support any candidate for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, nominated by either party in a National Convention, unless the Convention making the nomination shall endorse and sustain the Fugitive Slave law.

A FACT. - Not long since in South Carolina a clergyman was preaching on the disobedience of Jonah, when commanded to go and preach to the Ninevites. After expatiating for some time on the truly awful consequence of disobedience to the Divine commands, he exclaimed in a voice of thunder, that passed through the congregation like an electric shock,

.. And are there any Jonahs here ?" There was an old negro present, whose name was Jonah; who, thinking himself called on, immediately rose, and turning up his white eye to the preacher, with his broadest grin, and best bow, very rapidly answered.

"Here be one, Massa!"
