The North

Carolinian.

"CHARACTER IS AS IMPORTANT TO STATES AS IT IS TO INDIVIDUALS; AND THE GLOST OF THE STATE IS THE COMMON PROPERTY OF ITS CITIZENS."

R. H. BRYAN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., SEPTEMBER 11, 1852.

TERMS OF

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Per annum, if paid in advance, $2 00 Do. if paid at the end of 3 months 2 50 if paid at the end of 6 months 3 00 if paid at the end of the year, 3 50 No subscription received for less than twelve months, unless paid for in advance.

We No paper discontinued until all arrears Letters on business connected with this establishment, must be addressed R. K. BRYAN, E liter of the North Carolinian -and in all cases post-paid. RATES OF ADVERTISING:

Sixty cents per square for the first, and thirty nts for subsequent insertions, unless the adthen it will be charged For three months, - - - $4 00

For six months, - - - 6 00 For 12 months, - - - 10 00 65- All advertisements must be handed in by 19 o'clock Friday morning, and should have the number of insertions intended marked upon them, otherwise they will be inserted till forbid and charged accordingly.

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS. All subscribers who do not give express notice to the frary, are considered as wishing to continue their sub-

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publishers may continue to send them until arrearages are paid. If subscribers neglect or refuse taking their papers from the offices to which they are sent, they are held responsible till their bills are settled, and their papers ordered to be discontinued.

4. The Courts have decided that refusing to take a newspaper or periodical from the Post Office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of in-

TEBLANDA SS FOR SALE AT THE

CAROLINIAN OFFICE. at 75 cents per quire. For any quantity over 5 quires, 60 cts per quire.

JOHN D. WILLIAMS, Commission and Forwarding

MERCHANT-Fayetteville, N. C.

MARBLE FACTORY. BY GHO, BAUDER.

Nearly opposite to E. W. Willkings' Auction FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Onlong Tea, quality good, better, and choice, a he is prepared and determined to sell to punclarge supply and good assortment -all selected tual customers, either at wholesale or retail, at by a judge, and recommended as fresh and fine greatly reduced prices. For sale by S. J. HINSDALE. flavored.

IMPERIAL TEA. Just received to-day a chest of Imperial Tea, that is as good, if not a little better than was ever offered at this market S. J. HINSDALE.

HYSON TEA.

A chest of very superior quality, fresh and fine flavor, just received and for sale by S. J. HINSDALE.

Steamship Line

and Richmond. Two splendid new steamships, built expressly for this route, are now running-Steamship City of Richmond, Z. Mitchell, Commander, and Steamship City of Norfolk, Jas. Post, Commander-one of which leaves New York every Thursday from Pier S, East River, at 4 p. m .- returning, leaves Richmond and City Point on Friday and Norfolk on Saturday of every week. These vessels are thorough sea steamers, very fast, and have splendid accommodations for passengers.

Cabin passage & found between N. York and Norfolk. $7 Do. City Point or Do. and Norfolk $5

Freight from New York to Richmond 6 ets. per foot.
De. Do. to Petersburg & Norfolk 7 ets foot This is as expeditious, the cheapest, and most pleasant route passengers ctn take going to New Insurance by these vessels is much lower than by sailing vessels. JOSIAH WILLS, Agent, Norfolk.

THOS. BRANCH, do. Petersburg. do. Richmond. MAILLER & LORD, 105 Wall st., New York.

March 30, 1852 6m

LAND FOR SALE. A valuable tract of Land is offered for sale containing 220 acres, lying 5; miles west of Fayetteville, near the F. & W. Plank Road, adjoining Mrs Nott and others, with a good dwelling and other necessary out-houses-well watered and healthy situation. Apply soon to D. G. Mc-Duffie in Favetteville, or to Jas. R. McDuffie on the premises, for particulars. June 26, 1552

NOTICE.

