

ORTH CAROLINIAN.
K. Bryan, Editor and Proprietor.
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.
SATURDAY, MAY 14, 1853.

Subscribers in arrears will please remit their respective amounts by mail.

We are requested to announce that D. K. McRae, Esq., will address the people of Cumberland, on Tuesday of County Court week.

We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs Leonard Scott & Co., for the April number of the London Quarterly Review.

The Spring Term of Cumberland Superior Court will be held in this place during the next week. The meeting of the State Medical Society, of the Cumberland Agricultural Association, and of the Stockholders of the Bank of Fayetteville, will also take place during the same week.

A democratic meeting was held at Greenville, in Pitt co, on the 3d inst. Resolutions were passed, endorsing the principles of the democratic party, & recommending a convention to be held at Newbern, on the 9th June next, for the purpose of selecting a democratic candidate for Congress. Col. Thomas Ruffin was indicated as the first choice of the Democracy of Pitt.

The Wilmington papers publish two letters, one from the Magistrate of Police to Prof. Buche, the other a reply to the first, by which we learn that the sum of sixty thousand dollars has been subscribed, by citizens of Wilmington, to the work of deepening the bar, and is to be placed at the disposal of the Government whenever required.

BISHOP OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—Rev. Thomas F. Davis, D. D., was on the 6th inst. elected Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Diocese of South Carolina. Mr. Davis is a native of Wilmington, N. C., and for several years previous to his entrance upon the labors of the ministry, practiced law successfully in the circuit in which he resided. After his assumption of clerical duties, he preached for several years in Salisbury, and was, in 1846, called to the charge of Grace Church, Camden, S. C., where he has since remained. His great ability and pure christian character, eminently qualify him for the duties of his new position.

HON. ANDREW JOHNSON, of Greenville, East Tennessee, has been unanimously nominated by the Democratic State Convention, as a candidate for Governor of Tennessee. Mr. Johnson is a native of North Carolina, and commenced life a mechanic in very humble circumstances, and without education. By great energy of character, superior natural abilities, and an honest political course, he has placed himself in a very high position before the country. He has for several sessions represented his district in Congress with ability. Under his leadership the democrats of Tennessee are sanguine of success.

HON. DAVID OUTLAW has been nominated by the whig district convention as a candidate to represent the first district in Congress. Mr. Outlaw was one of the lukewarm class of whigs who supported Gen. Scott reluctantly. Mr. Miller will now have another fitting opportunity to put a severe castigation to his party, for putting forward those who co-operated with so little zeal with the great body of the whigs in the late Presidential election.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS IN MISSISSIPPI.—The following nominations have been made by the Democratic Party in Mississippi: For governor—John I. McKee. For the senate—C. F. Hemingway. For auditor—Madison McAfee. For secretary of State—W. C. Muse. For attorney General—D. C. Glen. For fifth congressional district—Wm. Barksdale. For third congressional district—O. H. Singleton. This ticket is said to be a compromise between the Union and State-rights democrats.

A DREADFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT, happened at Newark, Conn., on the 6th inst. The morning train of cars from New York on the New Haven railroad, ran off the drawbridge and was precipitated into the river, having on board about one hundred passengers. It is said that the engineer is chiefly to blame, he having neglected the signal displayed by the bridge-tender. He has been arrested. Between fifty and sixty dead bodies have been recovered, and there is a large number of wounded. The details of this dreadful affair are horrible in the extreme. It seems that the drawbridge was raised to let the steam-boat Pacific pass. Before it was lowered again the cars were heard rapidly approaching. At this time the bell which is used as a signal was down, indicating that the place was not in a condition to be passed. The engineer, heedless of the signal, passed on. He discovered the danger, however, in time to save his own life by jumping from the train. All the employees of the company escaped without serious injury.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS. Our readers will perceive in another column of this paper, a card from D. K. McRae, Esq., of Wilmington, in which he announces himself a candidate for Congress, in this district. Mr. McRae is a gentleman of talents and distinction, and has heretofore acted with the democratic party. We regret that he has seen proper to place himself in an attitude of opposition to that tried and faithful public servant, the Hon Wm. S. Ashe. Mr. Ashe has, in our opinion, strong claims upon the democracy of the district for re-election. He was first brought out four years ago by a convention of democrats, assembled for the purpose of concentrating the party strength upon a proper person. He was duly elected. A second time he was elected, and without opposition. He now comes before the people of the district for the third time asking their endorsement of his course as their representative. If he has discharged the high duties of his position ably and faithfully he ought to be returned. We believe that he has done this,—that he has been one of the most useful and efficient representatives we have ever had.

