THE NORTH CAROLINIAN, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

NORTH-CAROLINIAN.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Saturday, April 28, 1855.

find him in such bad health. Naturally a very merce and maintain the dignity and honor of Saunders on the merits of the presentment: considerably weakened and changed his general President, in order to accomplish this object, appearance, and impaired his constitution, desired to resort to war, unless compelled to do since we last had the pleasure of seeing him. so by unavoidable circumstances. Why the sincerely hope that this may be the case.

testimony of the press throughout the whole ed by the Cuban authorities. If this is correct, no doubt, will be happy to learn of the honor- out further trouble. able Secretay's complete restoration to health the councils of the nation. So mote it be. **************************

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING held in this place on Saturday last, was marked by a spirit which reminded us of former days when the gallant cracy is good enough for us, and that we are democracy of old Cumberland assembled to- unwilling to exchange it for any of the new gether for interchange of opinions and to organ- fangled notions or isms of the day ize for a contest with their then powerful enemy, the whig party. Although our whig friends have changed their colors, and assumed a new and the constitution." name, yet democrats recognize them, and are Messrs Jno. L. Holmes and Eli W. Hall, true democrats, and we think they will be en- against the secret party. dorsed by the people of the 3d Congressional District on election day.

Mr Fuller's speech on the oceasion was able Wilmington Journal says: ed no love for the secret party.

may rest assured that Cumberland will do her and all will be well.

College, Randolph county, in July.

under date of the 19th inst., says:

and but little rain for the last 10 months-less

THE WAR PROSPECT .- The excitement about

Action of a Grand Jury.

those of their members who offer to withdraw

G. J. D. GARRISON, JEREMIAN WEST,

JOHN MCMERRELL, U. WARREN,

The Grand Jury applied to the Judge for

CHARGE OF JUDGE SAUNDERS.

His Honor replied in substance, that it had been said by high authority, that few things

JOSEPH MILLER,

ELIJAH MORGAN,

JOS. BARNARD,

E. HEREN.

A. M. GUDGER.

ROBT. HAWKINS,

H. LINDSEY,

SIMS OWNDEY.

G. W. HAMPTON,

T. O. ROBERTS,

JAS. M. RAY,

war with Spain has pretty well subsided. In The Grand Jury of Buncombe county, fact there never was any just cause for the hue N. C., at the recent term of the Superior Court, candidate in the fourth Congressional District, and cry gotten up by opposition prints and the made a presentment against the know-nothings, met at Franklinton on the 18th inst., and The gentlemen composing the Grand Jury, nominated Geo. W. Thompson, Esq., of Wake. the 14th. horde of hired letter writers who infest Washington city. We believe the President and we are assured by a gentleman acquainted with He represented Wake county in the State Sen- The Vienna Conference met on the 8th, but THE HON. JAMES C. DOBBIN, Secretary of the Cabinet have adhered to their original position them, are persons of the first respectability and ate in 1844-'46-'48. The Standard says he is the result of the meeting has not yet trans-Navy, arrived at his residence in this vicinity in regard to our difficulties, viz : a firm deter- intelligence in Bancombe county. Below we a candid, straightforward, honorable man-an pired. None has met since, and it is not known Rev. Eli Phillips. on Monday evening last. We were sorry to mination to redress the wrongs to our com- publish the document and the charge of Judge independent farmer-and one of the ablest pub-delicate man in frame and features, disease has the country; but we do not think that the STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, [BUNCOMBE COUNTY. Superior Court-Spring Term, 1855. Since he left Washington, we are glad to learn, fact that an old and prudent Commodore, a present that they have reason to believe that a his health has materially improved, and he en- brave and experienced man, was selected to Nothings," exist in this county, one of the obcombination of men, commonly called "Knowtertains the hope that a little relaxation from command the home squadron, proved that the jects of which is, by binding men with extra without good reasons take any step that might from their order, to control citizens of this No man has ever administered the affairs of lead to a collision. county in the exercise of their right to vote the Navy Department in a better manner, and It is said that the Spanish Minister at Wash- conformably with their own free will, as congiven more general satisfaction both to political jugton has declared that his Government will templated by the Constitution and laws of this friends and opponents, than Mr Dobbin. The apologize for and redress the wrongs perpetrat. State. And the said Jurors are ready, if the Honorable Court shall so advise, to furnish for the information of the Court and the Solicitor country substantiates this fact, and the country, the whole affair, no doubt, will be settled with- for the State, a list of witnesses to prove these  criminal law, and what is their duty in the THE DEMOCRACY of Duplin county held a and renewal of strength to enable him to pro-meeting on the 18th inst, at Kenansville, and pray the advice of the Honarable Court in the out together and after going some distance his pected at London on the 16th. They were to D. J. ROBERTS, Foreman.

