THE ONLY TRUE PORTRAIT OF WASH-INGTON.

JUST PUBLISHED. T. B. WELCH'S MAGNIFICENT PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.

Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Atheneum, Boston . This superb picture. Engraved under the superintendence of Tilo MAS SULLY. Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the leiters of the adopted son of Washington. GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK CUS-TIS, who says, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original." and to CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says. of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says.

As a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike every one who sees it; and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued appears to me to be an exact likeness representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face. And says SENATOR CASS, it is a life-like representation of the great original FRESIDENT FILLMORE says. The work appears to me to have been admirably executed and work appears to me to have been admirably executed and and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates."

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the fellowing Artists, Statesmen, Jurists and Scholars accompanying it.

HOW GENERAL PIERCE RECEIVED THE NEWS OF HIS ELECTION. - A letter from Concord, N. H., to the Union, says the democrats of that place became wild with delight on Tuesday night on receiving the news of the election of Gen Pierce, and that the president elect was apparently the only self-possessed, calm and quiet man in the place on that night. He received the victorious bulletins announcing his success with scarcely a change of countenance, and soon after quietly retired to bed. The letter adds :

with their only child, a smart boy of a dozen summers, they board in the private family of W. Williams, a respectable citizen engaged in the extensive manufactory at this place of coaches, omnibuses, and railroad cars. The house is a most beautiful frame building shaded by a line of noble old elm trees. We attended the "South Church" (Conand General Pierce was there as usual, Wednesday afternoon for a day's visit to his brother at Hillsborough.

INSUBORDINATION. - Since the abolition of flogging in the merchant marine, with out the substitution of any other efficient punishment, there has been a growing spirit of insubordination, which, if not speedily checked, will inflict a fatal blow ipon our commercial prosperity. In our police report will be found an account of a revolt on board the packet ship New York, just cleared for Liverpool, which has resulted in the arrest of six of the offenders, and the consequent detention of the vessel in the stream, with 60 passengers on board. The laws which protected sailors on boad of merchant vesseis from abuse, have always been liberally in terpreted in their favor, and they have been almost uniformly well treated, with likely to remain unclaimed, a monument the largest liberty consistent with the maintenance of order and the discipline necessary to work ship. But since the abolition of the cat, a large portion of those who ship for service, and draw their advance, seem to think that the only rule for their conduct is their own caprice. This results disastrously for the owners, while at the same time it exerts an evil influence upon the sailor himself. - Journal of Com-
