AT THE RED SIGN.
McDONALD & McMASTER
have just received a full and complete stock of GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, &c. to which they invite the attention of the citizens and surrounding country. They will sell low for cash, or on time to punctual customers. They purchased their goods for cash, and this will enable them to sell low. They have facilities that many houses have not: they have agents established in Baltimore and New York, who always advise them of any change in articles in their line, and who purchase only when bargains are to be had. We keep always on hand a splendid assortment of Foreign and Domestic Wines, Port, Champagne and brown sugars; Rio, Java and Laguira coffee; green, Hesson and black teas; New Orleans and Cuba molasses; table & sack salt; bacon, lard, mess pork, mess beef, smoked beef, dried veal; No. 1, 2 and 3 macaroni; butter, cheese, flour, meal, corn, oats, tobacco, candles, coppers, saltpetre, molasses, madder, spice, pepper, ginger nutmeg, cinnamon, and a variety of other goods.
They take this method of thinking the community and their country friends for the very liberal patronage bestowed on them; and intend, by selling goods low, to increase their former trade—always keeping in view that a nimble squire is worth a slow shilling.
They have a new building, between the Market House and the Bank of the State, Gillespie Street, Fayetteville, N. C.
March 29th, 1853.

The Largest Carriage Factory in the South!
A. A. McKEITHAN
RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has built up large substantial Brick Buildings at his old Stand, expressly for manufacturing Carriages. Thankful for the very liberal patronage he has received for the last 21 years, he hopes by strict attention to business, with a desire to give satisfaction, to merit a continuance of the same. He warrants his work to be made of the best material and by experienced workmen in each branch of the business. His work will compare favorably with any made in the United States, for neatness and durability.
He is determined to sell and do any work in his line on as good terms as any work done elsewhere in this section. He now has on hand, finished, the LARGEST STOCK of ever offered in this section. A large stock of work nearly finished, which will be finished daily. All of which will be sold very low for cash, or on short time to punctual customers. He has on hand more than ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY Vehicles finished and in course of construction.
All work made by him is warranted 12 months with fair usage, and should it fail by bad workmanship or material will be repaired free of charge.
Persons wishing to buy would do well to call and examine for themselves.
Orders thankfully received and promptly attended to.
Repairing executed at short notice and on very reasonable terms.
June 1, 1853.

NEW GOODS.
W. F. MOORE
Has received a large stock of Spring & Summer Goods, Consisting of
Ladies fine Dresses and Dress Trimmings, Bonnets, Shoes, &c.

NOTICE.
The late firm of AREY, L. & CO., either by note or account, are requested to call without delay and settle with the subscriber, at the stand occupied by the late firm above named, who will not attend to the 20th of July. All accounts will have to be received in full by that date, and no longer time positively cannot be given.
Persons indebted to the subscriber, on account, previous to the first of July, are respectfully invited to call and settle the same.
P. SHEMWELL,
July 9, 1853.

Spirits Turpentine Wanted.
The undersigned will pay cash for Spirits Turpentine, (in good order) allowing only a fair margin to pay incidental expenses in sending to a general market.
When parties prefer to ship on their own account, the undersigned will make liberal cash advances for a usual commission on Spirits and Rosin placed in their hands for shipment, giving the owner always the option to sell in Wilmington or ship to New York.
GEO. W. WILLIAMS & CO.,
July 9, 1853.

REMOVAL.
We have removed to the large fire-proof brick store lately occupied by Simpson, House, Esq., one door west of Messrs J. & T. Waddill, on Hay Street, where we shall receive in a few days, large additions to our early Spring purchases.—Our stock of Dry Goods, Hats, Shoes, Boots, Ready-made Clothing, Umbrellas, &c., was selected expressly for the WHOLESALE TRADE.
Merchants are requested to give our goods an examination before purchasing.
STARR & WILLIAMS,
May 7, 1853.

