"Old Land." "Old Land."]

Old England. There she sits in her Island-home, Peerless among her peers! And Liberty oft to her arms doth come To ease her poor heart of tears: Old England still throbs with muffled fire

Of a past she can never forget; And still shall she banner the world up higher, For, there's life in the Old Land yet, Hurrah! There's life in the Old Land vet. The great Hero-Mother's not heavy yet,

There is sap in the Saxon tree, And she lifteth a besom of glory vet. Through her mists to the sun and the sea, Fair as the queen of Love fresh frem the foam, Or a star in a dark cloud set: Ye may blazon her shame, ye may sneer at her fame, But there's life in the Old Land vet.

Herrah! There's life in the Old Land yet. They would scoff at her now, who of old look'd forth In their fear, when they heard her afar; Oh, but loud will your wail be, poor Kings of the Earth, When the Old Land goes down to the war! The avalanche trembles, half launched, and half riven. Her voice shall in motion be set: Then ring out the tidings, ye winds of heaven,

There's life in the Old Land yet.

Hurrah! There's life in the Old Land yet. Let the Storm burst, it will find the Old Land Ready-ripe for a rough, red fray! She will fight as she fought when she took her stand

For the Right in the oldeniday. Ah, rouse the old royal soul! Europe's best hope Is her sword-edge by Victory set! She shall dash Freedom's foes a-down Death's bloody slope. For there's life in the Old Land yet. Hurrah! There's life in the Old Land yet.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN YAN DIEMAN'S LAND.

Copy of a letter inserted in the Hebart Town Courier o the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Walch, Margaret McConnigan, 19 years of agr. residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent Rheumatic Fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs. During this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected a perfeet cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOWACE OF A PERSON S4 YEARS OF AGE. From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED.

We now offer for sale that celebrated remedy. MORTIMER'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND & BLOOD PURIFIER, Which has gained such great Popularity wherever introduced, as the only specific known for the effectual cure of this painful disease. This remedy has already cured thousands of cases, comprising every seeming form of this complaint, from the inflammatory (acute) form, attended with swellings and enlargement of the joints, to old chronic cases of from ten to twenty and thirty years' standing. Those who had for years resorted to the various celebrated springs, had tried all the liniments and external applications, and been under treatment of some of the ablest physicians both in this country and Europe, and were pronounced incurable; still, after all these efforts had failed, this compound has cured them. Many who have been cripples, either hobbling upon crutches or confined to their beds for years, certify to a complete and permanent cure by the use of

We have not space, in a newspaper advertsiement, to insert but a small portion of the accumulated evidence in its behalf. This evidence comes from sources which must inspire confidence in every mind. The conductors of high-toned public journals have published to the world its wonderful and beneficial effects upon themselves and those around them, and in some instances speak of hundreds of cures. Physicians have resorted to it, and certify that, even in extreme cases, where consultations had been held, and they had decided that there were no hopes of recovery, even then, they procured this medicine and administered it, and it effected a complete cure. Miniters of various denominations have written and published what it has done for themselves and their friends; while merchants, officers, mechanies, and private citizens, have furnished volumes of evidence of the highest character, such as accompanies no other preparation in America. We most respectfully ask those who are afflicted to send to the agent in their vicinity and get a c'rcular, and read the letters and certificates of Rev. Jas Mitchel, Rev Y. G. Berryman, J. M. Kelly, Rev R. A. Colburn, and other clergymen; while we add the names of Hon J ply of Iron Axles, Chains, Bolts, and in short, every Smith, late President of the Bank of the State of Missouri; Geo. O. Atherton, officer in the Bank in St. Louis; Messrs Jas. H. Eddy. S. Downing. A. Holland, C. W. Stone, J. W. Christy, Joseph Southack, with other prominent merchants of St. Louis, as also vast numbers of other citizens.

This is home evidence, and these are living witnesses, where this great remedy was first introduced, and where many thousands have been cured during the last two years. The propietors have now opened their Great Central Office at No. 1 Barelay street. (Astor House) in the city of New York, where all orders for this medicine will be promptly attended to. This is a vegetable spirit—an internal remedy, prepared and recommended for this one disease alone. This