vention. The following are two of the resolutions passed by the meeting, and although short, they express a good deal: "Resolved, That the old fashioned Demo-

Resolved, That the administration of President Pierce is entitled to the confidence and approval of every man who values the Union instructions as to whether it was an indictable organizing for the battle. The resolutions of Wilmington, C. G. Wright, of Fayetteville, offence, if it should appear that a Society had adopted by the meeting, and published in an- and Wm. J. Houston, of Duplin, addressed the been formed in this county, the object and deother column, breathe the sentiments of all meeting in favor of democratic principles and Society and then by oaths to bind its members to secreey and to compel them to vote against their will, for or against a particular candidate.

A meeting was held in New Hanover on the 24th-see proceedings in another column. The and to the point, and showed that he entertain- "Hon. Wm. S. Ashe, as Chairman of the law, than the point at which a combination of d no love for the secret party. Our friends in other counties of this District Committee on Business, prefaced the reading persons in a common object becomes illegal. If this be so in England in regard to associaed by the Committee to report, by a few feeltions of a political character, still more must it ing remarks personal to himself, returning his be so in this country. It is the combination or duty when the day arrives. Let them do theirs, thanks to his friends then present, and through agreement of a number of persons to do a parthem to the people of the whole District, for ticular act, that constitutes the gist of the ofthe kindness and support which they had ex- fence. But to make the conspiracy or agree-We learn that M. J. McDuffic, Esq., tended to him through a long series of years. ment criminal, the act proposed must be unlawhas accepted an invitation to deliver the Com- Circumstances of a purely private nature, ren- ful; or the combination and agreement must mencement Address at Floral College, Robe- dered his retirement from public life imperative, be to effect a legal purpose by illegal means. sou county, on the 15th June. He will also and in announcing this retirement, his only re- The administration of an oath to the members gret was that he had not been able to make a of any Society not to divulge its secrets, or to deliver the Annual Address before Normal fuller return for the favors and confidence of do or not to do any particular act, is legally of his constituents, favors which would always be no binding obligation, and in a moral point of kept in grateful remembrance by him." A friend in Chatham county, writing us SAMPSON .- In the Wilmington Journal, re- zes the Judge or Magistrate to administer an view decidedly wrong.* The law only authoriceived Friday morning, we find the proceed- oath, in some legal investigation then pending "The weather at this time is unusually warm ings of a democratic meeting held in Clinton and of which the Magistrate may have jurisdicfor the season, also very dry. In fact we have on the 21st inst., and would have published tion; and unless thus administered, the party even should he swear falsely could not be

District Convention.

- 1 1

The democratic Convention to nominate a lic speakers in the District. 113 delegates were without serious results. in attendance. Several speeches were made. Mr A. J. Leach, of Johnston county, gave his experience with the secret party in the follow-The Jurors for the State, upon their oaths, ing manner. We copy from the Standard :

friend put the enquiry to him, could he take an return the following Saturday.

candidates were stuck back in a little antie- pool line. room for a while. He was then conducted into the lodge or council room and the oath was Pierce and his administration. Mr Leach, who were fair at previous quotations.

had ever been a sound and consistent Democrat, said this began to waken him up, and for the first time he suspected some political move- MR EDITOR: Permit me through your colthrough with it, and the next night he took should at this time be given to it. the other two degrees, which made him a "Son

He regretted the oaths he had taken, and secure exemption from it.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

No Prospect of Peace. HALIFAX, April 25 .- The Africa arrived cratic candidate ? Ans .- Because know-nothhere last night, with seven days later advices ings cannot be Wise men. from Europe. She sailed from Liverpool on hen another will be held. Skirmishing continues before Sebastopol

New complications had arisen between Prussia and the Western Powers.

