Atlantic. FROM CALIFORNIA.

The steamer Northern Light arrived at New York on the 24th from California. Mining continued prosperous, and large amounts of gold were being obtained.

A duel was on the tanis between Senator Gwin and Mr McCorkle, member of Congress. They were to fight at six paces with pistols. A fire occurred in San Francisco on the S1st ult., which destroyed property to the amount of $30,000. The ship Jamestown had arrived at San Francisco from China with later advices. Her dates are to April 6th. Her captain reports that the rebels had been driven away from the walls of Nankin, and terrific slaughter followed. The dead and wounded were literally piled one on top of the other. The government, it was believed, would finally triumph.
