From the Boston Post.

The Ferry Boats of Gotham. The ferry boats of Gotham-How gloriously they glide, In the lamps of red and lamps of blue, Across the starless tide!

Through long defiles and blazing light On each street-studded shore; No sound to break the hush of night, Except the paddles' roar.

Around the island city lie, Encircling block and mart, Vast ships that rear against the sky A forest-growth of art; . And girdled thus with winged might, Though now the wings are furled. Manhattan is, what Venice was, The Sea Queen of the world!

Oh ferry boats-the argosies That tyrants launched of yore, To bring them gold, and gems, and spice, From India's plundered shore-Ne'er knew a freight so rich as this That thus, at close of day, To Brooklyn homes and social ease From business ve convev.

* Let Russia launch her birds of prey Against the Crescent Moon, And butcher in Sinope's bay The convoy of Batoon. Let France and England, holding back, Deny the help they swore, Until the Sca that once was Black Is red with Turkish gore.

But ye, undaunted ferry boats, Your pathless course pursue ;-Nor any nobler navy floats, Nor manned by hearts more true! Your mission is to spread content, Love, joy and wealth to bear-Odds life! I havn't got a cent To pay my blessed fare!

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Brenchitis, Whooping-Cough, Croup, Asthma, and Consumption.

Of all the numerous medicines extant, (and some of them valuable) for the cure of pulmonary complaints nothing has ever been found which could compare in its effects with this Preparation.—Others cure some times, but at all times and in all dis eases of the lungs and throat where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant

This evidence comes from sources which must inspire confidence in every mind.