The Peace Conference at Vienna on the 8th did not last an hour. The Russian Plenipoten-"Mr Leach said that he joined the Know Nothings in Baltimore last summer. Being in that eith he net with an accuration which and the out to onit Vienna, which was considered. In Richmond county, on the 12th inst., Mrs Christian that city he met with an acquaintance, who had about to quit Vienna, which was considered been at his house, in Johnston county, a few doubtful. Every thing is at a stand still; and his very ardnous duties will restore him to his wonted health and vigor. His numerous friends wonted health and vigor. His numerous friends against foreign paupers crowding to our shores. 8th. Affairs are essentially unchanged. The This friend remembered the expressions, and Russians were receiving large reinforcements. soon reminded him of them, and then remarked: The allies report themselves ready and fully "Now we have the very thing to put down the Catholics and prevent these foreign paupers Russians had converted their ambuscades into from coming to our country." On enquiring advanced parallels, and erected two batteries, further Mr Leach learned that it was the Know despite the efforts of the allies. The French Nothing organization that was to effect this, were advancing towards Malakoff towers by and he was solicited to join, nothing being said Sap works. Russian despatches from Warsaw facts. And whether this is a violation of the to him about oaths or pledges. He partially say an army of 120,000 men were concentratconsented, and after dark his friend called at ing at the Baltic provinces, and 300 guns were matter, they, the said Jurors, are ignoraut, and his room and proposed a walk. They went afloat. Napoleon and the Empress were ex-> oath? His reply was that he was not in the The North Carolina, a splendid screw habit of taking oaths except when a witness in peller steamship, had been sunk off Holly-head Court. Finally, however, he concluded he in a collision with the ship Robert, for New would see what kind of an oath it was. He Orleans, which put back. The steamer bewas taken up a pair of stairs, and he and other longed to the ill-fated Philadelphia and Liver-> administered, and he was invited to a seat. In the course of the sitting the president of the council made a speech denoming President council made a speech, denouncing President were easier, but not lower. Provisions generally

 For the Carolinian

ment in opposition to the Democratic party, of umus to call the attention of our town authoriwhich he was afterwards convinced. After the ties to a matter of great importance to the council adjourned he told his friend of some community. The warm weather is approaching, things that displeased him, when he was assured and with it a greater liability to disease of varithat he had not yet got fairly into the merits ous kinds. The most efficient preventives of of it-that he had only taken one degree, and local disease are cleanliness and the use of disknew nothing-that there were two more de- infecting agents. This truth is so universally grees he must take to have all the beauties of conceded that it is scarcely necessary to enforce the order revealed to him. Mr L. decided, as it by argument. Let me, however, offer briefly ONE STEAM ENGINE, 35 HORSE POWER,

It is fresh in the recollection of all, that the of the Sires of '76," that being the name of the vellow fever raged with unparalleled virulence order after taking three degrees. He was then during the past Summer and Fall throughout solicited to bay some papers to enable him to establish a council in North Carolina, which he and I trust never will. A few cases, however, did, with the understanding that if he concluded were known to be in Wilmington. Now, it is and friends, that her fourth term of teaching, (eleven not to establish a council that he should return the papers and get his money back. After he countre will again visit the South during the May; hours of instruction (during this term) will be the papers and get his money back. After he scourge will again visit the South during the came home he sent the papers back and de- approaching Summer, and should it reach Wilmanded his money, but never got it. He was mington we shall have just cause for apprehenthoroughly disgusted with Know Nothingism, sion at Fayetteville. It is therefore the part and had never visited one of their lodges since. of wisdom to take the precautions necessary to body, and especially Democrats against the order. He said some good Democrats might for heilthfulness should be sustained. We have

Why is it natural for the members of the secret party in Virginia to oppose the demo-

MARRIED.

In Randolph county, on the 8th inst, Mr James W. Gardner and Miss Lydin Moffit. In Wake county, on the 11th instant, Mr Henry J. Mims to Miss Elizabeth E. Rollins.

DIED.

At his residence in Robeson county, after a short illness, on the 17th April, Mr Neill Leitch, aged about tiary had not received instructions, and was un-ber of the Baptist Church, and in every respect a wor-

Yates, in the 70th year of her age.

NOTICE.

