POETRY SOBERED DOWN .- I'm thinking on the time, Kate, when sitting by thy side, and shelling beans I gazed on thee, and felt a woman's pride. In silence leaned we o'er the pan, and neither spoke a word, but the rattling tution of the State, and the acquirements of the plan of the next campaign is not decid-thy lily cheek; thy azure eyes, half filled with a lot of beans, I snatched a nectar kiss. And two seas, and will threaten the enemy's ill a sudden shower made me blind, I neither saw nor stirred, but the rattling of the beans, Kate, was all the sound I heard.  The Louisville Times says there is one live whig in the present Kentucky Legislature.