I forewarn all and every person from fishing or hunting on my lands in the counties of Cumberland, Bladen and Sampson, as I will enforce the law against all such trespassers. G. T. BARKSDALE. April 22, 1852.

THAT POLISH, HOW IT SHINES! 10,000 boxes

sold within the last 9 months. A. J. WOODWARD returns his thanks to the public for the unprecedented encouragement he has met with in the manufacture and sale of his celebrated Polish, and at the same time wishes it understood that he always keeps a upply on hand for wholesale or retail.

Experience has proved that this Polish is unsurpassed for quickness in putting a gloss on boots and shoes, and also in preserving the Persons wishing to oil their boots can use this Polish with equal success immediately after-wards: the leather should be rubbed as soon as The Polish is applied, before it dries.

The Polish can be found at the store under the Carolinian Printing Office. Fayetteville, Feb'y 21, 1852.

Entire new Stock of GOODS.

Having sold our old stock out, we now offer next. to our customers and friends an entire new stock

DRY GOODS. Hardware and Cutlery, Hats, SHOES & GROCERIES. A LARGE ASSORTMENT,

All of which we will exchange for any kind of country produce, or sell on time to punctual

COOK & TAYLOR. Fayetteville, Sept 27, 1851 y

$10 REWARD.

Runaway from the subscriber about the 1st of January last, a negro man named MIKE, who is supposed to be lurking in the neighborhood of Fayetteville, where he has a wife. Mike is a black fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, stoops a little when walking, and moves slowly. He was hired by me for this year from the estate of Josiah Evans, dec'd. The above reward will be confinement in jail so that I get him. Mike is call. NATHAN KING. 25 years old. April 10, 1852

DISSOLUTION.

The firm of Arey, Shemwell & Co., heretofore existing, has been this day dissolved by mutual All demands against said firm will be paid by

P. Shemwell, at the old stand; and all persons adebted to the late firm will please make immediate payment to P. Shemwell, who alone is duly authorised to settle the sime. S. S. AREY.

P. SHEMWELL. JAS. R. McDONALD. Fayetteville, June 26, 1852.

P. Shemwell will continue the Dry Goods business at the old stand of Arev, Shemwell & Co, where he will be pleased to see all who will favor him with a call. Thankful for past favors from the public, he hopes, by strict attention to business, to retain a share of public patronage.

P. SHEMWELL.

E. C. HALL, OF ROME,

Successor of Hall, Sackett & Co. Has now on hand a general assortment of Dry Goods, Saddlery, Hats, Caps, Shoes, Hardware, Groceries.

A much larger and more general stock than ever | terms. Hyson Tea, Imperial Tea, Young Hyson Tea, opened on the East side of the Cape Fear-which

13 He would call particular attention to his stock of BOOTS AND SHOES. The assortment is unusually large, and of every quality and style; and having been bought for Cash, he can and wil sell them very low. You that wish Bargains will find it to your interest to give the Stock an examination before buying elsewhere. Always on hand, a general stock of GROCE-May 1, 1852.

LAW NOTICE. ARCHIBALD A. T. SMITH

Has taken an Office on Anderson street, nearly opposite the Fayetteville Hotel. He will attend Between New York. Norfolk, Petersburg to the collection of claims and law business generally, and especially to the taking of accounts of executors, administrators, guardians and part- be sold on accommodating terms. ners, either in suit or otherwise. October 1, 1851.

> C. W. ANDREWS. Dealer in Stoves, and to do all kinds of factory work that can be short time to those that will pay their bills when done by any similar Establishment in the State. | presented. Also, for sale, Patent Factory Can Rings, varying from 9 to 14 inches; Drum Beads, &c.

ROOFING, GUTTER & LEADER PIPES put up in the best manner. Also, just received, a full supply of COOK-ING STOVES, of the most approved patterns, some of them very large for hotel and plantation use. Of Always on hand a good assortment of TIN WARE. C. W. ANDREWS,

South-east corner Market Square. Together with a good set of harness. Apply at Мау 15, 1852 у

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, DAVID S. REID, Goveanor of the State of North Carolina.