On Monday, the 14th day of MAY next, I shall sell the Court House door in the Town of Fayetteville, EIGHTEEN NEGRO SLAVES, consisting of MEN. WOMEN, BOYS and GIRLS. all young and valuable. Also, at the same time and place, I will sell a

STEAM SAW MILL,

and a TWENTY-FIVE BARREL

TURPENTINE STILL, with all the fixtures connected with both.

All of the above described property will be sold for Cash; it being levied on as the property of Nation King, to satisfy executions in my hands for collection, ALEXANDER JOHNSON, Sheriff. April 27, 1855. 43-3t

There are many DAGUERREOTYPES taken of There are many DAGUERARDITTES taken of persons as specimens, at CROWLS, which might be prized highly. If any one wishes to obtain their picture, they will be disposed of on reasonable terms until Saturday the 5th day of May. Persons wishing to have their Daguerreotypes taken, should call early, as I may possibly close business on the day of the above date. ROOMS over Foulkes & McRe. s drug store. Hay street, directly opposite the Fayetteville Hotel. April 28th.

McLAURIN & STRANGE

HAVE on hand, a large stock of superior SPIRIT BARRELS, which they would sell at a reduced price for eash. Persons wishing to make engagements would do well to call on us before making engagements, as we warrant a good article. April 27, 1855.

200 CASKS FRESH LIME, CALCINED Plaster, Plastering Hair and Cement, Mackerel and J. W. POWERS & CO. Herring, by April 19, 1855. 43-11

he had got into the "snap" that he would go through with it, and the next night he took should at this time be given to it. low. Apply at Foundry to HALL & BOLLINGER, Agents.

April 23, 1855. 43-31

SCHOOL NOTICE.

MRS C. J. WARD respectfully informs her patrons

Small children at $4 per quarter. Those studying Geography, Arithmetic & Writing, $5. April 21, 1855. 5t

FAYETTEVILLE MARKET. Corrected weekly for the North Carolinian.

APRIL 28, 1855.

short. But we hope it will rain, and that we markably scarce in this section, and should the A. McKoy, Esgrs. wheat crop be short, the already very high prices of flour and corn will not get lower soon. whether the Allies and Russia make peace or fight on."

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON .- An ecclipse of the Moon will take place on the 1st May, commencing about 9 o'clock in the evening, and ending about midnight. For one hour and a half the ecclipse will be total.

and soon after the commencement of the Mexi- membership in the know-nothing council withzen of Galveston, Texas, where he continued to They will say "it is said" that such and such reside in the successful prosecution of his pro- men belong to the order, when they have just fession as a lawyer. He had occupied high cause to believe that it is not true. We hope positions in North Carolina and was regarded that gentlemen who belong to the secret party, as one of her most brilliant and cultivated men. if they have indulged in such conduct, will see In his native county, Chatham, he had the the impropriety of it, and discountenance such most ardent and devoted friends, who were steady in their confidence and regard, and early introduced him to the people of the State. As a member of the General Assembly and of the Convention of 1835, he showed the high order attainments.

FROM CALIFORNIA .- The steamer Geo. Law arrived at New York on the 24th, from Caliunimportant :

Law had passed the assembly; but the provi- in that quarter lost their dwellings, corn cribs, sions are not very stringent. The Anti-gambling and smoke houses. We heard of one gentleman, law had passed the Senate.

Accounts from Lower California, represent ed to San Juan del Sud to settle some difficulties. Another Greytown affair was deemed destructive element. probable, Know-Nothingism is not in favor of free diswhich the fraternity treated Mr Wise at Ab- At, or near Dudley's Depot, in Wayne county, fessing to be Americans.

tion declaring Gov. Reeder incompetent for his borhood of Strickland's Depot. position, and his appointment without the consent of the president, and an arbitrary exercise of power.

An election had been ordered at Leavensworth on the 28th, for a successor to Reeder. Delegates were to meet on the 28th to select a farms, houses, &c., and a large number of Turthan I ever knew for the same length of time them this week had we room. Dr. Wm. Mc- vieted of perjury. If a party's word of honor and unpromising. Unless we have rain shortly A. A. McKoy Secretaries. Delegates were not likely have the effect of doing so. In Eng-I fear the crop on ordinary land will be very appointed to the District Convention and the land they have an act of Parliament declaring may be blessed with an average crop at least. right kind of resolutions adopted. The meeting Societies, as unlawful, and forbidding the ad-Grain of every description, also forage, is re- was addressed by Thomas II. Holmes and A. ministration of an oath to its members, accord-Push on the column.