The candidates will, we suppose, address the people of the different counties during the ensuing summer.

GOLD IN TEXAS.—The Journal of Commerce contains a telegraphic despatch, dated New Orleans, May 7th, which states that great excitement prevails in Texas, by reason of the discovery of rich deposits of gold in Hamilton Valley, on the Colorado River. The laborers in the mines are represented as making from $5 to $10 per day. The farmers of the surrounding country are quitting their farms for the mines. The country, for a hundred miles around has been examined and found to contain rich deposits in every direction, said to be equally rich with the best in California.

If all this turns out to be true, it will considerably affect the value of slave property,—already at a comparatively high figure. If a negro man can make $5 per day, by working in a Texas gold mine, how long will it take him to make his weight in gold? Verily it would seem that in proportion as Northern and British negro fanaticism becomes more rampant, Providence develops new ties to bind the institution of slavery to the people of the South.

PROFESSOR EMMONS.

A communication appeared in the Fayetteville Observer of the 5th inst., over the signature of "Australis," in which allusion is made to certain rumors in circulation, prejudicial to the gentleman whose name heads this article. A suitable occasion being thereby afforded, Professor Emmons replies in the Observer of the 9th, refuting the charges in circulation against him.—He denies having neglected the agricultural interests for the mining, and states the fact that he spent six months in the lower counties examining the soils and native fertilizers. During that time, complaints frequently reached him, to the effect that he was neglecting the mining interests. Now that he is engaged in the mining districts, complaints are in circulation that he is neglecting the agricultural interests. He admits his inability to please everybody precisely in everything.

The main charge alluded to by "Australis," is that Prof. E. is leagued with speculators in the purchase of mines. This charge, he says, has no foundation in truth. He also denies having been employed to secure lands for the Rothschilds. He says that he has acted invariably with the view of bringing capital into the State. He considers that one of the most beneficial effects likely to result from the survey.—He argues that the development of the mineral resources of the back country will react in the most favorable manner on the agricultural, by giving a home market for the products of the farmer.

Prof. E. also alludes to the fact that by some it seems to be expected that he will remain in the field throughout the year. This he says is impossible, and would be unprofitable. He stipulated with the Governor to perform 5 months' service in the field. The remainder of the year he has spent in the laboratory analyzing soils, &c.

We have only presented a meagre outline of Prof. E's letter. We regret that the pressure on our columns does not admit of its entire publication.

CUSTOM HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.

F. N. Waddell, Permanent Inspector and Deputy Collector, in place of C. W. Bradley, resigned.

John C. Bowden, Permanent Inspector at Depot, in place of D. A. Fleming, removed.

Wm. T. J. Vann, Weigher and Gauger, Vice F. V. Wann, removed.

Uriah Sullivan, Richard Simpson, and Jesse W. Dicksey, Temporary Inspectors, in place of R. W. Brown, Jr., Robt H. Wright, and S. H. Martin, removed.

Dr. Wm. A. Berry, Hospital Physician, in place of Dr. Wm. W. Harris, removed.

J. W. Galloway, Boarding Officer, in place of R. B. Potter, deceased.—Wil Journal.

The Bank of Wadesborough declared a dividend on the 3rd inst. of 4 per cent for the last six months, payable on the 16th instant.

The following Board of Directors was elected for the ensuing year, to wit: W. R. Leak, Geo. W. Little, S. W. Cole, J. White, N. D. Boggan, Jas. A. Leak and Philip G. Smith.