Whereas, with the advice of the Conneil of State, it has been deemed absolutely necessary to convene the General Assembly at an earlier day than is appointed by Law for the regular meeting thereof, I do hereby issue this, my Proclamation, notifying and requesting the Senators and members of the House of Commons elect of the General Assembly of North Carolina to meet in session at the Capitol, in the City of Raleigh, on Monday the fourth day of October Given under my hand and attested by the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina. Done at the City of 1852, and in the 77th year of our Independence.

By the Governor. DAVID S. REID. WM. H. JONES, Private Secretary. Raleigh, Aug. 25, 1852.

NEW FIRM AND NEW GOODS.

McDONALD & McMASTER

Also, Hardware, Cutlerv, Crockery, Glassware, Wood-ware, Liquors, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, and a good assortment of DRY To the above Stock we would respectfully inite the attention of the public. Country produce taken in exchange for goods. Fayetteville, Sept. 4, 1852.

Strayed or Stolen,

From Rev. G. M. Gibbs, on Black River, New Hanover County, on the night of the 15th instant, a Bay Horse, with his right hind leg white half up to his knee-long tail, and racks under the saddle. He was purchased from a drover, at Elizabethtown, Bladen Co. A suitable reward will be given to any person taking up said horse and informing the subscriber at Gravelly Hill, J. S. H. BEATTY. August 27, 1852. 706-2t

P. TAYLOR Is now receiving his Fall and Winter Stock

of Staple and Fancy GRADADES. Also, Hats, Caps. Bonnets, Boots

Rope and Bagging, Coffee, Sugar and Tea, Iron, Nails, Salt, Crockery and Glass-ware; Ploughs, Nos. 6, 10, 11, IS 1-2 and 19, with Castings to match. Corn-shellers and Straw-cutters of superior kind. All of the above goods will be sold or exchanged for produce on reasonable Friends and customers are invited to call at the old Stand, Green street, Fayetteville, Sept. 4, 1852.

NEW GOODS. The undersigned are now receiving their FALL STOCK of GOODS,

Consisting of a full assortment of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Dress Goods, a large supply of Ready-made Clothing, Hats, Caps and Bonnets, a large assortment of Boots and Shoes, Hardware;

Groceries, Drugs and Medicines; Saddlery, Crockery & Glassware; Gunny and Dundee Bagging & Rope, Nails, Iron, &c &c. &c.

We invite our friends and the public to call and examine our Stock; it is LARGE and will J. T. COUNCIL & CAIN. September 4, 1852.

NEW SCHOOL.

On the 15th of September, the subscriber will open a SCHOOL FOR BOYS, in the room adjoining the house recently occupied by Mr Chas.

Fayetteville, Sept. 4, 1852. 706-4t

EDWIN GLOVER, At the sign of the large Watch, Hay street, Has just received his Fall Stock of Goods, con-

Watches, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Ware, and race after the spoils of office.

I have in my employment competent work- gold locketts; Colt's and Allens' Revolvers; acmen, and am prepared to do all kinds of work, cordeons, chess men, silver spoons, silver cups, either in COPPER, TIN OR SHEET-IRON. &c. Military Goods of all kinds; a fine lot of these so grossly misrepresented their wishes and to join us in a movement I have on hand all the necessary materials and Clocks, and almost everything called for in his machinery for making Factory Cans and Drums, line, which will be sold cheap for cash, or on Watches and Jewelry repaired as usual. Old gold and silver taken in exchange. All those indebted by note or book account, must pay by the 1st of November. Fayetteville, Sept. 4, 1852.

the Carolinian Office.

THE NOATH CAROLINIAN

Fajetteville, N. C.

