ELECTIONS.

On Tuesday last elections were held in New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin...

In New York the election was for Governor, members of Congress, &c. So far as heard from...

The contest is close between Seymour and Barker, the Know-Nothing candidate for Mayor...

In the State of Illinois, Woodworth is elected to Congress in the Wentworth district.

But slight returns have been received from Wisconsin, which show Anti-administration gains.

In New Jersey the democrats lose everywhere. In this city at 12 o'clock to-day the returns received are very meagre.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8, 12 o'clock, M. In the State of Illinois, Woodworth is elected to Congress in the Wentworth district.

NEW JERSEY. Trenton, Nov. 7.—Returns indicate that the five fusion candidates for Congress are elected.

WISCONSIN. Milwaukee, Nov. 7.—As far as heard from, the indications are that the fusion ticket is successful throughout the State.

ILLINOIS. Chicago, Nov. 7.—As far as heard from, four fusion candidates for Congress are elected.

Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. The annual meeting of this railroad was held in Raleigh last week.

Company resolved to transport guano and other manures at a reduced rate; barely enough to pay expenses.

THE LATE STATE FAIR.—The Raleigh Spirit of the Age, speaking of the premiums awarded at the recent State Fair, says:

Complaint is made, and in some instances, justly, no doubt, that justice has not been given to many competitors.

BARNEY AND HEMLOCK.—The great humbug Barnum is publishing an account of his humbugging operations by which he has deceived the public and raised himself from penny to affluence.
