(Cause) we thrashed the Mexicans like blazes The "stars and stripes" float in the breeze Like spider webs upon the trees: Or when on ship masts it's a flyin'-Like wet shirts hung on poles-a dryin'.

Hail, glorious banner! may'st thou float Forever o're a people free, Till nations gather 'neath thy folds, Like-'possums 'neath a "simmon" tree.

H any other nation comes A blowin' fifes and beatin' drums, We'll hoist them "stars" and call old 'Zach, And beat the cut-throat rascals back.

Oh, may the stripes forever fly Like lurid lightning thro' the sky, Protect, defend, and guard our shore, Till "nations learn to war no more." ******************

Some ingenious rhymer has placed the following sayings in poetic order, the opposites in juxtaposition:

As wet as a fish - as dry as a hone; As live as a bird—as dead as a stone;

As plump as a partridge -- as poor as a rat As strong as a horse—as weak as a cat; As hard as a flint—as soft as a mole; As white as a lilly—as black as a coal;

As hot as an oven—as cold as a frog; As gay as a lark—as sick as a dog; As slow as a tortoise -- as swift as the wind: As true as the gospel—as false as mankind; As thin as a herring—as fat as a pig;

As proad as a peacock—as blue as a grig; As savage as tigers—as mild as a dove; As stiff as a poker—as limp as a glove; As blind as a bat—as deaf as a post;

The principles upon which it is claimed that the Chains produce their marvelous cures are, first-that all Nervous Diseases are attended and produced by a deficient supply of nervous fluid, and an agent that resembles closely electricity, or electro magnetism; and second -that the electro magnetic chains, by being worn over and upon the part and organ diseased, furnish to the exhausted nervous fluid which is required to produce a healthy action through the entire system. No disgusting nostrum is allowed to be taken while using the chains, but a rigid observance of the general | counts should be settled and they must be settled. laws of health are required. Brisk friction upon the part diseased adds much to the effects of the chains, by increasing their magnetic power.

ONE THOUSAND POLLARS will be given to any person who will produce so many well duthenticated certificates of Cure, both from in telligent patients and scientific physicians, as have been effected by the use of Pulvermacher's Electric Chains. They never fail to perform what they are advertised to do, and no person has ever been dissatisfied who has given them a trial.

IN FEMALE CASES more than one hundred permanent cures of Prolapsus Uteri have been effected within the last year by the use of these chains.