03- "NO NETH NO SOUTH, NO EAST, NO WEST, UNDER THE CONSTITUTION; BUT A SA. CRED MAINTINANCE OF THE COMMON BOND AND TRUE DEVOTION TO THE COMMON BRO-THERHOOS FRANKLIN PIERCE.

The Springfield Republican, a thorough going Whig paper, has '.e following observations on Mr Webster's position :-"Mr Banks, the coalition Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, the spoils," therefore, be it further Resolved, That, regarding honesty, fidelity ton; and he says that whilst there, Mr public and private testimony to this fact. just reward which is due to honest merit. The conclusion is, that Mr Banks either that Mr Webster deserts the Whig party, Friday night, the 1st October next. until we have the most ample and corroboster, at this time of life, to turn his back in which he ably defended the course of William Howe drove Maxwell's divsion upon the record, so markedly written over the meeting : eulogizing Winfield Scott as his whole character and experience. If a General; deprecating the course puranger possibly can be."

What has the Whig press in this region to say now?

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Pursuant to a call made by a number of the citizens of Wilmington, a meeting was held at the Court House of said town to frame a course of proceedings and nomitrate cand stes for the Presidency and Vice Presidency to be voted for at the coming election. On motion of John A. Taylor, Col. John McRae was called to the Chair, and Adrian II. Van Bokkelen and Joseph B. Russell appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman addressed the meeting explanatory of the objects for which it was called together, and urging the necessity of forming a new party which would have for its object the good of the country and independent of all sectional prejudices-

On motion of William E. Anderson, a committee consisting of Robert H. Cowan, John A. Taylor, and Thomas W. Brown was appointed to report and frame resolutions for the action of the meeting. The committee reported through their chairman, Robert II. Cowan, the following preamble and resolutions: The age in which we live is sadly degenerate In the rapid progress of which we boast, we have wandered afar from the ancient landmarks of the wise framers of our constitution, and our Government is rapidly tending from the well regulated principles of republicanism to the wild ngoverned, and ungovernable notions of a pure

The history of the world teaches us that a well regulated pure democracy is a beautiful impossibility;" and hence we cannot countenance any movement, which has for its aims or its tendency the establishment of such a form of government in the stead of the wise and practical system which we have inherited from our fathers and are bound to bequeath to our children.

Loving that liberty only which is sustained and regulated by law, we are determined to mainpurely national in its position, and eminently head and the balance in the stomach. conservative in its principles. It was these dis-tinctive features in the Whig party which first commended it to our honest judgments. Abandoning that position, sacrificing those principles, it has forfeited all claims upon our favor and

We regard this inglorious end as having been consummated by the action of the last "Whig National Convention"-inasmuch as its nomination for President was made under the positive protest of one portion of the country, and thro' the influence of a sectional party, whose aims can not be accomplished otherwise than by sectional organization. Believing this, we can not, and will not sustain the action of that Con-

Nor can we turn with any stronger ground for hope to the Democratic party. Equally corrupt with the Whig party, equally degraded from the first position of parties in the country, they are come forward now to cut themselves loose from the lead of those irresponsible conventions which their principles, and to join us in a movement for the establishment of a national Republican Party, and for the selection of men who will truly and faithfully represent National Prin-

And to the end that we may manifest our true position, and for the furtherance of the object which we have in view, it is hereby

Resolved, 1st, That we will absolve ourselves from all political connection whatever, with the and that we will seek to establish and maintain a party organization entirely separate and distinct from either of them.

Resolved, 2d, That as a beginning towards the accomplishment of this end, we will earnestly ther tanned with the bark of a dog.

support for the Presidency, and Vice Presidency of the United States, any ticket which may be composed of National men, and that we will use Resolved, 3d, That in the selection of our candidates for the ensuing campaign, we shall be governed entirely by a consideration of their per fords. After our buisness was finish-position in the recent struggle for the Constitued, the Count asked me to take some retion, and the Union; without any regard to the particular political party to which they may have heretofore belonged.

