Whether the flag from the New York Regiment was afterwards elevated from any other point, I have no means of knowing; but were unanimously tendered to the President certain it is, that General Quitman, attended by a portion of the Palmetto and New York Regiments, was the first to enter the city, and the flag of the Palmetto Regiment was, as I have stated, the first in requisition. My recollection upon this subject is particularly distinct -it may be supposed, that I was particularly impressed with all the incidents of an occurrence so important, but besides this, I had just come from preventing difficulty upon the same subject at the heights of Chapultepec. When the heighs were cleared two officers the one Lieut. Pickett, of the 8th infantry, and the other, a Lieutenant of the 9th, were both ambitious of raising the flags of their respective regiments. The Lieutenant of the 9th was in the act of raising his flag, when Lieut Pickett, who was an adjutant, ordered him to haul it down. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE IN TEXAS Hear what the Proprietor of the "STAR HOTEL," has to say of the wonderful effects of McLanes Vermifuge;

"STAR HOTEL," CENTREVULE, TEXAS, Aug. 22d, 1854. I fee! in duty bound to make the following statement; Several of my children have been unwell for the last week or two. Fealled at the "Big Morrar" to get man of honor, that you will keep that gun some Oil of Wormseed and other truck to give them bearing directly upon me, and that you will fire for worms. The Druggist recommended McLANE'S it off the moment you see me raise my hand." VERMIFUGE, but having, heretofore, tried every Vermifuge, in my knowing without advantage, I tole him it was not worth while, as my children appeared proof against them all. He said to me take a bottle, and offered if it done no good to refund the money. To satisfy him I done so, and the effect was so much better than expected that I got another bottle, and the result "Sir, I have not put myself under the proection of your truce without knowing your "Bors" gnawing at his stomach, is the greatest wonder to me. All these cases are now doing well. No doubt