WRONG CONDUCT .-- How is it that those who men, they counot be treated as criminal. In profess to be gentlemen, belonging to the know- this country parties and associations may unite nothing organization, can offer a man's name to carry any political object by fair reason or for membership without his knowledge or conor advantages to unite in the support of parsent? This has been done in Fayetteville, thus tienlar men or measures. But if any set of wilfully placing those known to be opposed to men should conspire together to elect or defeat the secret party in a false position. Can gentle- any one, who might be held up for public trust, men reconcile such conduct with their con- by forcing the voter to vote against his will,

DEATH OF HUGH MCQUEEN, Esq.-The nume- sciences. If we, by any act, place a man in a lawful, and therefore criminal. And if the rous friends of this gentleman will hear with false light before the public or before a partie- Grand Jury should know that any such act had regret the announcement of his death, at La- ular party, it is the same thing as telling a lie been done, it would be their duty to present grange, Texas, on the first of this month. He upon him. We say we cannot understand how the offenders. So if the Grand Jury should removed from this State to the West in 1845, one man dares to present another's name for know or have reason to believe that there existed in the county any association of men, combined together to effect such a purpose, it can war he marched to the "tented field," and out his knowledge and consent. Is it right? would be their duty to investigate the matter was distinguished for his coolness and gallantry Another plan of the know-nothings is, to and act accordingly. But the Jury should not as a soldier. After the war, he became a citi- insinuate that certain persons are members. institute such an investigation, unless they had sufficient grounds to suspect that such a conspiracy did exist, and that for an unlawful pur- protestant use to put down Catholicism!

> *One of the Articles of Faith of the Episcobelieved has an Article of similar import-declares "that vain and rash swearing is forbidunfair dealing. den christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ. In opposing the secret party we intend to But that a man may swear when the Magisdeal fairly and honorably, and we do not wish trate requireth." to create any unkind feelings between neigh-12 The whig and know-nothing press in bors and citizens of the same community, but of his genius and the extent and variety of his we warn those who are members against mis-North Carolna don't seem to like the nomination of Mr Thompson in the Wake District. representing those who are not. "A word to Democrats will like it all the better for that.

the wise," &c. He is sneered at by some because, we suppose, fornia, with $772,000 in gold. The news is that a fire was then raging in the woods in the a lawyer, a doctor, or something else of the $1.000 is offered for his capture. neighborhood of this place, We learn that sort. It don't seem to strike some people that The Legislature expected to adjourn about Mr T. R. Underwood's loss, on the eastern a farmer will make as good a Representative the middle of April. The Prohibitory Liquor side of the River, is about $5,000. Some farmers as a member of one of "the professions." "Locoroco MEETING .- A "large, respectable, and enthusiastic" (we believe that's the phrase,) Mr Culbreth, who had everything consumed, meeting of the Democracy of Cumberland was the notorious Joaquin Meriata as still alive, dwelling, out-houses, fencing, &c. The wind held at the Court House on Saturday. There and meditating another expedition to California. being high, the fire spread so rapidly that it were present just 31 persons-10 in and 21 out- cers in port. The sloop of war St. Mary's had been order- was with the greatest difficulty anything was siders."-Observer. saved by those living within the range of the The Observer is slightly in error about the

The Wilmington Journal of Monday says: sons present when the resolutions were adopt-

"Fire raged to a fearful extent in Wayne ed, five or six of whom were whigs and knowcussion in Virgina, judging from the manner in and Duplin counties last Friday and Saturday. nothings. Afterwards three or four gentlemen we learn that two females were surrounded by ingdon. During that gentleman's speech, the we learn that two remains were surrounded by ing the time the meeting was held, it was quite ingdon. During that gentleman's speech, the members of the secret party yelled and groaned and screamed, and every method was resorted to to annoy him. Pretty conduct for men pro-to to annoy him. Pretty conduct for men pro-to to annoy him. Pretty conduct for men profrom being barnt.