Resolved, 4th, That Daniel Webster, of Mass.

the first living statesman, is commended to us by the soundness of his principles and the nationality of his character, as our first choice for the office of President. And for the Vice Presidency, LAST. Graham, of North Carolina.

And whereas, also, we believe that the root of all the evils of which we complain, is to be found among the corrupting influence of office-holders, and office seekers, all of which may be traced to kiss her cheek, "not to call me count; that shameful sentiment, "to the victors belong | call me your dear Pulaski. This is a repub-and capability, as the only proper tests of quali-fication for office—we believe that all proscrip-Webster told him that he should prefer tion for opinion's sake, (except in such offices as to see the electoril vote of Massachusetts are immediately connected with the administragiven to Gen. Pierce rather than to Gen. tion of the Government) is contrary to the Raleigh, the 25th day August, A. D., Scott. That Mi Banks says this, there genius of our institutions-its tendency being the can be no doubt-we have accumulative extension of government patronage for elec-

> Resolved, further, That a Committee of Cortells a falsehood, or Mr Webster prefers respondence be appointed by the Chair, to ascer-Gen. Pierc's election to that of Gen. Scott.
>
> State, in connection with our object—and that We have no heart to make comment said Committee be required to report to an adupon this. We will not treat it as a fact journed meeting to be held in this place, on

> Mr Cowan addressed the meeting in a rating evidence of it. Our assurances to very able manner, in support of the prethe contrary have been based upon his amble and resolutions, explanatory of his

> we must, the emotion that records the con- sued which led to his nomination over viction will be deeper than vexation or other tried Statesmen, and giving sound reasons for not supporting him for the Presidency.

> > principles of the "National Republican Party." In accordance with the 4th resolution, the Chair appointed Robert G. Rankin, John A. Taylor, Wentworth W. Pierce, Thomas W. Brown, Thomas Loring, Alfred Martin, Owen L. Fillyaw, Ed Henry R. Perrin, the Committee of Correspondence, and, on motion, Robert H.

Cowan was added. Resolved, That all the papers of the town and there more than a minute, when Pulaski. State be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting, with the preamble and resolu-

first day of October next, unless called like a demon on seeing the inanimate form. sooner by notice. JOHN McRAE, Chairman. A. H. VANBOKKELEN, Secretaries.

MURDER.

A cold blooded murder was committed in South Gaston, Halifax county, N. C. on the morning of the 23rd ult., by Wm. L. Garrett (who keeps a Grog-shop.) on the person of Thos. R. Cumbee, a white boatman. It appears that the parties were gambling in Garrett's house when a dispute arose concerning the game and a great many threats were made by both parties. Cumbee left Garrett's house and went to another shop some fitty steps distant, kept by John Oliver, and was standing in the door, Garrett came to the front door of his house with a double barrel gun charged with buck shot, and discharged one barrel at Cumbee, only one shot taking effect in his wrist. Cumbee sprang in the house and caught up a gun. came to the door again, when Garrett fired the other tain a connection with no party which is not barrel at him, one shot taking effect in the Cumbee fell dead without speaking. Justices Edwards, Pearson, Allen and Hamlin were soon on the ground and arrested Garrett and placed him in the hands of constable Jenkins until an inquest could be held over the dead body. Garrett made a full confession of the bloody deed when taken into custody. - Warrenton News.