W. R. Leak was re-elected President and H. B. Hammond, Cashier.—Wadesborough Argus.

John Anthony Winston has been nominated for Governor of Alabama by the Democratic State Convention.

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.—A Washington despatch to the N. Y. Courier says:—

The revenue receipts from Boston, New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New Orleans for the month of March, was five millions seven hundred and sixty-six thousand dollars; for April four millions four hundred and ninety two thousand dollars; total for two months, ten millions one hundred and fifty eight thousand dollars, which is at the rate of thirty-three per cent. The revenues of the year from all sources will exceed sixty millions of dollars.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD-FELLOWS.

The Grand Lodge of the State met here yesterday forenoon. The attendance of delegates was unusually full, almost every Subordinate Lodge in the State being represented. We learn that the chief business transacted yesterday was the acceptance by the Grand Lodge of the Degree of Rabeccah; the election of Grand Master, in the person of P. G. Jones, of Plymouth, we believe, and the passage of resolutions containing an appropriate tribute to the memory of a deceased and much lamented brother of the Order, Col. W. E. Anderson. Brother Walter L. Steele, of Richmond, made some feeling and eloquent remarks upon the occasion. The Grand Master and Grand Treasurer, as well as the representatives to the Grand Lodge of the United States, submitted their respective reports. The affairs of the Order appear to be in a sound and healthy condition, but without any marked accession of members during the past year.—Wilmington Journal.

Correspondence of the London Times.

"TABLE MOVING" IN VIENNA.

A few days since the Augsburg Gazette contained a letter on "Table Moving," which immediately excited a mixed feeling of curiosity and incredulity here. Curiosity, however, prevailed, and for the last three days the Viennese have thought and spoken of nothing but the new American discovery. Of the innumerable experiments made, many have been unsuccessful. An eye-witness states that on Sunday afternoon five members of our Juridico Political Reading Union—men of different ages; seated themselves around a small table, with double feet, and formed the magnetic chain, according to the instructions given by Dr. Andree, of Bremen, in the above mentioned letter. In an hour and a quarter the rotary motion commenced. The experiment was made in the presence of fifty persons.

The Wiener Zeitung, yesterday evening, made mention of two other cases, in both of which the tables were broken. Yesterday evening the experiment was tried in my presence at the house of a friend. A round veneered dining table, having three stout legs, resting on one base, was placed on the "parquetted" floor (Dr. Andree recommends a carpet of the room). Round the table three ladies and five gentlemen placed themselves, and formed a magnetic chain, which is effected by each person laying his hands lightly on the margin of the table and placing the little finger of his right hand on that of his neighbor's left. The chairs must be a foot apart, and care taken that none of the dresses come in contact. The feet must not touch the table. All rings and bracelets in the case now related were removed.

After the experiment had lasted about an hour, the table began to exhibit an almost imperceptible undulating movement. Some minutes after it was convulsively jerked to the right and left, and finally it turned to the right on its own axis with such velocity that the persons forming the chain, who had in the meantime risen, were obliged to run in order to keep pace with the new-fashioned locomotive. The movement was so violent that the by-standers were soon obliged to relieve the original actors. When one person left the chain and another entered, there was a slight interruption of the electric stream, but in two or three minutes the table was dancing about the room as before.

In the course of the experiment, which altogether lasted two hours and a quarter, it became evident that some persons possess far greater magnetic powers than others. I, when a chain had been formed, the table seemed disinclined to continue its exertions, one gentleman, a man of great strength and size, could always immediately arouse its dormant energies. This circumstance induced some persons to fancy that, by pressing the palms of his hands forcibly on the table, he gave it an artificial impetus; but, to convince them that such was not the case, he hooked his little fingers into those of his neighbors, and barely touched the table with the tips of his thumbs. If the dress of any link in the chain was touched, the electric fluid escaped, and the table stood still; and the same effect was produced if it was touched by a bystander.