In Duplin county, we learn that a large ex-AFFAIRS IN KANSAS .- St. Louis. April 25 .- tent of woods including the fencing of a number South Carolina Railroad, and in the valleys of The people of Kansas have issued a Proclama- of farms were entirely destroyed, in the neigh- the Catawba and Yadkin River, is very pro-We also learn that the fire was raging in the neighborhood of Black River, in this county, on yesterday.

has been very destructive,, consuming several boro' (S. C.) Register.

name will be forwarded for the president's distillery houses and other fixtures, be-appointment. boxes, distillery houses and other fixtures, be-longing to one gentleman were entirely swept off. of Yellow Fever in that city.

e conbe seduced into the order, but they would not before. Our wheat crops are very backward Koy was Chairman and Josiah Johnson and could not bind him, an unauthorized oath would stay there. No man who desired to maintain structure in our midst, for the education of the Society of United Irishmen, and some other ing to the rules of the Society. But we have sworn to support the candidate designated by fever, pneumonia, pleurisy, influenza, consumpno such statute in this State, and whatever a majority He had no choice, no freedom in may be thought of such oaths by Christian > death blow at religious liberty, for as the ma-Catholics should have been put down; and there was no telling where it would end. Strifes and contentions, and even blood-shed would be the probable results.

> One thing revealed by Mr Leach will prois that the candidates for admission into, the K. N. order are sworn upon-what do you suppose, protestant reader?-a Bible?-no indeed. out upon a cross. On enquiring the reason of this Mr Leach was informed that it was to keep out Catholics, who did not regard an oath taken upon a Bible, but would come in and get their secrets and reveal them; but when the cross was presented to them they would not take the oath. Thus K. N.'s steal a symbol of Catholicism for

Mr Leach concluded by expressing his sorrow that he had ever deviated from the beaten track of Democracy, and asking that he might be pal Church-and the Methodist Church it is received back into the fold, declaring that he knew "Sam" and despised his principles and would fight him to the end.

After Mr Leach had concluded, Mr Anderson Hicks, of Wake, was called upon, who stated that he was induced to take one degree in the dark order, which satisfied him that no good Democrat had any business there, and he withdrew. He also warned those who heard him against the order, and said he disdaiaed it."

Another sea-serpent story is afloat. A party engaged in fishing near Cape May say they saw J Strickland, S J Hinsdale.

the Mississippi was at Rio, the Russian Minis-ter visited the ship, and received a salute. The W J McConnell. S J Piggott, Pearce & Ferguson, J H Russian flag was also hoisted, which caused & J Martine, J W Dick, and sundry other persons. considerable excitement among the French offi-

The Mississippi has been absent since Nov-ember 1852, during which time she has visited Japan thrice, and sailed more than 50,000 miles. A OLDE A. C. A. D. C. C. D. Grines, Fayetteville Mill, A Newsom, Marphy. McRorie & Co, J N Smith, R T Long, C T Haigh & Sons, Maj Laidley, J S Banks, J G Cook, Pearce & Ferguson, Lash & Bro. Rocktish Co, H & E J Lilly. S Backrash. April 21—Strs Rowan and Fanny, with Starr and recovered.

A CARD-To the Masonic Fraternity of N.C.

tion to the above Nos. he would be pleased to be fur- & Co, and B Rose. nished with the proceedings for the years '38, '43, '45, '46 and '49; and he most respectfully solicits informa-gone to a great expense in erecting an elegant the Constitution and allow the privileges young ladies. The remarkable healthfulness of guarantied by it, could remain in the Know Fayetteville makes it a highly suitable location Nothing order Its principles were repugnant for such an institution. Our exemption from to the Constitution, and in conflict with civil those diseases which in higher latitudes are so and religious freedom. Every member was fatal during the winter months, such as scarlet tion, and in Summer our comparative freedom the matter. The minority must surrender every from malarious and other fevers, makes Fayettething to the majority, without even the privi- ville one of the healthiest spots in the country. lege of remaining passive. The order aimed a One institution of learning successfully carried on in our midst will naturally induce others. It jority ruled in every thing, the tendency was is highly essential therefore to our prosperity to attacks on other denominations when the that all the conditions necessary to secure this result should be preserved. Among these, health is the most important. In conclusion I will state, that I have been induced to pen these remarks by observing in various localities a disgusting filthiness-ditches bably somewhat astonish protestants; and that filled with stagnant water foul with decaying matter, both animal and vegetable-generating odors disagreeable and unhealthy,-carcasses of dead animals and filthy offal. These things should be looked after. Moreover the manner in which hogs are permitted to run at large is highly objectionable. The hog law ought to be enforced on Sundays. There is no reason why hogs should be permitted to run at large on that day more than others. A word to the wise is sufficient. V. S.