> THE MORMONS. - That is a queer book THE MORMONS. — That is a queer book of Lieut. Gunnison, and it speaks of queer their demand. "If it must be so, as we customs adopted by a very queer people. have no means of defending ourselves, I Polygamy is one of these customs, which must submit; follow me, therefore, to the is regulated by certain rules laid down and spot where our treasure is kept." He led adhered to as a part of the national religion. the way, and was tumultuously attended Here is one, to which we call the attention by the eager band. He placed his hand of all bachelors. The idea of being com- on a door, but before he turned the key, demand a man in marriage, if she is ne- loud yell responded, then gave a rapid glected, on the ground of the privilege of signal, and in an instant the powerful anisalvation; and the President who receives mals bounded forth upon their prey, tearthe petition must provide for her; and he lng some, strangling others, and sending has the authority to command any man he the few of the robbers who escaped their deems competent to support her, "to seal attack, flying for their lives head-long her" to himself in marriage; and the man down the mountain in frantic terror, to be se ordered must show just cause and impe-diment why it should not be done, if he yawned beneath their feet. dislikes the union: or else be considered two parties which now exist in this country; contumacious and "in danger of the coun-

A Yankee has taken out a patent for lea-

VOL. 13-NO. 707.

THE MAIDEN AND THE HERO. On the night of the battle of Brandywine, every effort to have such ticket placed before the people of North Carolina in time for the coming to Count Pulaski, a noble Polander, who took a prominent part in our freedom. Ho was quartered in a neat house near the uped, the Count asked me to take some refreshments, and at the same time he called

> "Mary, my lass, Mary!" In an instant a rosy cheeked girl enterthe face beaming with joy, it would been, at the very sound of Pulaski's voice.
>
> Substitute of the country and she time

"How often have I told you, my little love," he said, bending his tall form to lic, my line favorite. We have no Counts

"But you are a Count, sir, when at home, and they say you came a long way over the ocean to fight for us." "Yes, yes, Mary very true; I did come a long way, but one reason why, was, I had to come, in a measure. Now, can you get for this gentleman and myself a little refreshment? He has a long way to ride to-night."

"Certainly, sir," and she went out of the room like a fairy.

"A fine, pleasant girl," said Pulaski: "would that I had the wealth that I once had. I would give her a portion that would send half the youth hereabouts after her across the creek by ten o'clock, at one of the lower fords.

The Hessian General Knouphausen. with a large force advancing up the side of the creek and uniting with Lord Corn wallis who commanded the left wing of the The preamble and resolutions were army, crossed at the upper fords of the unanimously adopted, as embracing the river and creek. It so happened that during the raging of the conflict, in carrying orders I passed immediately in direction of Pulaski's quarters, that I had visited the night before. Situated as the house was in the midst of battle, curiosity induced me to ride up .-Suddenly a sheet of flame burst forth ward J. Lutterloh, John S. Dunham, and The House was on fire. Near the door step lay the body of Mary, her head cut open by a sabre, and her brains oozing out of the terrible wound! I had not been at the head of a troop of cavalry, galloped rapidly to the house. I shall never forget the expression of his face, as he shouted The meeting then adjourned until Friday,

> "Who did this?" A little boy that had not been before noticed, who was lying amid the grass, his leg dreadfully mangled, said:

"There, there they go!"
He pointed to a company of Hessians, then some distance off. "Right wheel, men, charge!" And they did charge; I do not think that one man of that Hessian corps ever left the field except to be placed in the grave. The last I saw of Pulaski was on the battle ground of Brandywine. THE MONKS OF ST. BERNARD AND

THEIR DOGS.

A tragical story is told of an adventure that happened to the Monks of St. Bernard, in the days when the breed of their celebrated dogs was at its full perfection. No less than thirty robbers, to whom the supposed possession of the monastery offered a rich booty, had, by degrees, introduced themselves into the retreat, arriving in.parties at intervals, and always received in the most friendly manner. As soon as the whole band was assembled, they threw off their concealment, and summoned the abbot to produce the keys of the treasure. The monk was, fortunately, a man of more resolute character than usually occurred in those places of seclusion, and did not lose his presence of mind. He observed to them mildly, that their conduct was unworthy, and an ill-return for the hospitable attentions they had received. The robbers, as may be supposed,

> "A more gallant man, or a more honorable man" than Gen. Pierce, "both in public and in private, I never knew."-Gen. Scott to Col. Gorman.