To Distillers and Shippers of TURPENTINE.
The undersigned having completed his large and commodious Warehouse, situated on the River Bank, at Fayetteville, is now prepared to receive Spirits Turpentine in Storage. He expects to devote his sole attention to the business, and those who store their Spirits with him, may depend upon his being in the Warehouse every day, so as to detect any leakage that may occur. Having a good cover always on the roof, he will be able to make it an object to those who engage in the manufacture as well as to shippers to patronize him. All Spirits received in good order, will be kept so free from water and dross, as to be fit for use.
Merchants buying the article will save much trouble and expense by sending it directly to the Warehouse for inspection.
Persons having a good cover always on the roof, and interested or concerned in any of the above, will call on the undersigned as directed by the owner or shipper.
ISIAM BLAKE,

JOHN TAYLOR, Secy.,
Aldersville, Robeson Co., July 9, 1853.

Notice to Turpentine Distillers.
I have now on hand a number of Spirit Barrels, made of the best seasoned material, and by good workmen. And am making about eighty barrels per week. Those wanting will do well to give me a call.
T. R. UNDERWOOD,
July 9, 1853.

Coal Interest for Sale.
The Subscriber is anxious to dispose of his interest in the Chalmers Coal Field, embracing one-half the interest conveyed to Dr. B. C. Williams by Dr. Charles Chalmers, and conveyed by said Williams to myself. This Field covers the Horse-shoe Bend of Deep River, and is thought by good judges to be the most promising Field in Chatham County. The interest offered for sale is one-fourth of the whole mineral interest on the entire Chalmers tract.
M. M. McKAY,
Sommerville, July 9, 1853.

NOTICE.
We are determined, during this summer and the coming fall, to bring our business more to a focus. Persons indebted to us, will be interested in this arrangement, and to save costs they would do well to call soon and settle.
J. & T. WADDILL,
July 2.

Town Lots for Sale.
I will offer for sale at public Auction, on Saturday the 30th of July next, a number of TOWN LOTS, situated on Fair Bluff, N. C., adjoining and between Lumber River and the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, (to which point and beyond, the Road is now completed), and also adjoining the public roads leading one to Conwayboro, S. C. the other to Marion Court House, S. C. The location of these lots are decidedly the handsomest about Fair Bluff. Come one, come all that want lots, and judge for yourselves. Twelve months credit, with interest from date, bond and approved security, before the title is made.
A. F. POWELL,
July 10, 1853.

THE RAIL ROAD SURVEY.
We learn that the Engineers have on Saturday afternoon last, at 2 o'clock, reached within a mile and a half of Deep River, and probably got to the river that evening. The line run, as a baseline, beginning at the Cape Fear river below the Clarence Bridge, skirting the river to the mouth of Cross Creek, and thence through the Northern part of this town, a straight course to Deep River, is about 4 1/2 miles long—about 4 1/4 from the centre of the straight line to the river.
30 miles from town and 20 miles from 30 miles from town. It will reach Deep River about half a mile above the Gulf. After the completion of this base line, others will probably be run at each end of the route, to ascertain what will be the best point of approach to Deep River, and of entrance to the town of Fayetteville.—
Fayetteville Observer.

IMPORTANT!!!
DAGUERREOTYPES!!!
Secure the Sadow are the Substance Fades.
The subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of Fayetteville that he has taken the room formerly occupied by T. O. Smith, (Beal & Kyle's building) where he will remain for a short time, and respectfully solicits a call from the citizens whether they wish pictures or not.
He is provided with the most approved apparatus for taking large and beautiful sections of Cases, France, Lockets, Pins, &c., in which he will place Pictures, single or in groups of almost any number, and warrant them to be taken in the BEST STYLE OF THE ART, and NEVER TO FADE. Full notice shall be given, and opportunity is afforded you, to secure that which may not be purchased after the loved Parent, Husband, Wife, Child or Friend shall have passed away, namely: A CORRECT AND UNFAADING LIKENESS, which can now be obtained at so little trouble and expense, by calling at the subscriber's room.
Once more I say—Give me a call, sit for your picture, and in no case are you expected to take it unless entirely satisfactory.
Particular attention paid to the taking of Children, which is done in a few seconds. He is also prepared to take the likenesses of the sick or deceased, which will be done at their residences. Oil Paintings, Engravings, Daguerreotypes, &c., correctly copied.
J. W. WALDEN, Daguerreotypist,
N. B.—Ladies are requested to dress in light or dark material, avoiding white light, blue or pink. A scarf should always be pinned across the picture, and a black or dark handkerchief and cravat, so that the bosom be not too much exposed. For Children, plain, striped or figured dresses are worn. Rings and watches to be taken off.

