$25 REWARD.

On the 1st day of January, 1853, I hired a Boy named Robert to John A. Williams, Esq.; some time in Feb y following he left Mr Williams, and I had reason to be lieve was lurking in the Neighborhood of Fayetteville but now I believe he has been kidnapped or decoyed by some villain. Said Boy is of black complexion, is between 13 and 14 years old, quite an active good looking little fellow, and no doubt can tell a very plausible tale. I will give the above reward for his delivery to me, or coaliaement in any Jail, so that I get him again, or $50 if arrested out of the State so that I get JAS. EVANS, Guardian.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver to me my negro woman ANNA, who absconded about the 11th of November last, or for her continement in any jail in this State so that I can get friends and the public that he still continues in the Mil Wright business and all its branches, viz: foundering framing, and erecting Water or Steam Mills upon varions principles, either with simple or complicated machinery. He returns his thanks to the public for the liberal patronage he has received heretofore, and hopes by strict attention to business, and by giving general atisfaction, to merit a continuance of the same. He datters himself that his work will compete with that of any other machinist for speed and durability. All persons who want work done in the above line would do well to give him a call, as he has several competent workmen in his employ, and is prepared to execute all jobs at the shortest notice and on very reasonable terms. Orders promptly attended to. For further information address the subscriber at Johnstown, Moore county, terms as any house in this place. D. B. JOHNSON. November 16, 1853 y-ipd.

GILL'S NE PLUS ULTRA BURNISH.

The Subscriber, a practical Boot-maker of some experience, has for some time been sensible that there is a desideratum to be yet supplied to the public in the way of a suitable barnish for boots and shoes. Most of the articles now used either injure the leather or fail to impart that lustre so necessary to give to man's "un-derstanding" a proper finish. He has therefore, during the last twelve months, been devoting himself to Adapted to the approaching season. the task of preparing an article free from these objections, and has at length after much investigation and experiment completely succeeded. The result is "Gill's ne plus ultra Burnish." He only wishes that it may be tested in order to establish its superiority over all others. Call at M. Faulk's shop opposite Mr Lander's Marble Factory.
