GILL'S NE PLUS ULTRA BURNISH.

The Subscriber, a practical Boot maker of some exgrience, has for some time been sensible that there is a lesideratum to be yet supplied to the public in the way above Stock an examination before making their selecof a suitable burnish for boots and shoes. Most of the tions, articles now used either injure the leather or fail to mount that lastre so necessary to give to man's " understanding" a proper finish. He has therefore, durng the last twelve months, been devoting himself to the task of preparing an article free from these objections, and has at length after much investigation and xperiment completely succeeded. The result is "Gill's ie plus ultra Burnish." He only wishes that it over all others.
