House of Representatives on the 8th December. Mr Ashe rose and said:

Mr Speaker : Having the honor to represent the county in which William R. King was born, and the larger portion of the district which first returned him as a member of this House-having enjoyed, in a manner grateful to my recollection, his friendship and confidence, and being at present the representative of a numerous and highly respectable kindred he left with us, I feel it a solemn duty that I should not allow the present occasion to pass without adding my humble but heartfelt testimonial to the truthfulness of the richly-deserved and high commendations which have been bestowed on him by the honorable gentlemen who have preceded me. After the indulgence of obsqueal griefs, which are a fit tribute to departed worth, the soul thirsts to immortalize, to assimilate to itself the the resolutions of the last National Democratic the son of the newly appointed Minister of noble and virtuous endowments of deceased | Convention : friends. detail of the manner in which this important aboard their single vessel and at last accounts ASHEBORO' MALE & FEMALE ACADEMIES. The Trustees of these Academics have placed them under the care of Rev. S. Colton. D. D., and Mrs Colton.

J. M. A. DRAKE. Sec'y of Board of Trustees. The subscriber having determined to remove from Summerville to Asheboro', the county seat of Randolph county, for the purpose of opening Schools as above in timated, takes this opportunity of making an appeal to the public for patronage in the business to be underkees, taking forcible possession of a province taken. Asheboro is not surpassed by any place as a extending over 10 degrees of latitude, and pro- healthy location. It is easy of access, as the F. & W. Plank Road passes directly through the town from Fayetteville to Salem, and a line of stages passes three times each week through the place from Raleigh to Salisbury. Without resorting to the pompous and pufring declarations so often accompanying advertisements morals, health, taste and condition of society, will compare well with any situation for a school, and that parents and guardians sending children there for education may have all confidence that they will be surrounded by a healthy and salutary influence. No pains will be spared in giving to the schools a high character. Both having had long experience in teaching in this State, and being well known in that capacity, they