The sensations experienced by the sentimentalists before the magnetic fluid was equally distributed through all the links of the chain were very different, but the most common were heat, tingling, and pulsation in the hands and arms, and pains in the head. In two cases ladies fainted; but this is hardly calculated to excite surprise, as there is something weird in the whole affair. An agent of the police, who suddenly found himself in the presence of a society of table-movers in expectation, would probably take them for a gang of conspirators just swearing fidelity to each other. Successful table-movers—that is, those in action, are like so many wild witches and warlocks. After quitting the above mentioned house, I went to the Mercantile Club, where an unsuccessful trial was made. On leaving the chain one of the gentlemen affirmed that his watch had gone backwards during the experiment." The assertion caused considerable hilarity at the time, but my own watch, which is known to Dent, of Charging cross, as a capital one, went 27 minutes too late this morning.

MEXICAN INTELLIGENCE.

By late private advices from Mexico, we learn that none but the most gloomy apprehensions prevail there in regard to the future of that unhappy country. Nothing is really expected from Santa Anna's return by way of removing the existing disorders. Indeed it is anticipated that treason lurks in the bosom of the very men who have professedly encouraged his return, and that he is more likely to be the speedy victim of assassination than to achieve any new honors in his public career. Being the ablest man of the country, and the richest, outside the priesthood, he is more feared and hated than any other. It is known that he has harbored the idea of confiscating the landed property of the Church, and using the proceeds to discharge the public debt, to reassure the public credit, and build a foundation upon which to plant some hopes of the future. He is thus suspected by the only real power in Mexico—that of the priesthood. The difficulties of his position are so great, let him take what course he will, that no faith is anywhere manifested in his ability to retrieve the fallen fortunes of the nation. The expectations of all are vague, and no hope seems to animate any bosom but that the country may fall under the dominion of some foreign power.—N. Y. Tribune.

A NEW COURSE OF TRADE.

In one of our Wholesale Dry Goods houses, a few days ago, we saw a number of bales and boxes of goods, purchased by a merchant in the country, which were to be shipped to Wilmington, and thence on the Wilmington & Manchester Railroad to their destination.—Fayetteville Observer.

CURIOUS SPANISH OPINIONS OF THE U. STATES.

The Madrid Clamor Publico of the 12th February has the following paragraph in its diplomatic review:— "While we contemplate the deplorable political situation of the nations of Europe and the misfortunes which menace them, we turn our eyes instinctively to lands beyond the Atlantic. The republic of the United States is, in truth, the star which in the end must guide modern society, and a long time cannot elapse before the capital of the land of Washington will be the capital of the world. The time has passed when, separated from Europe by a wide ocean it had no influence on our destinies. Electric telegraphs and ships driven by rarefied air, a recent great discovery, will draw closer together and unite as parts of one body, the five great known systems of the world. * * * Before such a generous system, before acts of such immense importance, how petty seem present projects to deprive the people of their already estimated rights."

WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The National Intelligencer, in noticing the reception, at the national capital, of two handsomely sculptured blocks of stone, one to represent the City of New York, and the other the State, in the monument, says that each cost $3,000, and that if the amount of money expended in New York State for blocks of this kind had been sent to the Monument Association instead, it would have added some nine or ten feet to the height of the great structure now in progress, and at the same time have finished slabs calculated to answer the same end as those which have been contributed. The suggestion is worthy of the consideration of all who are preparing blocks of stone for the monument, as the amount of funds is not so large as it ought to be.

A horrible calamity has just occurred in Paris, and it may be well to make it known, as such accidents ought to serve as examples. A gentleman, feeling a slight itching in his ear, took up a friction match in order to dispel it. In the ardor of a conversation he was sustaining he introduced the sulphurous end; the contact soon produced ignition, and the downy lining of the ear caught fire; a portion of the sulphur adhered to the flesh, and burnt there persistently. The unfortunate man never spoke again. His sufferings were so agonizing that his tongue became powerless; and, after two days' torment and unavailing efforts of the surgeons he died.
