GRAND LITERARY AND ARTISTIC COMBINA-

Arrangements have been made to furnish the Knicker-bocker Magazine, the Home Journal, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers for five dollars a year! This is cheap literature, with a vengeance.

The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 $2; and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark, it is unnecessary to speak. For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceded it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris, and N. P. HERE IS YOUR REMEDY! HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT A most Miraculous cure of Bad Legs, after 4: Year's Suffering.

Extract of Letter from Mr. Wm. Galpin. of 70 St. Mary' Street. Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851. To Professor Holloway: Sir-At the age of 18, my wife (who is now 61) caught violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since the time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflam ed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months togeth er she was deprived entirely of restand sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised, was tried, but without of fect—her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your advertisments, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, she is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scar. and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last forty-three years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly deed feel delighted in naving occurrenture.

Sir—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg. the result of two or three different accidents at the Gas Works, accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had resource to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amoutated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would not credit the fact

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. England, Chemist. 13 Market street, Huddersfield. A Dreadful Bad Breast Cured in One Month Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Pen shurst. dated December 13th. 1850.

To Professor Holloway : Dear Sir: My wife had suffered from bad breasts more tha six months, and during the whole period had the best medi cal attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed ar awful wound in my own legs by your unrivalled medicine I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case: and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use, is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. The Pills should be taken conjointly with the Ointment

A NEW WAY TO MAKE LINEN. We heard the other day of a new process for "obtaining" shirts. It is Parisian. A French gentleman walks into a "depot" at the hour when the head-with-the-mustachois of the family is taking gumbo in the back parlor, and asks the smiling lady with curls, if she has some extra super-line shirts. Of course. The French gentleman has such a tender regard for his wife's taste-is so uncertain about the shirts passable appearance when "on" (shirts are so deceptive) that the smiling lady with curls is i du el to take one rom the bundle on the counter and put it on over her dress, for the French gentleman to see how beautiful it is. The French gentleman is delighted and turns the smiling lady with curls around and around, but manages to pin the shirt in a half dozen places securely to the smiling lady's dress. Having done this the French gentleman deliberately picks up the bundle on the counter, and making a flourishing bow, walks out of the establishment to the astonishment of the late smiling lady. The French gentleman makes his last nod at the street door, and the lady of the store aware that something is wrong makes a step forward in pursuit. No true thorough-bred French woman will ever appear publicly, in an unbecoming dress, so the no longer smiling lady makes a desperate and rash effort to take off the shirt. In a moment she can see nothing The head-with-the-mustachois of the family enters alarmed at the now smothered screams of his wife. It takes filteen minutes for the enraged lady to be disengaged from the labyrinth of linen and muslin and pins she has got into - to take ing and purview of this Act be and the breath-to relate the facts to her astonished and wrathful husband and to burst into a flood of tears. - The French gentleman is far away with a bundle under his arm.