......

NEW ORLEANS, April 24 .- Mr Kendall, the Postmaster of this city has been arrested on the charge of purloining letters containing $600. His removal from office has also been ordered, and the post tendered to Mr R. L. Adams, who declined it.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

ARRIVED AT FAYETTEVILLE. April 25 .- Str Fanny, (Lutterloh & Co's Line.) with goods for Dr R Dickson, D Brown, P P Johnson, T Graham, J Kyle, Mrs J A McRae, S M Thomas, C Harmson & Co, Mrs M Benton, H C Lucas, J S Banks, Womack & Johason, Itall & Sickett, A M Jackson, T S Ashe, Roberts & Co, Mrs S J Hart, Ruglas & Rollins,

FIRE IN THE Woods.—Last week we stated hat a fire was then raging in the woods in the neighborhood of this place, We learn that Mr T. R. Underwood's loss, on the eastern wide of the River is about $5,000. Some farmers a sa member of one of "the professions." He is sheeled at by some because, we suppose have the reputation of being a lawyer, a doctor, or something else of the sort. It don't seem to strike some people that a farmer will make as good a Representative wide of the River is about $5,000. Some farmers noon, bringing Rio dates to the 24th. While Powers & Co. G W Williams & Co. J II Lindsay, Win-

April 21-Str J R Grist (Banks' line) with goods for Benbow, Kyle & Co. E Grimes, Fayetteville Mill. A

Blossom in tow, (Lutterloh & Co's Line.) with goods for Hall & Bollinger P C Smith, B W Smith, S & Horn, Brethren-You will perceive by the proceedings that D & W McLaurin, J Worth & Son, Powers & Co, J committee was appointed by your Grand Lodge. to Hargrove. D Murphy, J W Hopkins. Council. Ray & compile a history of our Order in the State. Such a Co. S M Thomas. March & Summer, B Tiew, P Taylor. work is much needed, and such an one may be render-ed valuable if we take the necessary interest in it. Let J H Hall, C T Haigh & Sons, Ray & Pearce, Troy & copies of the Proceedings of those years, and forward them to Bro. James Banks of Fayetteville, (free of charge.) will confer a favor on the whole fraternity in North Carolina. As well as I can ascertain, the pro-ceedings of the following years are missing, viz: from 1787 to 1809, inclusive, 1808 '10, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19 '20, '21, '22, '25, '27, '29. It is believ-ed, by diligence and attention on the part of the brethren, most, if not all, the missing numbers may be brethren, most, if not all, the missing numbers may be Howard & Tomkins. S Young, D & W MeLaurin, J W ecovered. C. H. JORDAN, G. M. We are requested by Mr Banks to say that in addi-& Mr. C. H. JORDAN, G. M. We are requested by Mr Banks to say that in addi-

April 21, Str Chatham, with freight for J W Powers

PORT OF WILMINGTON.