STORIS FOR RENT.
Will be rented at public Auction, on Saturday, July 25th, at 12 o'clock, the following Stores, Ware-houses, and Dwellings, belonging to the Estate of John K. McGuire, deceased—to-wit:

TOBACCO SEED OIL.—Foreign papers state that a British resident in Russia, who is a member of the Imperial Geographical Society of that country, and gardener to His Excellency, General Vsevolodsky, near Kizlior, has found, by experiment, that the seed of the tobacco plant contains about fifteen per cent of an oil that has superior desiccative qualities, which may be employed with advantage in paints and varnishes. The process of extraction is said to be simple and easy, requiring only a reduction of the seed to powder, which is to be kneaded into a stiff paste, with a sufficient quantity of hot water, and afterwards submitted to the action of a very strong press. The oil, when expressed, is exposed to a moderate heat, which coagulating the vegetable albumen of the bottom of the vessel, leaving the oil in a perfectly clear and limpid state.

THE JOLLY GOOD FELLOW.
In the course of our rather erratic life, we have met with a great many of this class of men, and have generally found them shallow in mind, and superficial in friendship. They are blessed with great digestive power, and tremendous capacity for drinking, and, when you come seriously to analyze them, you will find their principal virtues are the result of a constitution almost proof against the effects of indigestion of eating and drinking. He is especially noted in relation to matters pertaining to the sporting world. It is the time which all the celebrated horses have made—can tell you all the fishing grounds in the neighborhood of fifty miles, and put you up to a thousand of those knowing dodges about other matters which help to complete the education of the man about town. Dine with him, and you will soon see what it is to be a jolly good fellow. The waiters at the restaurants know him, for although he seldom spends any money of his own, he is a most capital decoy-duck, and few keepers of houses of refreshment but are willing to give him the run of their places on account of his reputation as a diner out and good fellow.
The jolly good fellow is no fool. He is rather a genius than otherwise, for he lives, moves, and has his being through the weakness and folly of others. He professes to be profound in his knowledge of the world; and young men just coming out are very apt to be attracted by his off hand manner and apparent familiarity with all that is passing in the great world. They, innocent boys, imagine there is a sort of elation in being hand-and-glove with a man who receives the deference of waiters, the smiles of prostitutes, and the friendly nods of notorious men about town. We should say to the young man starting in life—never, if you can help it, form the association of a fellow who has got the reputation of being a jolly good fellow. Rum is the spirit of friendship, and a dinner, which he will leave you to pay for, is the only substantial form in which his good-will is presented.

SINGULAR RE-UNION.
The New York Express tells the following romance of real life. Truth is often stranger than fiction?
"I remember the countess residing in this town girl. They are married, and in due time are blessed with a smiling cherub—a pledge of their mutual affection. But the course of true love never did run smooth, as frequently after the consummation of the marriage relations as before they are entered upon. Business calls the gentleman to Europe, and the same cause delays his return for a long time. Meanwhile, slander, with her hundred eyes and ears, is busy at work. The absent husband is charged with infidelity. The lady becomes indignant, applies to the Courts, and sues out a divorce with five thousand dollars as alimony, which is immediately paid over by the friends of the absent husband. The lady, having yesterday become of age, (21 years), comes before the Court, asking that the above mentioned sum be paid to herself, which was of course granted. But in the midst of all this legal warfare the husband returns, seeks an interview with his former wife, explains away all that had been said to his disadvantage, and a second time the happy couple sought the steps of the altar, and a second time the knot was tied, and we resume firmly enough this time to last for the rest of their lives."
