And the wind's delicious tone; he cool pellucid nights that droop From the thin rim of the moon; The orbing hours that softly loop The daylight and the noon;

The long all-dreamful days that slid From the wings of summer time, Like a maiden beneath whose languid lid Stole the picture of rhyme-

A picture drawn by an olden rhyme, As it rang within her ears, Of the golden, glossy snumer time And the armed chevaliers.

Who with the lawe and bossy shield, Like the silver dripping rain, Went down to the crimson battle-field And never returned brain or all that's beautiful is a spell To gother up dreathful things, and to at old rhymes have a kindred swell whirl of the summer's wing;

And sorrow hath beauties like the shade Of the deep sequestered wood.

The lillies bloom by the water's side, And the leaves drop on the stream; They float along on the sable tide, Like the bright barques of a dream;

And the joys drop from the lily stem On the waves of life below, And still we gather each former gem From the wavelets as we go.

So sweet are the joys that memory hath For those who wander alone, Or they fall like sunbeams over a path Where the light has rarely shone. All that is beautiful hath a charm,

That is nigh akin to love. Which into the heart comes soft and warm As a blessing from above.

A pearl-white flower with streaks of red, A violet in the grove. However hidden, hath often said That the world is full of love.

For a love still lingers in every grove, And a dream on every hill: Though sorrow hath shadows over love, Yet the spirit lingers still-

Shadows as over a tranquil stream In the warm and silver noon, When the laggard cloudlet stops to dream In the merriest days of June.

And ever and ever through day or night The kindliest blessings rove; The sun goes down and the moon comes up,

And the world is full of love.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Respectfully morms his friends and the public, that he has built up to substantial Brick Buildings at his Old Stand, expressly for manufacturing Carriages. Thankful for the very liberal patronage he has received for the last 21 years, he hopes by strict attention to business, with a desire to give satisfaction, to merit a cordinance of the same. He warrants his work to be a cordinance of the same. He warrants his work to be a cordinance of the same. He warrants his work to be a cordinance of the same. He warrants his work will compare favorably with any made in the United States, for neatness and durability.

He is determined to sell and do any work in his line on as good terms as any work done elsewhere that is as well done. He now has on hand, finished, the largest stock of CARRIAGES, BAROUCHES, ROCKAWAYS, AND BUGGIES, ever offered in this place, and a very large stock of work nearly finished, which will be sold very low for Cash, or on short time to punctual customers. And the has on hand more than ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY Vehicles finished and in course of construction.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERFO LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Prescot St., Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway:

Sir: Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sales of Proprietary Medicines, for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me let you know the circumstances of her case, She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose she had great relief. She configued to take them, and although she used only three boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the severity or the attrack, and the s your astonishing Pills.

To Professor Holleway:

Sir—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and not withstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered by their means comparatively active and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

STABLER'S DIARREGEA CORDIAL Is a pleasant Mixture, compounded in agreement with the rules of Pharmacy, of the rap ut c agents, long known and celebrated for their picular charcy in curing diarrhea, and similar affect one of the syst m.

In its action, it aliays nausea and produces a healthy condition of the liver, thus removing the cause at the same time that it cores the disease. The valuable Medicines above named have recently been introduced, with the approval of a number of the medical profession in the city of baltimore and cise-where, and in practice have succeeded most admirably in curing the diseases for which they are prescribed. They are offered to the Country Professioner, as medicones which he can in all respects depend upon, as prepared in agreement with the experience of some of the most learned and judicious Physicians, and strictly in conformity with the rules of Pharmacy, and as especially serving his convenience, who cannot so readily as the city Physician have his own prescriptions compounded y a practical Pharmaceutist. See the descriptive pamphlets, to be had grat's of all who have the Medicines for sale, containing recommendations from Doctors Mart n, Laltzell, Addison,

Dr. L. D Handy writes, "I have administered your Anodyne Expectorant, in several cases of Lronch at affection, with the most happy results, and knowledge of its admirable effects, I can with the greatest confidence recommend it," &c.

Dr. W S. Love writes to us that he has administered the Expectorant to his wife, who has had the Bronchitis for fourteen years, and that she is fast recovering from her long standing malady. It has in a few weeks done her more good than all the remedies, she has heretofore used under able medical counsel.

We now offer for sale that celebrated remedy, MORTIMER'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND & BLOOD PURIFIER, Which has goined such great Popularity wherever induced, as the only specific known for the effectual re of this painful disease. This remedy has already red thousands of cases, comprising every seeming form of this complaint, from the inflammatory (acute) form, attended with swellings and enlargement of the oints, to old chronic cases of from ten to twenty and thirty years' standing. Those who had for years resorted to the various celebrated springs, had tried all the niments and external applications, and been under reatment of some of the ablest physicians both in this country and Europe, and were pronounced incurable; till, after all these efforts had failed, this compound has ured them. Many who have been cripples, either hobling upon crutches or confined to their beds for years, ertify to a complete and permanent cure by the use of is remedy.

We have not space, in a newspaper advertsiement, to eat the small portion of the accumulated explance its behalf. This evidence comes from sources which ust inspire confidence in every mind. The constitutes rm of this complaint, from the inflammatory (acute)