APRIL 28, 1895.
BACON, per lb.	9	a,	10
BEESWAX, per lb.	25	(m	00
DELSUAA, per 10.		C
COFFEE, per ib-	1.0	0	191
Rio,	12	6	131
Laguira,	$13\frac{1}{2}$	(4)	60
St. Domingo,	00	(a)	00
	73	(1)	81
COTTON, per lb.		9
COTTON BAGGING, per yard-	10	6	00
Gunny,	18	œ,	60
Dundee,	14	(0)	00
Burlans.	10	(a)	12
COTTON YARN, per lb, Nos. 5 to 10	1. 15	(a)	00
COTTON TRUE PETER CONTROL & CO	00 0000	~	0.01
CANDLES. per lb-	1000	0	- 0
Sperm.	40	6	50
Fayetteville mould,	20	(0)	00
Adamantine.	30	69	35
DOMESTIC GOODS, per yard-	5.6	9
		0
Brown Sheetings,		0	8
Osnaburgs.	9	6	10
FLOUR, per barrel-
	9 50	60	0 00
Superfine,	9 25		0 00
Fine.
Cross,	9 00	1. Sec. 1	0 00
FEATHERS, per lb.	42	(a)	45
FLAXSEED, per bushel,	1 25	(a)	0 00
FLAXSELD, per buchel		0	100000
GRAIN, per bushel-	1 05	0
Cora,		200	1 10
Wheat,	1 25	(11	0 00
Oats,	70	(a)	00
A CANADA AN	85	e
Peas,
Ryc,	1 00	0	00
HIDES, per lb-
Dry,	9	Ca,	10
	3	6	4
Green,	10	(a)
LARD, per lb.
LEAD, per 1b.		@	10
LEATHER, sole, per lb.	25	(a)	30
TOBABCO, manufactured, per lb.	15	(a)	50
		C
SALT-	1 02	0	0.00
Liverpool. per sack,	1 25		0.00
Alum, per bushel.	60	C	00
MOLASSES, per gallon,-
Cuba. (new crop)	274	Ge	00
	20100	1 (Carlos)
New Orleans,	40	C	00
SUGAR, per lb
Loaf and crushed.	10	(1)	12
St Croix, PortoRico, & NOrles	ns 7	(0)
	5 50
NAILS, cut. per keg,	5 50	C	0 00
IRON, per lb-	0.02	- 221	10726
English,	44	(a)	00
Sweedes, common bar,	51	(a)	00
Do. wide.	63	(a)	00
A REAL PROPERTY AND A REAL	1708	0	·
SPIRITS, per gallon-	3.07	3
Peach Brandy,			0 00
Apple do.	65	(11)	70
N. C. Whiskey,	55	(0)
	75	(a)
and the second		10.000
FODDER. per hundred,	1 25	COLUMN T	0.00
HAY. N. C. "	0.0	(a)	1 00
WOOL, per lb.	13	(a)	15
		Ga	CITIES .
TALLOW, per lb.
BEEF, on the hoof, per lb.	7	(0)
BEEF, by the quarter or side, per li). 7	(4)
DODE non lb	61	(0)
MUTTON, per lb.	5	@
autornys and	123	10.0
CHICKENS, each,	100 C
EGGS, per dozen,	10	(a)
BUTTER, per 1b.	20	(1)	25
POTATOES. Sweet, per bushel,	80	a	00
			1
Do. Irish, per bbl.	5 50	a	00
and the second sec	100 1000	at n to m	COTA- COLOR

REMARKS .- Bacon in good supply-sales at 95 hog round-and for extra N. C. hams 11 to 114 cts. Corn in good demand at $1,10. We note a good demand for Cotton at 8; for best grades-some sales at 9. Flour market steady-$9,50 for super.

Spirits Turpentine-no change to note. Sales reported in New York on 24th inst., at 42 cents per gallon. Raw do. same as last week.

Beef is scarce and wanted. Some fine cattle sold on the hoof, first of the week, at 8 cts. per lb.

Nore .- Last week in our remarks on the market an error occurred in the price of Cotton, caused by the compositor. The article was put down at 81 instead of SI as it was in the table.

WILMINGTON MARKET, April 26. TURPENTINE.-Sales yesterday of a lot of 130 bbls. all yellow dip. at $2 65 per bbl. There is very little coming in, and prices have an upward tendency. Spinits .- Further sales yesterday of 50 casks at 45 cts. per gallon. Rosin.—There was some activity in the Common article yesterday, and prices advanced 5 to 10 cts, per bbl., with sales of 4,700 bbls. a) $1 25 per bbl. for large bbls.

TAR .- We have no transactions to report. There is fair demand existing, with none on market. Coan.-We note the receipt yesterday of a cargo of 2,000 bushels, to order.

Corron .- Sales to-day of 23 bales Middling, at 9 | cts. per lb.

came in, and four or five went out. Consider-number present. We counted thirty-nine per-

WHEAT CROP .- We are gratified that the wheat crop along the line of the Charlotte and mising, that an unusual quantity of grain has been sowed the past season.

In this District we have not been so fortunate. The cold weather, severe frosts, and subsequent In Bruuswick county, we learn that the fire dry weather have very much injured it .- Wins-

